later by doing those same things in literary salons institutions created by the high culture movement of the day Along the way Loeffelholz provides detailed analyses of the poetry much of which has received little or no recent critical attention She focuses on the works of a remarkably diverse array of poets including Lucretia Maria Davidson Lydia Sigourney Maria Lowell Frances Ellen Watkins Harper Emily Dickinson Helen Hunt Jackson and Annie Fields Impeccably researched and gracefully written From School to Salon moves the study of nineteenth century women s poetry to a new and momentous level
