Neumayer,2013-01-29 Fourteen specialists of Central and Eastern European politics explore memory policies and politics by examining how and why contested memories are constantly reactivated in the former Soviet bloc The book explores how new social and political actors can challenge the traditional narratives about the past produced by state bodies Science,

Politics and Universities in Europe, 1600-1800 John Gascoigne,2024-10-28 This book seeks to illustrate the interconnections of science and philosophy with religion and politics in the early modern period by focusing on the institutional dynamics of the university Much of the work is devoted to one key university that of Cambridge and examines the major issues of the institutional setting of Newton s work the religious and political circumstances that favoured its dissemination and the way in which it was dealt with in the curriculum But the author also seeks to place the problem of the role of science in the early modern university in a larger European context To do so he includes a close prosopographical analysis of the scientific community from the mid 15th TO the end of the 18th century and discusses the complex relations between the universities and the Enlightenment Discipline and History James Farr,Raymond Seidelman,1993 Historical panorama of views about the state of political science as a discipline

The Johns Hopkins University Studies in Historical and Political Science John Martin Vincent,1902 Transition and the Politics of History Education in Southeast Europe Augusta

Dimou,2009-10-07 This collection of essays gives an overview on current developments in the field of education in the successor states of ex Yugoslavia and the Republic of Moldova from the mid 1990s to today The impact of nation and state building processes on the politics of history and on schooling are analysed against the background of the complex social and political transformations that have been taking place in the region changes that are usually subsumed under the problematic and rather unspecific notion of transition The book engages in such issues like What is the role of international actors and which impact have interventions in education What are the preconditions for lasting and sustainable reforms in education What goals are inscribed in history textbook narratives The book addresses these questions from an interdisciplinary perspective and offers insights into the complicated and ambiguous developments in the field of education in Southeast Europe during the last decade
