The Europeans Henry James, 2009-06-25 Eugenia Baroness M nster, wife of a German princeling, who wishes to be rid of her crosses, the ocean with her brother Felix to seek out their American relatives. Their voyage is prompted apparently by natural affection, but the Baroness has also come to seek her fortune. The advent of these visitors is viewed by the Wentworths in the suburbs of Boston with wonder and some apprehension. The brilliant Eugenia fascinates her impressionable cousins and their more worldly neighbour, but she is baffled by these people to whom fibbing was not pleasing. Meanwhile Felix, painter of trifling sketches, eases them all in and out of various amorous complications with no fear of not being in the end agreeable.

The Europeans: a sketch, with an introd Henry James, The Europeans Henry James,2016-10-19 The Europeans A sketch is a short novel by Henry James It is essentially a comedy contrasting the behaviour and attitudes of two visitors from Europe with those of their relatives living in the new world of New England One of the most important themes of the novel is the comparison between European and American women which James stresses through the great difference existing between Eugenia and the Wentworth ladies Madame Munster is independent modern and displays hauteur Gertrude and Charlotte lack this self possession For example they tend to comply with their father s suggestions When Mr Wentworth tries to arrange a marriage between Mr Brand and Gertrude to which she objects it is difficult for her to clearly express her preference The sisters spend most of their free time with the family until the moment in which Gertrude discovers herself to be in love with Felix Her love encourages her to take a new perspective on the world and to resist the presumptions of her family She reacts against her father s decision regarding Mr Brand explaining that she will never marry a man she does not love Instead Gertrude will marry Felix and leave America The difference between Europeans and New Englanders manifests itself in particular in the expression of feelings and emotions which are very sensitive for the former love is more important than money Moreover American people are more straitlaced and they have closer links with tradition The most important thing in life for those living in the New World is ironically respecting old traditions and accepting the rules of a good morality Mr Wentworth is profoundly surprised and fascinated by Eugenia s marriage experience as well as Robert Acton s in the Americans eyes Eugenia is a perplexing woman The Aspern Papers & The Europeans Henry James,2020-12 The Europeans A sketch is a short novel by Henry James published in 1878 The Aspern Papers is a novella by American writer

The Europeans Henry James,2020-05-04 A narrow grave yard in the heart of a bustling indifferent city seen from the windows of a gloomy looking inn is at no time an object of enlivening suggestion and the spectacle is not at its best when the mouldy tombstones and funereal umbrage have received the ineffectual refreshment of a dull moist snow fall If while the air is thickened by this frosty drizzle the calendar should happen to indicate that the blessed vernal season is already six weeks old it will be admitted that no depressing influence is absent from the scene This fact was keenly felt on a certain 12th of May upwards of thirty years since by a lady who stood looking out of one of the windows of the best hotel in the ancient city of Boston She had stood there for half an hour stood there that is at intervals for from time to time she turned back into the room and measured its length with a restless step In the chimney place was a red hot fire which emitted a small blue flame and in front of the fire at a table sat a young man who was busily plying a pencil He had a number of sheets of paper cut into small equal squares and he was apparently covering them with pictorial designs strange looking figures He worked rapidly and attentively sometimes threw back his head and held out his drawing at arm s length and kept up a soft gay sounding humming and whistling The lady brushed past him in her walk her much trimmed skirts were voluminous She never dropped her eyes upon his work she only turned them occasionally as she passed to a mirror suspended above the toilet table on the other side of the room Here she paused a moment gave a pinch to her waist with her two hands or raised these members they were very plump and pretty to the multifold braids of her hair with a movement half caressing half corrective An attentive observer might have fancied that during these periods of desultory self inspection her face forgot its melancholy but as soon as she neared the window again it began to proclaim that she was a very ill pleased woman And indeed in what met her eyes there was little to be pleased with The window panes were battered by the sleet the head stones in the grave yard beneath seemed to be holding themselves askance to keep it out of their faces A tall iron railing protected them from the street and on the other side of the railing an assemblage of Bostonians were trampling about in the liquid snow Many of them were looking up and down they appeared to be waiting for something From time to time a strange vehicle drew near to the place where they stood such a vehicle as the lady at the window in spite of a considerable acquaintance with human inventions had never seen before a huge low omnibus painted in brilliant colors and decorated apparently with jangling bells attached to a species of groove in the pavement through which it was dragged with a great deal of rumbling bouncing and scratching by a couple of remarkably small horses When it reached a certain point the people in front of the grave yard of
