Everest The Death Zone:

Alive in the Death Zone Lincoln Hall, 2008 ALIVE IN THE DEATH ZONE Mount Everest Survival Lincoln Hall's story of climbing the world's highest mountain being left for dead near the summit and his subsequent return to life and safety is an incredible and exciting adventure that will inspire anyone who reads it. It's a story of survival against all odds using sheer willpower, courage, and determination. Early chapters give young readers an insight into why people climb mountains, Lincoln's early interest in them, and the influences that led to his passion for climbing and his quest to climb the world's highest peak. It will then focus on the 2006 expedition when Lincoln reached the summit but was left for dead because he suffered cerebral oedema when he began his descent. Miraculously, after spending a perilous night on a knife edge crest in the Death Zone, he was found the next morning and began the descent only to be confronted with more dangers before he reached safety. Unbeknownst to Lincoln, the world, including his family, had been told he was dead, and the miraculous story of his survival made worldwide headline news. Frostbite claimed Lincoln's fingers and toes, and he lost nearly twenty kilograms, but his remarkable recovery and rehabilitation enabled him to write the best-selling book DEAD LUCKY. Death Zone Matt Dickinson, 2011-05-31 It seemed like any other season on Mount Everest. Ten expeditions from around the world were preparing for their summit push, gathered together to try for mountaineering's ultimate prize. Twenty-four hours later, eight of those climbers were dead, victims of the most devastating storm ever to hit Everest. On the North face of the mountain, a British expedition found itself in the thick of the drama. Against all odds, film maker Matt Dickinson and professional climber Alan Hinkes managed to battle through hurricane force winds to reach the summit. In Death Zone, Matt Dickinson describes the extraordinary event that put the disaster on the front cover of Time and Newsweek. The desperate attempts of teams on the southern side of the mountain, fatal errors that led to the deaths of three Indian climbers on the North Ridge, and the moving story of Rob Hall, the New Zealand guide who stayed with his stricken client and paid with his life. Based on interviews with the surviving climbers and the first-hand experience of having lived through the killer storm, this gripping non-fiction book tackles issues at the very heart of mountaineering. Death Zone is an extraordinary story of human triumph, folly, and disaster. The Summit Eric Alexander, 2010 It's one of the greatest challenges on Earth, an ascent to the top of the world on the slopes of Mount Everest. Eric Alexander experienced grace and a faith-empowering journey he will never forget as part of a record-setting team in May 2001, scaling the heights of Everest with his friend, blind climber Erik Weinhenmayer. Eric has learned much about faith, trust, prayer, depending on God, as well as perseverance during these climbs. A member of a rare and adventurous group of achievers, he has been instrumental in helping others, often with physical or mental disabilities, to achieve their own dreams as well. The Summit, The Death Zone Trin Denise, 2014-04-10 Lover's revenge at 28 000 feet can be a cold bitch. Elisa James had been climbing mountains since she was twelve years old, but the one she had yet to conquer was the mother of them all, Mount Everest. When she gets the chance to join a new Expedition that has their sights set on the Goddess she cannot resist A lot can go wrong at high altitude and the oftentimes treacherous conditions have created a mantra of every woman and man for themselves With no one to depend on and no authority it leaves the door open to commit one of the most heinous acts virtually ensuring that anyone on the mountain can get away with murder When Elisa shows up to meet her new Expedition Team members she gets the shock of her life Ryan Holbrook has also joined the team and she is furious Never in her life has she hated another man as much as she does Holbrook whom she holds responsible for the death of her lover three years earlier Her goals change when she realizes that the Expedition leader has no plans to remove Holbrook from the team regardless of his reputation for being a reckless and dangerous climber Elisa is convinced that Holbrook intentionally left her girlfriend to die just below the Hillary Step on Everest s South Col after a freak storm moved in If he could use the mountain to commit murder then she would use it for revenge Death Zone Matt
