Gordon F. Pitz,1984 Resources in Education ,1998 Public Policy and Program Evaluation Evert Vedung,2017-07-12 Evaluation is a controversial and little understood strategy of public governance control and decision making As early as classical antiquity scholars were summoned to court to counsel kings Public policy and program evaluation is a recent addition to the great chain of attempts to use the brainpower of scholars and scientists to further the interests of the state

Evaluation scholars are asked to provide retrospective assessments of the implementation output and outcome of government measures in order to effect deeper understanding and well grounded decisions on the part of those in charge of government operations Evaluation is the process of distinguishing the worthwhile from the worthless the precious from the useless evaluation implies looking backward in order to be able to steer forward better Written from a political science perspective Public Policy and Program Evaluation provides an overview of the possibilities and limits of public sector evaluation Evert Vedung examines evaluation as a mechanism for monitoring systematizing and grading government activities and their results so that public officials in their future oriented work will be able to act as responsibly creatively and efficiently as possible Topics discussed include Evaluation Rationality and Theories of Public Management Models of Evaluation Internal or External Evaluation Impact Assessment as Tryout and Social Experimentation Process Evaluation and Implementation Theory The Eight Problems Approach to Evaluation and Uses and Users of Evaluation All evaluation rests upon the idea that perceptions opinions intentions judgments in short everything concerned with the world of human consciousness play such interesting roles in political and administrative action that their functions are worth investigating Through experience humans may learn from past actions The interventions of the modern state are so extensive their execu

Methodological Advances in Evaluation Research Ross F. Conner, 1981-11 Conner explores new evaluation methods that do not fall within traditional evaluation methodological categories These new methods or mixes of methods are more responsive to the setting and environment of the programme being evaluated Essays in Part One describe and illustrate newer techniques such as simulation cost effectiveness principles ethnographic approaches and social indicators Part Two focuses on combinations of methods

Practical Program Evaluation Huey T. Chen, 2014-09-19 The Second Edition of Practical Program Evaluation shows readers how to systematically identify stakeholders needs in order to select the evaluation options best suited to meet those needs Within his discussion of the various evaluation types Huey T Chen details a range of evaluation approaches suitable for use across a program s life cycle At the core of program evaluation is its body of concepts theories and methods This revised edition provides an overview of these and includes expanded coverage of both introductory and more cutting edge techniques within six new chapters Illustrated throughout with real world examples that bring the material to life the Second Edition provides many new tools to enrich the evaluator s toolbox

10-Step Evaluation for Training and Performance Improvement Seung Youn (Yonnie) Chyung, 2018-09-27 Written with a learning by doing approach in mind Yonnie Chyung s 10 Step Evaluation for Training and Performance Improvement gives students actionable instruction for identifying planning and implementing a client based program evaluation The book introduces readers to multiple evaluation frameworks and uses problem based learning to guide them through a 10 step evaluation process As students read the chapters they produce specific deliverables that culminate in a completed evaluation project
