

To The Virgin Mary

Mary, sweet peace and dearest consolation
of suffering mortal: you are the fount whence springs
the current of solicitude that brings unto our soil unceasing fecundation.

From your abode, enthroned on heaven's height,
in mercy deign to hear my cry of woe
and to the radiance of your mantle draw my voice that rises with so swift a flight.

You are my mother, Mary, and shall be my life, my stronghold, my defense most thorough;
and you shall be my guide on this wild sea.

If vice pursues me madly on the morrow,
if death harasses me with agony:
come to my aid and dissipate my sorrow!

Eva Mary Poems:

Eva-Mary Linda McCarriston, 1994 Finalist 1991 National Book Award for Poetry Winner Terrence Des Pres Prize for Poetry I lean into my own loving touch for which no wound is too ugly Linda McCarriston says at the end of Healing the Mare one of the many poems of extraordinary poignancy and power in Eva Mary These unflinching poems of violence and violation and loss earn her the right to such a claim It's a survivor's claim and these are the poems of a survivor as scrupulous in their language and art as they are in their quest to register honestly the familial unspoken a life inside a life Stephen Dunn

Irish Women Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez, 2005-11-30 Irish women writers have a large following and their works are attracting large amounts of scholarly and critical attention Through roughly 75 alphabetically arranged entries written by more than 35 expert contributors this reference overviews the lives and works of Irish women writers active in a range of genres and periods Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer's critical reception and a list of works by and about the author The volume closes with a selected general bibliography Ireland has an especially lively literary tradition and works by Irish writers have long been recognized as interesting and influential While male writers have received the bulk of the critical attention given to Irish literature contemporary women writers are among the most widely read Irish authors This reference overviews the lives and works of Irish women writers active in a range of periods and genres Included are roughly 75 alphabetically arranged entries written by more than 35 expert contributors Among the writers discussed are Elizabeth Bowen Mary Dorcey Lady Isabella Augusta Gregory Anne Hartigan Norah Hoult Paula Meehan Iris Murdoch Edna O'Brien Katharine Tynan Sheila Wingfield And many more Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes a review of the writer's critical reception and a list of works by and about the writer The volume closes with a selected general bibliography The Poems of W.B. Yeats Peter McDonald, 2020-08-18 In this multi volume edition the poetry of W B Yeats 1865 1939 is presented in full with newly established texts and detailed wide ranging commentary Yeats began to write verse in the nineteenth century and over time his own arrangements of poems repeatedly revised and rearranged both texts and canon This edition of Yeats's poetry presents all his verse both published and unpublished including a generous selection of textual variants from the many manuscript and printed sources The edition also supplies the most extensive commentary on Yeats's poetry to date explaining specific references and setting poems in their contexts it also gives an account of the vast range of both literary and historical influences at work on the verse The poems are presented in order of composition and major revisions or rewritings of poems result in separate inclusions in chronological sequence for these writings as they were subsequently reconceived by the poet This first volume collects Yeats's poetry of the 1880s from his ambitious and extensive juvenilia including hitherto little noticed dramatic poems to his earliest published pieces leading to his first substantial book of verse The pastoral romance of classically inflected early work like The Island of Statues is succeeded in these years by the Irish mythic material that finds its largest canvas in the mini epic The Wanderings of Oisín. In Yeats's work through the 1880s an adolescent poet's youthful absorption in Romantic poetry is replaced by a commitment to esoteric religious speculation and Irish political nationalism. This edition allows readers to see Yeats's emergence as a poet step by step in compelling detail in relation to his literary influences including significantly the Anglo-Irish poetry of the nineteenth century. The commentary provides an extensive view of Yeats's developing personal, cultural and historical worlds as the poems gain in maturity and depth. From the first attempts at verse of a teenage boy to the fully accomplished writings of an original poet standing on the verge of popular success with poems such as The Lake Isle of Innisfree, Yeats's poetry is displayed here in unprecedented fullness and detail.

Speranza: Poems by Jane Wilde, 2025-02-17 This is the first contemporary edition of the poetry of Jane Wilde nee Elgee who also wrote as Speranza. Speranza was in her time renowned worldwide with essays, poetry and translated work published in Ireland, England, America and beyond. She was a key figure in the nationalist Young Ireland movement of the 1840s and her poetry records the hardship experienced by the Irish people, famine and migration in particular. She was also an early advocate for women's rights who campaigned for the admission of women to higher education. This edition, which contains several previously unpublished poems, will make the poetry of this emblematic figure in nineteenth-century Irish writing accessible to a contemporary audience for the first time.

Poetry Edgar Joseph Hinkel, 1938 The Poetry of Eavan Boland Pilar Villar-Argaiz, 2008 Pilar Villar Argiz's sustained, meticulous and exacting study of Eavan Boland opens up and articulates in a fresh way the key dimensions of her poetry. It succeeds not only in tracking the far-reaching ramifications of Eavan Boland's politicized aesthetic as a postcolonial writer but in urging us to revisit the crystalline and precisely etched poems of one of the most significant artists in contemporary Irish culture. Professor Anne Fogarty, University College Dublin, from the Introduction. This monograph is an original and important contribution to the growing body of critical studies devoted to one of Ireland's major living poets, Eavan Boland. See Haberstroh 1996, Hagen-Zelman 2005. It details the controversies that were prompted by the inclusion of Ireland in a postcolonial framework and then tests the application of an array of cogent theories and concepts to Boland's work. In an attempt to explore the richness and complexity of her poetry, Villar Argiz discusses the contradictory pulls in her desire to surpass and yet at the same time epitomize Irish nationality Boland's remarkable achievement as a poet lies in her ability to stretch by constant negotiations and re-appropriations the borderlines of inherited definitions of nationality and femininity Chapters include Re-examining the postcolonial Gender and Irish studies Towards an understanding of Boland's poetry as minority postcolonial discourse A post-nationalist or a post-colonial writer Boland's revisionary stance on Mother Ireland To a third space Boland's imposed exile as a young child The subaltern in Boland's poetry Boland's mature exile in the US An Orientalist writer and Conclusion Review This rigorous and informative exploration of the poetry of Eavan Boland by Pilar Villar Argiz proves the validity of drawing upon the resources of postcolonial theory to illuminate her work Through the lens of postcolonialism the deep-seated preoccupations and complex imaginative foundations of Boland's writing are carefully excavated and interpreted Villar Argiz moreover in her observant close readings of poems from different phases of the author's oeuvre reveals how recurrent issues such as the problem of national and cultural identity the ethical responsibility of engaging with the past and the quest for fluidity and openness are variously engaged with both aesthetically and philosophically Villar Argiz's sustained meticulous and exacting study of Eavan Boland opens up and articulates in a fresh way key dimensions of her poetry It succeeds not only in tracking the far-reaching ramifications of Eavan Boland's politicized aesthetic as a postcolonial writer but in urging us to revisit the crystalline and precisely etched poems of one of the most significant artists in contemporary Irish culture Professor Anne Fogarty Department of English University College Dublin Ireland About the Author Dr Pilar Villar Argiz lectures in the Department of English Philology at the University of Granada Spain where she obtained a European Doctorate in English Studies Irish Literature She is the author of Eavan Boland's Evolution As an Irish Woman Poet An Outsider within an Outsider's Culture The Edwin Mellen Press 2007 She has also published extensively on the representation of femininity in contemporary Irish women's poetry on cinematic representations of Ireland and on the theoretical background and application of feminism and postcolonialism to the study of Irish literature In addition Dr Villar Argiz has co-edited two books on English literature Irish Research Series No 51 The Annotated Oscar Wilde Oscar Wilde, 1982 Mother Eva Mary, C.T. Mrs. Harlan Cleveland, 1929 Sociologies of Poetry Translation Jacob Blakesley, 2018-11-29 While the sociology of literary translation is well established and even flourishing the same cannot be said for the sociology of poetry translation Sociologies of Poetry Translation features scholars who address poetry translation from sociological perspectives in order to catalyze new methods of investigating poetry translation This book makes the case for a move from the singular sociology of poetry translation to the pluralist sociologies in order to account for the rich variety of approaches that are currently emerging to deal with poetry translation It also aims to bridge the gap between the cultural turn and the sociological turn in Translation Studies with the range of contributions showcasing the rich diversity of approaches to analysing poetry translation from socio-cultural socio-historical socio-political and micro-social perspectives Contributors draw on theorists

Australian Dictionary of Dates and Men of the Time John Henniker Heaton, 1879 A pioneering Australian reference work this dictionary was published in 1879 by John Henniker Heaton 1848-1914 who in his youth spent twenty years as a journalist in Australia before returning to England and campaigning in Parliament for postal reform Published amid a bitter dispute with the government printer it is still acknowledged to contain much useful information despite some inaccuracies The first part Men of the Time focuses on notable men and women with Australian connections from 1542 to the date of publication including explorers governors leading colonists writers and scientists The second part The Australian Dictionary of Dates provides an alphabetical listing of the most remarkable Australian historical events and topics from Aboriginal cricketers to the Zig Zag railway line particularly noting political and legal landmarks Heaton's book is an important document of Victorian colonial historiography and a valuable resource for the history of European settlement in Australia

Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1995 The Collected Poems and Journals of Mary Tighe Mary Tighe, 2021-12-14 Mary Blachford Tighe was born in Dublin in 1772 and became a poet by the age of seventeen Her enormously popular 1805 epic poem Psyche or The Legend of Love made her a fixture of English literary history for much of the nineteenth century For much of the twentieth century however Tighe was better known for her influence on Keats's poetry than the considerable merits of her own work The Collected Poems and Journals of Mary Tighe restores Tighe to the general canon of English literature of the period With over eighty five poems including the complete Psyche and extracts from several journals both by and about Tighe Harriet Kramer Linkin's annotated edition is the most complete collection of Mary Tighe's work to be published in one volume
