Evangelism In Everyday Life Sharing And Shaping Y:

Evangelism in Everyday Life Lyle Pointer, Jim Dorsey, 1998 Witnessing takes place when it is least expected in the yard at the grocery store or on the phone Those relationships provide the opportunities to live and share Christ Although relationship evangelism is an ancient concept it is the open door to friends acquaintances and coworkers The thought of witnessing about faith can leave one tongue tied but Evangelism in Everyday Life reassures us that it is a natural outflow of our love for God Living a holy life in daily activities becomes the light that shines on the hill around the office and across the neighborhood Care and compassion is the language that changes hearts Once a person comes to Christ this book also provides answers for guiding him or her along the journey And the witness continues through discipleship and guidance Rooting a new Christian firmly in the life of the church is the next step in deepening relationships with God and fellow man Down to earth answers to these and many other such questions make this book an invaluable witnessing tool Paper     A Nation with the Soul of a Church O. C. Edwards Jr., James Dunkly, 2013-08-12 From the very beginning religious leaders have influenced the course of American history sometimes for better sometimes for worse This book examines those Christian sermons that set or changed the course of the nation What did 18th century preacher Jonathan Edwards really mean to convey with his Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God sermon What Southern minister did most to encourage secession of the Southern states from the Union And why does Martin Luther King Jr need to be remembered for more than his I Have a Dream speech This book examines the sermons that have shaped American history from the Massachusetts Bay Colony to the Obama administration It provides extended biographical treatments of those who preached them thereby providing readers with the historical context of the sermon an explanation of what made these orations so effective and an understanding of the role of religion in American history Author O C Edwards Jr supplies insightful and interesting coverage of Christian preachers and sermons that will engage anyone interested in America's religious or social history The book addresses the religious philosophies and speeches of individuals such as William Sloan Coffin Jr Russell Conwell Charles Coughlin Ralph Waldo Emerson Billy Graham Anne Hutchinson Martin Luther King Jr Patricia Merchant John Winthrop and Jeremiah Wright

Engaging Neighbors and Nations Tim Silberman, 2024-03-27 Evangelical churches are widely known for their commitment to mission locally and to the ends of the earth However in the last century there have been profound theological and sociological changes that have impacted mission practice Church and mission leaders have encouraged Christians to respond to the need for mission locally especially as church decline accelerates in much of the Western world Yet others are concerned that global mission involvement is being neglected in many local churches This study explores the factors influencing local church participation in mission both locally and around the world Through an in depth analysis of the practices and perspectives among evangelical churches in Australia the author identifies a range of theological missiological and organizational influences on mission practice Though beliefs about the church the world and mission are important understanding organizational principles social capital and the power of relational networks provides invaluable insights into church mission practice This book is for those who long to see local churches committed to engaging both their neighbors and the nations in mission growing our understanding of how to encourage helpful church practices for the sake of Christ    Living His Story Together Hannah Steele,2024-06-20 Elegant wide ranging and encouraging a masterful book which could and should be read by every church family whose members care about their engagement with the world CHURCH TIMES In Living His Story 2020 Hannah Steele wrote with an infectious understanding of her subject Mark Oakley Church Times Now in Living His Story Together she turns her attention to mission and evangelism that is not only for individuals but for the whole local church Offering an inspiring mandate for the church to see itself as a missionary community Hannah considers the practical outworkings of that identity through engaging with scripture and current theological thinking and sharing real life stories from churches on the front line Living His Story Together isn't an argument for a particular model of church plant or parish for example but an exciting exploration of what can happen when two or three of God's missionary disciples are gathered together empowered by the Spirit and seeking to be good news in the world today It covers contemporary missional themes such as hospitality cultural engagement presence diversity and spoken witness and offers practical principles vividly enlivened by relating the imaginative and disarming ways in which ordinary churches and individuals are sharing the gospel to help us embrace the great privilege to which we have been called    The Bible Reading of Young Evangelicals Ruth H. Perrin,2016-10-04 Young evangelicals in Britain often find themselves at odds with an increasingly secular society and yet the tradition persists and in some places flourishes Sociological studies into the faith of this demographic group are rare yet there is much to be explored as to how their faith functions and how it compares to other groups globally Similarly given the privilege evangelicals afford the biblical text how young believers engage with the ancient Scriptures they understand to be the word of God is particularly significant This work addresses that core question How do young evangelicals make sense of the Bible today Based on qualitative data gathered from three diverse evangelical churches it compares the reading priorities ordinary hermeneutics and theological concerns of young adults Presenting age related focus groups with challenging biblical narratives the study compares strategies for negotiating the texts based on age gender and churchmanship It provides a unique insight into the realities of Bible reading and the faith of Generation Y and gives food for thought not only to those with scholarly interests but also those with a pastoral concern to shape and sustain the Christian faith of young adults in Britain and beyond    Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997
