Evangelical Witness Ralph W. Quere, 1975 Invitation to Evangelism Timothy K. Beougher, 2021-08-24 Essential guidance for a lifestyle of sharing God's good news with a lost world What exactly does it mean to evangelize in a Christian sense And how is such evangelizing supposed to be done Longtime pastor evangelist and professor of evangelism Timothy K Beougher answers these questions and more from theological historical and practical perspectives Beougher demonstrates God's goodness in evangelism through relatable anecdotes Bible teaching and encouraging instruction Invitation to Evangelism welcomes believers into the experience of stepping out in faith of behalf of people God loves Most Christians know that they should be sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with nonbelievers and most also know they aren't witnessing very well or even at all They need help internalizing the content of gospel proclamation and identifying the best way to go about making evangelism a natural part of their lives Invitation to Evangelism guides readers through the essential issues of the gospel message evangelism methods and witnessing models so they are ready and excited to move out in faith as everyday evangelists Beougher's biblical theological historical and practical teaching revolves around following essential aspects of being an evangelist Having compassion as the motivation for evangelism Understanding the good news of Jesus Christ Seeing lost people as persons God loves Relying on the power of the Holy Spirit Paving the way for new believers to share their faith eagerly with others The Evangelizing Church Richard H. Bliese, Craig Van Gelder, The Evangelizing Church moves from theory to practice as it relates the theology of evangelism to the life of congregations that are seeking to proclaim the gospel in the emerging postmodern context It provides congregations with perspectives on how to utilize this theology in shaping the practice of evangelism within their church life Beyond Maintenance to Mission Craig L. Nesson, 1999 This book argues compellingly for the centrality of mission in understanding the church and provides a model for congregational leadership that will help move congregations beyond a maintenance mentality to vital engagement with the world God loves Nesson's model of congregational leadership is strongly centered on worship life of a congregation and the entirety of the church's ministry The chapters provide solid theological and practical direction on the themes of worship education fellowship stewardship evangelism global connections ecumenism and social ministry It is a book that will find a home in both the academy and the parish a textbook for seminarians and a guide and resource for pastors and lay congregational leaders The Lutheran Standard, 1977 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
