Mountain Guru Catherine Moorehead, 2023-10-05 Winner of the Kekoo Naoroji Award Doug Scott was a legend among mountaineers His expeditions undertaken over a period of five decades are unparalleled achievements This book describes the extraordinary drama of them all from the Himalaya to New Zealand Patagonia Yosemite and Alaska It includes his famous epic on The Ogre one of the hardest peaks in the world to climb his ascent of Kangchenjunga without supplementary oxygen and his ascent with Dougal Haston of Everest in 1975 Catherine Moorehead also uncovers the elusive man behind the obsessive mountaineer From his rumbustious youth in Nottingham through two tempestuous marriages to a secure third marriage she shows how Scott matured in thought and action as his formidable global reputation increased In doing so she reveals him to be a clash of opposites an infuriating monomaniac who took extraordinary risks yet who developed a deep interest in Buddhism and inspired widespread affection Scott spent almost as long as his climbing career in founding and developing Community Action Nepal providing schools and health posts in remote parts of Nepal where he is still much revered Doug Scott died in 2020

Mountains Without Handrails Joseph L. Sax, 2018-04-02 Beloved by academic and general readers alike Mountains Without Handrails Joseph L. Sax's thought provoking treatise on America's national parks remains as relevant today as when first published in 1980 Focusing on the long standing and bitter battles over recreational use of our parklands Sax proposes a novel scheme for the protection and management of America's national parks Drawing upon still controversial disputes Yosemite National Park the Colorado River in the Grand Canyon and the Disney plan for California's Mineral King Valley Sax boldly unites the rich and diverse tradition of nature writing into a coherent thesis that speaks directly to the dilemma of the parks In a new foreword environmental law scholar Holly Doremus articulates this book's enduring importance and reflects on what Sax her former teacher might have thought about the encroachment of technology into natural spaces the impact of social media and growing threats from climate change At this moment of great uncertainty for the national parks Mountains Without Handrails should be read and re read by anyone with a stake in America's natural spaces Writers Directory NA NA, 2016-03-05

Sea, Ice and Rock Chris Bonington, Robin Knox-Johnston, 2020-01-23 When leading mountaineer Sir Chris Bonington was researching Quest for Adventure his study of post war adventure he contacted Sir Robin Knox Johnston the first person to sail single handed and non stop around the world for an interview This simple request turned into an exchange of skills which then grew into a joint expedition to Greenland's unexplored Lemon Mountains Sea Ice and Rock is the story of this epic journey With both Bonington and Knox Johnston having little experience in the other's craft their expedition was not without difficulty But through one another's support the two men and their team sailed from Britain to Greenland going on to twice attempt the Lemon Mountain's forbidding highest peak the Cathedral Though their attempts ended in a dramatic descent this could not dampen the unfailing optimism with which the two approached their task They recount their experiences not only with appreciation for the awe inspiring nature that surrounded them but also for one another Layers of alternate narration between Bonington and Knox Johnston make this a truly collaborative memoir In the same way they exchanged skills on their expedition the two authors rely on one another s recollections to fill the gaps in their own Full of ambition and perseverance anyone wondering why Bonington and Knox Johnston are masters in their fields need only read Sea Ice and Rock Catalog of Copyright Entries.
