How To Watch Television Ethan Thompson, Jason Mittell, 2013-09-16 Examines social and cultural phenomena through the lens of different television shows We all have opinions about the television shows we watch but television criticism is about much more than simply evaluating the merits of a particular show and deeming it good or bad Rather criticism uses the close examination of a television program to explore that program's cultural significance, creative strategies and its place in a broader social context. How to Watch Television brings together forty original essays from today's leading scholars on television culture writing about the programs they care and think the most about. Each essay focuses on a particular television show demonstrating one way to read the program and through it our media culture. The essays model how to practice media criticism in accessible language providing critical insights through analysis suggesting a way of looking at TV that students and interested viewers might emulate. The contributors discuss a wide range of television programs past and present covering many formats and genres spanning fiction and non-fiction, broadcast and cable providing a broad representation of the programs that are likely to be covered in a media studies course. While the book primarily focuses on American television, important programs with international origins and transnational circulation are also covered. Addressing television series from the medium's earliest days to contemporary online transformations of television, How to Watch Television is designed to engender classroom discussion among television critics of all backgrounds.

Speaking of the short story Farhat Iftikharuddin, 1997. Here twenty-one interviews, eighteen with contemporary writers and three with scholars of the short story, reveal the demanding and exhilarating requirements the short story imposes upon its practitioners. Although amateurs delight in writing stories, form proves to demand a master touch like that of the interviewees.

My Autobiography A.P. McCoy, 2011-10-20. The fully updated autobiography of Tony A.P. McCoy, Grand National and BBC SPORTS PERSONALITY OF THE YEAR winner and unquestionably the greatest jump jockey ever, Tony A.P. McCoy is without doubt the greatest and most successful jump jockey of all time. He has collected a record 16 consecutive jump jockey titles to date; since 1992 he has ridden more than 3,000 winners, saying "I never stop dreaming of the day I'll reach 4,000" and in 2002 he beat Sir Gordon Richards's record of 269 winners in a season by riding 289. In April 2010 A.P. achieved his lifelong ambition when he won the Grand National at Aintree on Don't Push It. It was his 15th attempt to win the race, a victory that captured the public's imagination and further enhanced a glittering career in which he had seemingly won all there was to win. It was the missing piece in the racing jigsaw for a champion jockey who had already had famous victories in the King George VI Chase, Champion Hurdle, Champion Chase and Cheltenham Gold Cup. This powerfully honest autobiography looks at life at the very top in National Hunt racing and includes the highs and lows of A.P. winning his second Gold Cup in 2012, fifteen years after his first, only to see the horse put down after a fall in that year's Grand National. These are the memoirs of a true champion, an icon of sport whose astonishing achievements are unlikely to be surpassed. It is a great story of courage and modesty, pain and professional setbacks, strong family values and sporting triumphs, the good guy coming first and staying there.
