Evaluations Of Continuums Of Care For Homeless People:

Evaluations of Continuums of Care for Homeless People Wendy Mogel, Martha R. Burt, 2002-12 A Continuum of Care CoC is a local or regional system for help people who are homeless or at imminent risk of homelessness by providing housing and services from homeless prevention to emergency shelter to permanent housing This study examined 25 CoC in all regions of the country The study intentionally identified communities to study that appeared to have been successful in implementing a CoC and which had received more than a typical share of Gov t funding The completed study provides a rich array of info on the activities of high performing CoC and documents the extent of progress of the studied communities along many dimensions of a comprehensive approach to homelessness prevention and remediation Tables

Evaluations of Continuums of Care of Homeless People ,2002 Toward Understanding Homelessness ,2007 Strategies for Improving Homeless People's Access to Mainstream Benefits and Services Martha R. Burt, 2010 In 2000 HUD in recognition that any solution to homelessness must emphasize housing targeted its McKinney Vento Act homeless competitive programs towards housing activities This policy decision presumed that programs such as Medicaid TANF and General Assistance could pick up the slack produced by the change This study examines how 7 communities sought to improve homeless people s access to mainstream services following this shift away from funding services through the Supportive Housing Program Provides communities with models and strategies that they can use Highlights the limits of what even the most resourceful of communities can do to enhance service and benefit access by homeless families and individuals
