reverse the divine order nor disturb the divine relation nor place that last which God has set first It was not to depreciate or discourage good works that the apostle spoke of not working but believing or of a man being justified by faith without the deeds of the law Rom iii 28 or of God imputing righteousness without works ib iv 6 It was to distinguish things that differ it was to show the true use of faith in connecting us for justification with what another has done it was to stay us from doing anything in order to be justified In this view then faith is truly a ceasing from work and not a working it is not the doing of anything in order to be justified     Absolutely Basic Horatius Bonar,2009-11-01 Two well known writers and preachers of the nineteenth century describe the twofold work of God that is needed to make us Christians Horatius Bonar 1808 1889 explains the work of God that Christ has done for us so that we can be accepted as righteous for ever by God His book is a great help in appreciating what Christ has done and contains much comfort and encouragement for believers J C Ryle 1816 1900 unfolds the work of God that the Holy Spirit does within us to make us new creatures and children of God Simply and clearly he sets out the need to be born again explains how it happens and what results may be expected These are updated and shortened versions for the benefit of modern readers     Sermons George Whitefield,1832     Sermons on Important Subjects ... George Whitefield,Samuel Drew,1829     The Book of Daniel R.
