sought a new life in William Penn's land of religious freedom eventually settling on the banks of the Cocalico Creek in what is now Lancaster County. They called their community Ephrata after the Hebrew name for the area around Bethlehem. Voices of the Turtledoves is a fascinating look at the sacred world that flourished at Ephrata. In Voices of the Turtledoves Jeff Bach is the first to draw extensively on Ephrata's manuscript resources and on recent archaeological investigations to present an overarching look at the community. He concludes that the key to understanding all the various aspects of life at Ephrata its architecture manuscript art and social organization is the religious thought of Beissel and his co-leaders.
