European Studies Asia Pacific Studies International Relations Law Human Rights and Business Studies Europe-Asia Interregional Relations Bart Gaens, 2016-04-29 This book examines the interregional relations of the European Union with East Asia through the prism of the Asia Europe Meeting ASEM ASEM currently brings together 16 Asian countries the 27 member states of the European Union as well as the ASEAN Secretariat and the European Commission ASEM's ten year anniversary and the Sixth Summit in Helsinki prompted reflection on the forum's accomplishments in three dimensions of interaction its working methods democratic involvement public awareness and global strategic potential The volume provides an in depth evaluation of ASEM's first decade from a European perspective including the achievements of the ASEM6 Summit and its implications for the future of the process It also analyzes the role of interregional interaction as a tool for EU foreign policy The European Union and Interregionalism Mr Mathew Doidge, 2013-03-28 The European Union and Interregionalism is the most comprehensive study of interregionalism to date providing a vigorous analysis of its role and functions in the architecture of global governance and of the place of qualitative differences between regional actors in shaping interregional relationships Regionalism itself is an established phenomenon with regional politics becoming increasingly institutionalised As a result with the EU as forerunner regions have begun to exert themselves in the external policy space developing networks of relations including prominently interregional relations We have thus seen the emergence of a new governance space at the interregional level banded on one side by sites of global governance and on the other by governance at the regional level Important questions challenging the current literature of these interregional structures include do interregional relationships conform to theoretical expectations and what patterns of engagement and interaction are emerging within the EU's core interregional partnerships and are these replicated elsewhere Exploring interregionalism beyond the core Europe Asia partnerships including the network of relations centred on ASEAN this book should be read by all those engaged in consideration of interregional structures to understand how patterns of EU centred interregional engagement rather than being sui generis are increasingly evident in the broader network of interregional relationships The Economic Relations Between the European Union and East Asia Jie Zhang, 1997 The Role of the European Union in Asia Juha Jokela, 2016-02-24 Establishing strategic partnerships is a key objective for the European Union These partnerships provide frameworks for flexible and long term cooperation with global and regional players This book focuses on the EU's strategy toward China and India and explores ways of promoting a stronger and more versatile role for the EU in Asia The volume examines the emergence of China and India as global powers and the implications for the EU's common policies and strategies It focuses on the role of the EU within Asia in terms of its political security related and cultural impact in addition to economic presence and it explores the interplay of the EU China and India in global governance and in utilizing and promoting multilateralism especially in the context of climate change and energy security The contributors discuss avenues for the EU to pursue its interests in Asia and to achieve its objectives in global governance and multilateralism through partnerships with China and India while retaining its special relationship with the United States

Developing EU-Japan Relations in a Changing Regional Context Dimitri Vanoverbeke, Takao Suami, Takako Ueta, Nicholas Peeters, Frederik Ponjaert, 2017-10-02 Relations between the EU and East Asia have consistently expanded in recent years particularly between the EU and Japan Against the background of negotiations on an economic and strategic partnership agreement the EU Japan relationship is set to become the single most comprehensive region to state relationship the world has known today accounting for more than a third of world GDP and a combined population of more than 600 million people This book addresses the potential role of the EU in cooperation with Japan to craft a stable and prosperous mode of governance in the Asian region In today s globalized world seemingly defined by waxing Chinese power and waning American power the book reflects the lack of appreciation for an EU Japan concert in maintaining and developing multilateral principles It aims towards fortifying this relationship by acknowledging that in order to enhance the credibility and capabilities of such an alliance it is necessary to take stock of where the partnership stands today what kind of obstacles still need to be overcome and which options have been left untouched By introducing state of the art empirical research in multiple fields this book will be of key interest to students and scholars of international relations comparative regionalism the European Union and Japanese politics

The European Union, East Asia and South Korea Christian Franck, Kwang Ho Chun, 2005 This book is the first to make the point on the different aspects of the relations between Europe and East Asia with a special focus on Korea The approach favours multidisciplinary by analyzing topics from different angles history economy and politics

Interregionalism and the European Union Mario Telò, Louise Fawcett, Frederik Ponjaert, 2016-03-09 Is the EU isolated within the emergent multipolar world Concentrating on interregional relations and focussing on the European Union s EU evolving international role with regards to regional cooperation this innovative book collects a set of fresh empirical analyses of interregional ties binding the EU with its Eastern and Southern neighbourhood as well as with Asia Africa and the Americas The 25 leading authors from 5 continents have contributed original and diverse chapters and the book advances a novel theoretical post revisionist approach beyond both the Eurocentrism of Europe First perspectives as well as the Euroscepticism of those advocating to simply move Beyond Europe After a Foreword by A Acharya the book s five sections reflect the main drivers of EU interregional policies The European Union as a Sophisticated Laboratory of Regional and Interregional Cooperation with chapters by M Telò, Louise Fawcett and T Risse De Facto Drivers of Regionalism F Ponjaert M Shu A Vallado and C Jakobeit De Jure Drivers of Regionalism S Lavenex G Finizio C Jakobeit R Coman C Cocq S Teo L Shah Cognitive Drivers of Regionalism J Riland E Fitriani S Stavridis S Kingah P Bacon and Instrumental Drivers of Regionalism B Delcourt C Olsson G Moller A Malamud P Seabra and L Fioramonti J Kostopoulos

The European Union and Japan Paul Bacon, Hartmut Mayer, Hidetoshi Nakamura, 2016-03-09 The EU and Japan have one of the most important trade relationships in the world Fittingly this book presents a detailed analysis of their bilateral regulatory environment and negotiation processes Moreover the two polities have also co operated extensively in bilateral and multilateral contexts on a range of global governance issues Nevertheless the relationship is widely acknowledged to have significant untapped potential Deploying the concept of civilian power the book takes a fresh honest and provocative look at this important relationship in a post Fukushima post sovereign debt crisis world First the book analyses the place of EU Japan relations within the worldviews of the Japanese and European bodies politic Subsequently three thematic sections evaluate their cooperation on such issues as trade energy security environmental politics development human rights post conflict reconstruction health and biosecurity The eminent scholars of the EU Japan relationship gathered in this book offer informed empirically rich and policy relevant insights into the present and future prospects for the relationship

Europe-Asia Relations Richard Balme, Brian Bridges, 2008-05-15 Europe and Asia are two major centres for the development of multi polar and multi lateral relations This volume explores the substance and manner in which the member countries of the EU and their Asian counterparts interact at bilateral multi lateral and inter regional levels

EU-ASEAN Relations in the 21st Century D. Novotny, C. Portela, 2012-10-17 Escaping the economic and security centered approaches prevalent in contemporary U S debate the contributors explore political relations between the European Union EU and Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN Their inter disciplinary perspectives touch on domains such as security comparative integration human rights energy

Asian-European Relations Jurgen Ruland, Gunter Schubert, Gunter Schucher, Cornelia Storz, 2008-02-29 Applying established theories to concrete phenomena Asian European Relations provides a comprehensive understanding of inter regionalism and how co operation between Asia and Europe should be fashioned in the new millennium It contributes to the most recent developments in research by providing impressively rich studies to test existing theoretical frameworks

Integration in Asia and Europe Paul J.J. Welfens, 2006 Broadening and deepening of economic and political integration are hallmarks of the EU and ASEAN Analysing the economic and institutional changes in both Europe and Asia this book emphasizes on banking financial market dynamics ICT and macroeconomic policies The legal aspects are combined with historical and economic perspectives

What about Asia? Josine Stremmelaar, Paul van der Velde, 2006 As Asia has become more prominent on the international scene in recent decades economically politically and culturally the scholarly discipline of Asian studies has grown commensurately But major questions remain about the scope of the discipline and its goals What about Asia both surveys the current state of the debate on Asian studies and suggests several fruitful directions for future exploration especially through the use of multiregional and interdisciplinary approaches

Regionalism in East Asia Fu-kuo Liu, Philippe Regnier, 2013-10-18 Regional cooperation and integration have emerged as key issues for East Asia following the financial crisis This book explores these issues and examines the degree to which a new paradigm is emerging It reviews the evolution of the concepts and practices of regionalism in East Asia and considers the factors which are shaping new patterns of regional co operation and integration It includes discussions of historical developments economic co operation socio political factors and defence and security It considers the role of those states including China and Japan which have distinctive approaches to international relations and assesses the role of regional international bodies such as ASEAN Asia and Latin America Jörn Dosch,Olaf Jacob,2010-02-25 This book analyses the economic political and socio cultural relations between Asia and Latin America and examines their growing importance in international relations
