Evening Games Tales Of Parents And Children:

Evening Games Alberto Manguel, 1986 Parenting with a Story Paul Smith, 2014-11-12 Play nice Be kind Don't do that Every day it seems half our conversations with young people is made up of commands dealing with character and niceties all issues that need to be addressed and not ignored But how is it working Do you find yourself back at square one the next day with a child acting as though they had no idea they shouldn't be lying In Parenting with a Story author Paul Smith one of the world's leading experts in organizational storytelling shows that when stories are used to illustrate to children how choices and consequences play out in the real world with real people the impact will be far more profound than the relentless commands that are forgotten or ignored as soon as the parent turns away This collection of 101 narratives from people around the world and from all walks of life includes lessons that illuminate the power of character integrity curiosity creativity grit kindness patience gratitude and other essential characteristics every parent should be trying to instill in their children Sometimes heart wrenching sometimes funny always compelling these stories impart wisdom and help steer choices about Resisting peer pressure Remaining open minded Being humble Making courageous decisions Standing by their word Bouncing back from failure Showing compassion Picking friends wisely And more Throughout all of history stories have been used to help shape who we are and who we aspire to come But effective storytelling doesn't have to be reserved for teachers writers and preachers As a parent learn how to share stories discuss them with your child and watch your child grow into the adult every parent would be proud of The Flying Tiger Kira Van Deusen, 2001 Storytelling bridges culture history and spirituality In The Flying Tiger Kira Van Deusen takes us into the world of the female shamans of the Amur presenting over fifty traditional stories she recorded in the 1990s from the people of the taiga forest in the Russian Far East More than a collection of tales the reader learns about the lives of the story tellers and their history their spiritual traditions adaptation to the environment relationships with animals and sense of humour The Parent's Assistant, Or, Stories for Children Maria Edgeworth, 1834 Storytelling with Children Nancy Mellon, 2014-10-14 Telling stories awakens wonder and creates special occasions with children whether it is bedtime around the fire or on rainy days Encouraging you to spin golden tales Nancy Mellon shows how you can become a confident storyteller and enrich your family with the power of story The Wisconsin Farmer, 1902 Public Library Service to Children in Wartime ... Mildred L. Batchelder, 1944 Essays on Canadian Writing, 1993 Problem Child Single Parent Sandra Williams Brassell, 2013-07-25 On this journey with my daughter being an emotionally impaired student in a special education classroom I found much discrimination when she reached the age of twelve when it started becoming apparent to me It seemed she was rejected by her peers who made fun of her disability and learning ability but it did not help much when she was being called LD or the 504 kid and other names associated with her disability Kids can be so cruel to one another without understanding the depth of the pain they inflict This conduct started in her second year in junior high and lasted through her high school years Mr Knight principal of Munger Junior High School stated that he had seen a significant and rapid change in my daughter's behavior since last year. It is sad that a principal can point out that my daughter was going downhill and did nothing to fix it until I started writing letters and she was sent to another school. It was as simple as a telephone call. At that time, Mr. Knight stated there was no money in the school district budget to have my daughter moved. The downfall in an EI Special Education Classroom is that everyone has ADHD, which was the biggest of my daughter's problems. Those boys who were really rough. They were in trouble especially when they had nothing to do but play games for the entire day every single day. They didn't have a teacher but they did have a babysitter in the classroom that was hired from the Kronk's Boxing Gym. This man had no teaching skills. I told Mr. Knight I was very disappointed with what was going on in Jamaica's class. I asked him if Mr. Ronald was a certified teacher. He replied no and stated they would be hiring a certified teacher soon. I then asked Mr. Knight where were the books and other learning resources in the classroom that was supposed to be the main teaching tools needed. I asked how was it possible for my daughter to learn anything without a teacher or any other resources the classroom needed including books. Not one book in the classroom. There was one black male student who checked in each morning but saddened by the fact he was not learning anything so he just walked out of school each day. I would see him leave the school myself and no one seemed to care. The Dearborn Heights Westwood school district could not find an EI Classroom for my daughter to attend Emotional Impaired Classroom. This left her at home learning nothing for far too many days leading to months. I was sending my daughter to school for an education and that is something she never received whether it was discrimination of her disability or her race. Not when her psychiatrist gave the names of three schools she could attend and yet she could not find a school for her to attend.

The Sting in the Twisted Tale Emmanuel Chinyamakobvu, 2013-04-22. The Sting in the Twisted Tale is a collection of short stories. A number of the short stories are adapted from several of the authors published books while a few others are extracts from the many works the author is working on and are yet to be published. In the short stories the author creates scenes that visually jump to life and keep the reader in tension. The stories are a combination of rousing dramatic and at times comical look at the web of complications that arise from day to day life while others depict the brutal realities of war, crime, promiscuity, adultery and lies. As the events of each story begin to intermingle the episodic discoveries and conflicts only become more interesting and compelling. The twists and turns in the stories keep building on top of complex and driven characters and the stories crescendo extraordinarily to an unexpected and dramatic end. The characters in some of the stories exhibit unique and memorable qualities of both courage and determination while those in others after all of their poor choices and moral challenges the readers still empathize with them.
