Everyday Acts Against Racism Raising Children In A Multiracial World:

Everyday Acts Against Racism Maureen T. Reddy, 1996 A book of essays by mothers and teachers Everyday Acts Against Racism examines the effects of racism on our children and communities and suggests ways we can end our society's racial stratification Writing from many cultural perspectives the contributors provide provocative commentaries on the realities of racial intolerance and their own experiences in fighting racism Raising Biracial Children Kerry Ann Rockquemore, Tracey A. Laszloffy, 2005-11-10 As the multiracial population in the United States continues to rise new models for our understanding of mixed race children and how their conception of racial identity must be developed A wide divide between academics who research biracial identity and the everyday world of parents and practitioners who raise and deal with mixed race children exists This book aims to fill this gap by providing an extensive synthesis of the existing research in the field as well as a model for better understanding the unique process of racial identity development for mixed race children Raising Biracial Children provides parents educators social workers and anyone interested in multiracial issues with an accessible framework for understanding healthy mixed race identity development and to translate those findings into practical care giving strategies Raising Kids in the 21st Century Sharon K. Hall, 2009-02-17 An easy to read guide on raising emotionally healthy children that is based on sound psychological research The book's format makes it a good choice for students parents or practitioners Focuses on seven key areas of child development in raising psychologically healthy children Paints an overall picture of the skills children need to become functioning adults through translating the latest scientific research into workable guidelines Explores how early cognitive and social development is linked to universal issues of tolerance sexism and racism Written in a language suitable for the student or general reader A useful resource for clinicians to share with families under their care Our Black Sons Matter George Yancy, Maria del Guadalupe Davidson, Susan Hadley, 2016-10-17 Our Black Sons Matter is a powerful collection of original essays letters and poems that addresses both the deep joys and the very real challenges of raising black boys today From Trayvon Martin to Tamir Rice the list of young black men who have suffered racial violence continues to grow Young black people also deal with profound stereotypes and structural barriers And yet young black men are often paradoxically revered as icons of cultural cool Our Black Sons Matter features contributions from women across the racial spectrum who are raising or have raised black sons whether biologically their sons or not The book courageously addresses painful trauma challenges assumptions and offers insights and hope through the deep bonds between mothers and their children Both a collective testimony and a collective love letter Our Black Sons Matter sends the message that black lives matter and speaks with the universal love of all mothers who fear for the lives of their children Contributions by Jacki Lynn Baynks Shelly Bell Deborah Binkley Jackson Meta G Carstarphen LaMar Delandro Gretchen Givens Generett Jane Anna Gordon Farah Jasmine Griffin Maria del Guadalupe Davidson Susan Hadley Carol E Henderson Dawn Herd Clark Elisheba Johnson Heather Johnson Newtona Tina Johnson Jane

Mothering Queerly, Queering Motherhood Shelley M. Park, 2013-06-01 Provides a model for queering motherhood that resists racist neoliberal and hetero or homonormative ideals of good mothering     Reflections on My Call to Preach Fred B. Craddock, 2009 Travel with revered preacher and author Fred Craddock through his early years as he considers what made him take to the pulpit For some reason I felt I had to say Yes or No to the ministry so I could feel free again My siblings and friends talked almost casually about options and preferences as to careers but with no evident sense of urgency Not so with me I did not then nor do I now know whether the burden of choice was a trait of personality a kind of super conscientiousness whether the calling to ministry itself carried a weight a burden peculiar to the task itself Rightly or wrongly when I thought of possibly becoming a journalist that would be a choice 100 percent mine When I considered becoming a minister that was not totally my decision I was responding to God s will for me Of course I had been told that journalists lawyers teachers merchants farmers all could understand their lives as a vocation a calling but what I am telling you is that I perceived I felt I experienced the idea of being a preacher as different and that difference was sobering even burdensome That s why advice about not being in a hurry taking my time was not helpful even if wise If it was my decision why could I not make it now if it was God s decision why did not God tell me or at least tell my father or my mother I prayed for the ache to leave me Excerpt from Reflections on My Call to Preach

Good White People Shannon Sullivan,2014-05-15 Argues for the necessity of a new ethos for middle class white anti racism Building on her book Revealing Whiteness Shannon Sullivan identifies a constellation of attitudes common among well meaning white liberals that she sums up as white middle class goodness an orientation she critiques for being more concerned with establishing anti racist bona fides than with confronting systematic racism and privilege Sullivan untangles the complex relationships between class and race in contemporary white identity and outlines four ways this orientation is expressed each serving to establish one s lack of racism the denigration of lower class white people as responsible for ongoing white racism the demonization of antebellum slaveholders an emphasis on colorblindness especially in the context of white childrearing and the cultivation of attitudes of white guilt shame and betrayal To move beyond these distancing strategies Sullivan argues white people need a new ethos that acknowledges and transforms their whiteness in the pursuit of racial justice rather than seeking a self righteous distance from it

Women and Children First Sharon M. Meagher,Patrice DiQuinzio,2012-02-01 This diverse collection explores the rhetoric of a wide range of public policies that propose to put women and children first including homeland security school violence gun control medical intervention of intersex infants and policies that aim to distinguish good from bad mothers Using various feminist philosophical analyses the contributors uncover a logic of paternalistic treatment of women and children that purports to protect them but almost always also disempowers them and sometimes harms them This logic is widespread in contemporary popular policy discourse and affects the way that people understand and respond to social and political issues Contributors rethink basic philosophical assumptions concerning subjectivity difference and dualistic logic in order to read the rhetoric of contemporary public policy discourse and develop new ways of talking and acting in the policy domain

Toni Morrison and Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly,2012-02-01 Traces Morrison s theory of African American mothering as it is articulated in her novels essays speeches and interviews Mothering is a central issue for feminist theory and motherhood is also a persistent presence in the work of Toni Morrison Examining Morrison s novels essays speeches and interviews Andrea O Reilly illustrates how Morrison builds upon black women s experiences of and perspectives on motherhood to develop a view of black motherhood that is in terms of both maternal identity and role radically different from motherhood as practiced and prescribed in the dominant culture Motherhood in Morrison s view is fundamentally and profoundly an act of resistance essential and integral to black women s fight against racism and sexism and their ability to achieve well being for themselves and their culture The power of motherhood and the empowerment of mothering are what make possible the better world we seek for ourselves and for our children This argues O Reilly is Morrison s maternal theory a politics of the heart As an advocate of a politics of the heart O Reilly has an acute insight into discerning any threat to the preservation and continuation of traditional African American womanhood and values Above all Toni Morrison and Motherhood based on Andrea O Reilly s methodical research on Morrison s works as well as feminist critical resources proffers a useful basis for understanding Toni Morrison s works It certainly contributes to exploring in detail Morrison s rich and complex works notable from the perspectives of nurturing and sustaining African American maternal tradition African American Review O Reilly boldly reconfigures hegemonic western notions of motherhood while maintaining dialogues across cultural differences Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering Andrea O Reilly examines Morrison s complex presentations of and theories about motherhood with admirable rigor and a refusal to simplify and the result is one of the most penetrating and insightful studies of Morrison yet to appear a book that will prove invaluable to any scholar teacher or reader of Morrison South Atlantic Review it serves as a sort of annotated bibliography of nearly all the major theoretical work on motherhood and on Morrison as an author anyone conducting serious study of either Toni Morrison or motherhood not to mention the combination should read this book O Reilly s exhaustive research her facility with theories of Anglo American and Black feminism and her penetrating analyses of Morrison s works result in a highly useful scholarly read Literary Mama By tracing both the metaphor and literal practice of mothering in Morrison s literary world O Reilly conveys Morrison s vision of motherhood as an act of resistance American Literature Motherhood is critically important as a recurring theme in Toni Morrison s oeuvre and within black feminist and feminist scholarship An in depth analysis of this central concern is necessary in order to explore the complex disjunction between Morrison s interviews which praise black mothering and the fiction which presents mothers in various destructive and self destructive modes Kudos to Andrea O Reilly for illuminating Morrison s maternal standpoint and helping readers and critics understand this difficult terrain Toni Morrison and Motherhood is also valuable as a resource that addresses and synthesizes a huge body of secondary literature Nancy Gerber author of Portrait of the Mother Artist Class and Creativity in Contemporary American Fiction In addition to presenting a penetrating and original reading of Toni Morrison O Reilly integrates the evolving scholarship on motherhood in dominant and minority cultures in a review that is both a composite of commonalities and a clear representation of differences Elizabeth Bourque Johnson University of Minnesota Andrea O Reilly is Associate Professor in the School of Women s Studies at York University and President of the Association for Research on Mothering She is the author and editor of several books on mothering including with Sharon Abbey Mothers and Daughters Connection Empowerment and Transformation and Mothers and Sons Feminism Masculinity and the Struggle to Raise Our Sons

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind s vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature MultiCultural Review ,2005      The Truth That Never Hurts 25th anniversary edition Barbara Smith,2023-10-13 Read an excerpt Chicago Firsthand click here Barbara Smith has been doing groundbreaking work since the early 1970s describing a Black feminism for Black women Her work in Black women s literary traditions in examining the sexual politics of the lives of women of color in representing the lives of Black lesbians and gay men and in making connections between race class sexuality and gender is gathered in The Truth That Never Hurts This collection contains some of her major essays on Black women s literature Black lesbian writing racism in the women s movement Black Jewish relations and homophobia in the Black community Her forays into these areas ignited dialogue about topics that few other writers were addressing at the time and which sadly remain pertinent to this day This twenty fifth anniversary edition in a beautiful new package also contains the essays from the original about the 1968 Chicago convention demonstrations attacks on the NEA the Anita Hill Clarence Thomas Senate hearings and police brutality against Rodney King and Abner Louima which after twenty five years still have the urgency they did when they were first written
