Every Other Weekend My Fight For Access:

Every Other Weekend Russell Baker, 2005-09 Every Other Weekend My Fight for Access is a look back on the author's experiences regarding divorce and visitation with his son including intervention by the court system and social services. Rise Up My Beloved Sonia Gwen Crane, Sonia McLeod, 2008-07 All hell was raging against my mind I needed some time alone with the Lord and to just be alone away from everyone I needed to calm myself down. The only solace I could find was in a washroom. In that little cubicle totally at the end of myself I surrendered to His will. Nothing else mattered at this point except what He wanted. Knowing I was in my Heavenly Father's hand I cried Lord by obedience I will go. Give me your words to say Help me Lord. Sonia McLeod a former alcoholic and drug addict shares the miraculous story of how God delivered her from a street life of drugs, alcohol and prostitution. Hear the heart of this woman as she takes us through a journey of faith amidst great tragedy, heartbreak and betrayal. Cast aside by friends, family and finally by her husband she emerges from the ashes of ruin and rejection in the arms of her true lover Jesus Christ. I was not going to give up and die but it was time to RISE UP in JESUS. If God can do this in Sonia's life He can do it in others. Pray for this book. It will touch many lives. Reverend Ernie Shirley Linklater Full Gospel Aboriginal Ministries Canada. Sonia McLeod a member of the Cowessess First Nation in Saskatchewan Canada is a born again believer in Jesus Christ. Since the writing of this book she has pursued studies in Social Work, gotten married and is working on reaching First Nation and indigenous communities across Canada and the world. Zanemvula Mda was born in 1948 into a family of lawyers and grew up in Soweto's ambitious educated black class At age fifteen he crossed the Telle River from South Africa into Basutoland Lesotho exiled like his father a founding spirit of the Pan Africanist Congress Exile was hard but it was just another chapter in Mda's coming of age He served as an altar boy and was preyed on by priests flirted with shebeen girls feared the racist Boers read comic books alongside the literature of the PAC fell for the music of Dvorak and Coltrane wrote his first stories and felt the void at the heart of things that makes him an outsider wherever he goes The Soweto uprisings called him to politics playwriting brought him back to South Africa where he became writer in residence at the famed Market Theatre three marriages led him hither and yon acclaim brought him to America where he began writing the novels that are so thick with the life of his country In all this Mda struggled to remain his own man and with Sometimes There Is a Void he shows that independence opened the way for the stories of individual South Africans in all their variety
