A Catalogue of the Library of the London Institution: The general library London Institution. Library, William A Catalogue of the Library of the London Institution: Systematically Classed. Preceded by an Historical and Bibliographical Account of the Establishment. [Compiled by William Upcott, Richard Thomson and Edward W. Brayley.] London Institution (London),1835 Christianity, Book-Burning and Censorship in Late Antiquity Dirk Rohmann, 2016-07-25 It is estimated that only a small fraction less than 1 per cent of ancient literature has survived to the present day The role of Christian authorities in the active suppression and destruction of books in Late Antiquity has received surprisingly little sustained consideration by academics In an approach that presents evidence for the role played by Christian institutions writers and saints this book analyses a broad range of literary and legal sources some of which have hitherto been little studied Paying special attention to the problem of which genres and book types were likely to be targeted the author argues that in addition to heretical magical astrological and anti Christian books other less obviously subversive categories of literature were also vulnerable to destruction censorship or suppression through prohibition of the copying of manuscripts These include texts from materialistic philosophical traditions texts which were to become the basis for modern philosophy and science This book examines how Christian authorities theologians and ideologues suppressed ancient texts and associated ideas at a time of fundamental transformation in the late classical world Iulius Africanus Chronographiae Iulius Africanus, 2011-03-01 Iulius Africanus has rightly been called the Father of Christian Chronography His world chronicle is one of the few works of Christian literature pioneering a new genre Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages mainly articulated their reflection on history in the form of the world chronicle The work has not been preserved in its entirety the extant fragments have to be laboriously pieced together from the works of later authors To date there has not been a critical edition of this material and the edition in use today dates back nearly 200 years J M Routh 1814 This new edition in the GCS series closes an old gap in the programme of this series and at the same time marks a new beginning because this is the first edition ever in this series to be published with an English translation The edition establishes a completely new foundation for our knowledge of Early Christian historical thinking and in addition provides an important component in our understanding of an important epoch the Imperial Crisis of the 3rd century in which the new world of Late Antiquity began to develop out of the Hellenic Roman heritage Origines Ecclesiasticae; Or the Antiquities of the Christian Church and Other Works of Joseph Bingham Joseph Bingham, 1845 Catalogue of the London library.
