Evaluating And Assessing The Visual Arts In Education International Perspectives:

Evaluating and Assessing the Visual Arts in Education Douglas Boughton, Elliot W. Eisner, Johan Ligtoet, 1996-01-01

Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education Elliot W. Eisner, Michael D. Day, 2004-04-12 This work provides an overview of the progress that has characterized the field of research and policy in art education It profiles and integrates history policy learning curriculum and instruction assessment and competing perspectives

Beyond Multicultural Art Education Rachel Mason, Doug Boughton, 1999 Multiculturalism is a term that has been much used in educational texts in recent years Its usage is frequently taken for granted in the rhetoric of curriculum literature However it has recently become clear that there are significant variations of interpretations of multiculturalism in different world regions This book takes a new and deeper look at the notion of multiculturalism through the lens of art education In educational terms art is a unique tool for the investigation of cultural values because it transcends the barrier of language and provides visceral and tacit insights into cultural change In order to address the educational interpretations and methods of implementing multiculturalism in different regions of the world this book contains discussion and analysis of perspectives on art education theory and practice from thirteen countries The authors of each chapter are respected multicultural experts in their geographic locations who are well equipped to provide unique insights into the particular issues of multiculturalism viewed from the perspective of art in educational contexts The book as a whole provides tools for the conceptual analysis of contemporary notions linked with multiculturalism such as interculturalism internationalism and globalisation It also provides strategies for art teaching in relation to these ideas While the term multicultural education is problematic this book presents conceptual frameworks that should assist educators to examine their own teaching on issues of equity and diversity that are central to the multicultural education debate

Authentic Secondary Art Assessment Cathy Smilan, Richard Siegesmund, 2023-09-11 Offering a contemporary overview of how visual art teachers assess learning in their classrooms this book provides an outline of the role of assessment in reporting not only student achievement but also how student assessment ties to the intrinsic and external assessments of teacher performance Compiled using stories from the classrooms of 19 visual art high school teachers who share their approaches to benchmarking student success the text encourages teachers to consider assessment both for guiding their students to achieve artistic goals and for re envisioning their own curriculum and instruction The featured assessment snapshots fall along four strands Visual Narratives and Visual Literacy Capturing Empathic Understandings and Social Engagement Measuring Risk taking and Ingenuity and Assessing Collaborative and Integrated Learning Outcomes Across these sections teacher contributors offer different perspectives for student assessment capturing a snapshot of the work of skilled practitioners and focusing on various aspects of what can be evidenced and analyzed through formative and summative evaluation The voices of university level art educators are also included to expand the range of context from curriculum and instruction content that is covered in pre service art methods courses All sections also conclude with a summary questions and discussion points Including diverse teacher voices as well as presenting assessment perspectives with an eye to the National Core Art Standards NCAS this book is ideal for pre service and in service secondary art educators as well as for use in art education teacher certification courses that focus on secondary methods and art education graduate classes in assessment Learning in and Through Art Stephen M.
