Evaluating Development Assistance Approaches And Methods:

Evaluating Development Assistance L. Berlage, Olav Stokke, 1992 First Published in 1992 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Evaluating Development Assistance Lodewijk Berlage, Olav Stokke, 2018-10-24 First published in 1992 The present volume belongs to a series focusing on the evaluation of development assistance This series is part of a research and publishing programme under the auspices of the Working Group on Aid Policy and Performance of the European Association of Development Research and Training Institutes EADI Two volumes have already appeared The first focuses on the performance and economic impact of food aid and the second on the evaluation policies and performance of some European countries The papers were presented at a workshop in March 1990 organised by the Norwegian Institute of International Affairs at Lysebu on the outskirts of Oslo Evaluation Landscape in Africa Caitlin Blaser Mapitsa, Precious Tirivanhu, Nedson Pophiwa, 2019-09-02 This book explores the discourse on evaluation in Africa and answers these questions What is the purpose of evaluation in the region based on the evaluations currently being conducted What is the professional background of evaluators in Africa What methods are used in evaluations in the region What is the status of evaluation capacity development in the region How is the quality of evaluations being conducted in Africa The book looks at the evaluation field in its entirety It does not focus on practice but includes considerations for the evaluation sector that apply to evaluation commissioners programme beneficiaries donors capacity builders and the entire constellation of stakeholders working on improving development practice It hopes to promote a data driven approach to the evaluation sector to help strengthen engagement and practice International Development Assistance Olav Stokke, 2019-03-08 This book provides a comprehensive search for the basic political drivers of international development cooperation based on the policy and performance of the OECD countries from the early 1960s to the present The author focuses on the stated and implemented policies of the four so called frontrunners and the Western hegemon scrutinizing the changing trends in the justifications objectives and guidelines set for the policy and their evolving performance vis vis the international ODA target Through extensive research the work examines predominant world views societal value systems and foreign policy traditions in order to find the policy drivers that vary nation to nation and how development assistance has evolved globally

Evaluating Public Participation in Policy Making OECD, 2005-08-16 This book examines the key issues for consideration when evaluating information consultation and public participation Policy Coherence in Development Co-operation Jacques Forster, Olav Schram Stokke, 2013-09-13 In the 1990s a shared conviction emerged among aid donors that their policies should be more coherent The drive towards increased policy coherence came as a response to a state of policy incoherence The shifting grounds of policy coherence in development co operation are outlined in this volume Regions and Development Sheila Page, 2020-12-15 At the 1996 EADI Conference the papers presented in the World Trade and Trade Policy workshop looked at the new trends in regionalism from a variety of points of view for different institutions They considered the effects of regions their implications for policy and performance in the developing countries and for international economic institutions and tried to interpret them in terms of economic and political theory The Development Dimension Strengthening Accountability in Aid for Trade OECD,2011-10-31 This book looks at what the trade and development community needs to know about aid for trade results what past evaluations of programmes and projects reveal about trade outcomes and impacts and how the trade and development community could improve the performance of aid for trade interventions The UN and Development Olav Stokke,2009-07-06 The UN and Development provides the first comprehensive overview of the development policies and activities of the United Nations system from the late 1940s to the present With an explicit focus on the history of the ideas that have been generated institutionalized and implemented by UN organizations this book examines changing trends in development paradigms from the concept of technical assistance to underdeveloped countries as they were called in the late 1940s to development cooperation in the 21st century Olav Stokke traces this fascinating story and demonstrates the UN s essential role and its future challenges in aiding the least developed countries and the globe s billion poorest inhabitants Methods For Social Analysis In Developing Countries Kurt Finsterbusch,2019-04-05 This book fills the gap between social science methodology books and the realities of conducting social research under Third World conditions It focuses on social impact assessment methods and cost effective social analyses for development projects and programs in US and Third World countries Evaluation Methodologies for Aid in Conflict Ole Winckler Andersen,Beate Bull,Megan Kennedy-Chouane,2013-12-13 Knowledge and rigorous evidence around the role of external development partners in situations of conflict and fragility is still lacking There is little accountability for the billions in aid being spent in places like Afghanistan Iraq and the Democratic Republic of Congo This book analyses evaluation theory and practice in order to help fill this knowledge gap and advocates a realistic and rigorous approach to evaluating international engagement Through a series of case studies this book highlights both the promise and potential pitfalls of taking a more evaluative approach to understanding aid in conflict regions These illustrate the methodological and analytical approach taken by researchers working to understand the results and effectiveness of conflict prevention and peacebuilding support While well grounded in current theoretical and methodological debates the book provides valuable practical information by examining how and why different choices were made in the context of each evaluation The book shows what future steps may be envisaged to further strengthen evaluations of support for conflict prevention and peacebuilding The analysis draws on a wealth of perspectives and voices to provide researchers and students in development studies and conflict and peace studies as well as development evaluators with a deep and broad understanding of evaluation methods and approaches Development-Induced Displacement and Resettlement Bogumil Terminski,2014-05-01 This book explores the issue of development induced resettlement with a particular emphasis on the humanitarian legal and social aspects of this problem Today so called development induced displacement and resettlement DIDR is one of the dominant causes of internal spatial mobility worldwide Each year over 15 million people are forced to abandon their homes to make space for economic development infrastructure The construction of dams and irrigation projects the expansion of communication networks urbanization and re urbanization the extraction and transportation of mineral resources forced evictions in urban areas and population redistribution schemes count among the many possible causes Terminski aims to present the issue of development caused displacement as a highly diverse global social problem occurring in all regions of the world As a human rights issue it poses a challenge to public international law and to institutions providing humanitarian assistance A significant part of this book is devoted to the current dynamics of development caused resettlement in Europe which has been neglected in the academic literature so far
