Marketing in Travel and Tourism Mike Morgan, Ashok Ranchhod, 2010-09-08

Marketing in Travel and Tourism aims to guide and support readers through the complexities of tourism marketing in the 21st Century. It sets out clear explanations of marketing principles and concepts adapted from mainstream services marketing and goes on to illustrate the range of applications currently practised in the modern visitor economy. Now in its fourth edition and reprinted almost every year since 1988, each chapter of the book has been updated to include current evaluations of all the key developments in marketing, especially consumer centric marketing and the now focal role of the Internet in the marketing mix. The chapters on communicating with customers have been extensively rewritten to take account of e marketing and related marketing developments in tourism that are pulled together in a forward looking Epilogue. This fully revised edition includes full colour interior with pedagogic features such as discussion questions and exercises to encourage further exploration of key areas, new material on the role of e marketing, motivations and consumer behaviour, five in depth international case studies including Tourism New Zealand and Agra Indian World Heritage Site, along with 17 mini cases to contextualise learning, a companion website www.elsevierdirect.com 9780750686938 packed with extra resources such as Power Point slides and interactive multiple choice questions to aid teaching and learning. Marketing in Travel and Tourism provides a truly international and comprehensive guide to marketing in the global travel industry, an indispensable text for all students and lecturers.

Crisis Management in the Tourism Industry Dirk Glaesser, 2006-10-19

The tourism industry is arguably one of the most important sources of income and foreign exchange and is growing rapidly. However, national and international crises have huge negative economic consequences. Crisis Management in the Tourism Industry aims to illustrate the theories and actions that can be taken to better understand consumer economic and environmental reaction in order for the businesses involved to be more prepared for such events. Now in its second edition, this text has been fully revised and extended to include recent events such as Bali SARS and international terrorism, expanding sections such as Terrorism and criminal activities, Risk perceptions and the influencing variables, The stakeholder concepts, Analysis methods, visibility of advantages, disadvantages of methods, Marketing instruments and best practices. Written by one of the world's leading experts from the World Tourism Organisation, the book has global coverage and presents international up to date case studies and examples from countries such as the UK, Australia and USA. The book provides discussion of The influential effect of the mass media, How crises effect the purchase decision process, Destination branding image and its manipulation, Preventative crises management and strategies. Crisis Management in the Tourism Industry is an essential guide to explaining how the tourism industry can prepare and succeed in the face of the effects of crises.
