American Civil War naval battle the first confrontation between two Ironclads featuring accounts from men who lived through it Ironclad against ironclad we maneuvered about the bay here and went at each other with mutual fierceness reported Chief Engineer Alban Stimers following that momentous engagement between the USS Monitor and the CSS Virginia ex USS Merrimack in Hampton Roads Sunday March 9 1862 The day before the Rebel ram had obliterated two powerful Union warships and was poised to destroy more That night the revolutionary not to say bizarre Monitor slipped into harbor after hurrying down from New York through fierce gales that almost sank her These metal monstrosities dueled in the morning pounding away for hours with little damage to either Who won is still debated One Vermont reporter could hardly find words for Monitor It is in fact unlike anything that ever floated on Neptune s bosom The little vessel became an icon of American industrial ingenuity and strength She redefined the relationship between men and machines in war But beforehand many feared she would not float Captain John L Worden Here was an unknown untried vessel an iron coffin like ship of which the gloomiest predictions were made The CSS Virginia was a paradigm of Confederate strategy and execution the brainchild of innovative dedicated and courageous men but the victim of hurried design untested technology poor planning and coordination and a dearth of critical resources Nevertheless she obsolesced the entire U S Navy threatened the strategically vital blockade and disrupted General McClellan s plans to take Richmond From flaming bloody decks of sinking ships to the dim confines of the first rotating armored turret to the smoky depths of a Rebel gundeck with shells screaming clanging booming and splashing all around to the office of a worried president with his cabinet peering down the Potomac for a Rebel monster this dramatic story unfolds through the accounts of men who lived it in Unlike Anything That Ever Floated Praise for Unlike Anything That Ever Floated Hughes's blow by blow account of the March 8-9 fighting at Hampton Roads can be considered among the finest short form narrative treatments of those events. It resides in the top rank of ECW series volumes Civil War Books and Authors. What makes Hughes's account so engrossing is that it is written in much the way as a novel.

Civil War News     Your Best Trip Ever! Brian Phelps, 2015-02-16 Over the past two decades Brian Phelps and his family have been busy making countless memories while traveling to national parks and monuments. With the intent of helping other families plan and enjoy their own best trip ever, Phelps shares a travelogue that highlights six of his family's great adventures and unique trip itineraries from 2006 to 2014. Phelps, an avid traveler since childhood, begins by chronicling a 2006 trip to Yellowstone National Park that includes proper planning steps, travel costs, and vivid details of an unforgettable adventure that took the Phelps family from South Dakota to northwestern Wyoming and beyond. As Phelps leads travel aficionados through the where, when, how, and what just happened of his travels through America, he details five additional vacations that include the Grand Canyon, Bryce Canyon National Park, Acadia National Park, Olympic and Glacier National Parks, Yosemite, Zion, and the lost Utah national parks and monuments. Have You Ever Had a Hunch? Ellen Palestrant, 2005-08 Reclaim your creativity by exploring the educational, sociological, psychological, and political influences on independent thinking. Have You Ever Had a Hunch is a powerful tool for self-growth and an invaluable gift for anyone wanting to explore their own creativity. In a series of short to the point chapters, author Ellen Palestrant strips away the layers of inhibition and repression that encumbers us all.     The Greatest Treasure-Hunting Stories Ever Told Charles Elliott, 2023-12-12 There is something about a treasure, says Joseph Conrad in Nostromo, that fastens on a man's mind. And yes, there is something about the subject of treasure hunting that continues to fascinate us. One only needs to browse the Web to discover a whole netherworld of treasure hunting magazines, metal detector clubs, and lost mine information exchanges that apparently engage the funds and spare time of thousands of hopefuls. But digging up tin cans and discarded horseshoes or crashing through the Superstitions in a recreational vehicle somehow goes against the romantic grain. Charles Elliott recaptures the essential romance of the search in this collection of classic stories. Many are true or purport to be. They encompass all the great themes: obsession, tragedy, danger, crime, frustration, terrible physical challenge, success, and disappointment. They take place under the sea, in jungles, on desert islands, even in the attics of old houses. The treasure itself is not always gold, silver, and diamonds; it may be lost documents, the solution to a historical puzzle, or an unexpected archaeological discovery. What is common to them all is the excitement of the chase and the possibility, irrational perhaps but unavoidable, that treasure really is there for the finding.
