Even Among These Rocks A Spiritual Journey:

Aging as a Spiritual Journey Eugene C. Bianchi, 2011-07-01 Bianchi's wide ranging book draws together insights from the social sciences the humanities and religion to establish a holistic framework for a spirituality of aging He argues that middle life and late adulthood present opportunities for turning inward for a deeper contemplative life within the context of active worldly endeavors This can also augur a reform of social relationships beyond individual development alone toward the creation of a more cooperative just society In this way physical decline is countered by a spiritual ascent He summons aging persons fortified with universal values and concerns gained from age and experience to return to the centers of decision making Throughout the author ponders such questions as personal power identity fear freedom contemplation sexuality the church faith suffering and hope In candid interviews older religious leaders reflect on their early value formation personal traumas choice of careers midlife transitions experiences of old age and the prospect of death In dwelling mainly on human spiritual dilemmas of the aging cycle Bianchi offers a strong clear message of hope one that stands against the tide of our culture which tends to shunt older people to the outer eddies of life's stream Aging as a Spiritual Journey is immensely valuable to all laypersons and those in the helping professions who are concerned about the quality of the aging process economy and its effects from the perspective of an integrated theology of the earth as primary revelation and the institutional powers of this world. It reaches the conclusion that hope lies in nonviolent resistance and ecological and social responsibility based on God's action in Jesus and in the triumph of God over the powers. This book describes today's interrelated social, economic, and ecological crises and makes the case that we face a living hell on earth if we do not address them. It provides an overview of the global economic system and offers a comprehensive theological analysis of the network of primary institutions that make up what Walter Wink calls the Domination System. It points readers in the direction of hope based on following the way of Jesus who lived in nonviolent resistance to the powers of his day. This new revised edition continues the powerful story of the original, extending the analysis of the global economy from the 2008 collapse and recession to its alleged recovery. It addresses the Obama administration's policies on economics, trade, and the environment and provides further reflections on American foreign and military policy in this so-called New American Century.

The Circle of Life James David Audlin, 2012-02-22

THE CIRCLE OF LIFE presents traditional oral Native American sacred teachings from the Iroquois, Lakota, and other traditions. The author has been receiving these teachings from elders since his youth. The wisdom embraces cosmology, ethics, epistemology, metaphysics, sociology, psychology, healing, dream interpretation, and more. Audlin calls himself neither a spiritual teacher nor an authority but a conduit through which these oral traditions can be presented meaningfully to people in a modern world. He outlines universal principles common to many traditional peoples worldwide. The Red Road is available to all regardless of religion or ethnicity willing to follow its paths. These paths, however, are often not easy and require deep personal and spiritual commitment. Audlin says in his introduction: "If this book serves any purpose, let it be to help us bring the Sacred Hoop of All the Nations back together again so we and all that lives may stand as one in silent awe before that Great Mystery."

Nectar #14 Babaji Bob Kindler, Lex Hixon, LJ Das, Rabbi Rami Shapiro, Sharad Chandra, Shannon Kelly, 2004-12-24

The universality of world religions is certainly a subject of interest in these engaging and pivotal times and one that is treated multi dimensionally in this issue of Nectar Nectar of Nondual Truth has for three years attempted to present this principle by offering articles from writers and practitioners who are deeply ensconced in and in love with their chosen path and ideal and can therefore express the one indivisible Truth via their own deeply cherished stream of Wisdom This is crucial the practice of one tradition until realization through that single pathway has been achieved in order to avoid confusion contradiction misperception and the surface understanding that usually accompanies a mere eclectic point of view devoid of penetrating and longevitous spiritual practice The well guided expansion of the limited human mind is likened to raising a family wherein different children must each be given special attention based upon comprehension of their differing needs capacities and temperaments But before all this is attempted the first born must be attended to and then all the resultant growth in terms of challenges mistakes successes and valuable insights into child rearing can thus be applied to the raising of those who come after Wherever the first born is neglected or followed too soon by other siblings thus falling into the background of the overburdened parent s full attention malnutrition on several levels occurs and the valuable developmental stages of early growth are stripped of their power and purpose resulting in a stunted condition a life shorn of its fullest possibilities and potentials This unfortunate outcome in the individual family unit is mirrored by the undernourished spiritual life of contemporary living beings in general due not only to their own debilitating complacency around purificatory practices but also due to their lack of appreciation their ambivalence and even their hostility towards the sacred traditions of the world religions adhered to by the same selfed brothers and sisters of the multifarious but inseparable family of mankind On the other hand after sincere and one pointed commitment to Truth is attained followed up by a firm dedication to one s path a sedulous practice and an unswerving devotion to God and Guru all constantly cultivated the onset of spiritual maturation will occur as a matter of course
