European Union And Africa The Restructuring Of Northsouth Relations:

The European Union and Africa William Brown, 2001-11-22 This book is an in depth study of one of the most important agreements in the recent history of EU developing world relations the Lome convention the principles upon which all relations between the states of the European union and ACP African Caribbean and Pacific countries are based Over the course of its 25 year life the Convention has been altered to suit the changing relationship of those states involved This historical study not only charts the course of that vital relationship between haves and have nots but also in its changing focus and shifting concerns reflects recent broader changes at the global level in the international relations The

Routledge Handbook of EU-Africa Relations Toni Hastrup, Luís Mah, Niall Duggan, 2020-12-30 This handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the changing dynamics in the relationship between the African continent and the EU provided by leading experts in the field Structured into five parts the handbook provides an incisive look at the past present and potential futures of EU Africa relations The cutting edge chapters cover themes like multilateralism development assistance institutions gender equality and science and technology among others Thoroughly researched this book provides original reflections from a diversity of conceptual and theoretical perspectives from experts in Africa Europe and beyond The handbook thus offers rich and comprehensive analyses of contemporary global politics as manifested in Africa and Europe The Routledge Handbook of EU Africa Relations will be an essential reference for scholars students researchers policy makers and practitioners interested and working in a range of fields within the sub disciplines of African and EU studies European politics and international studies The Routledge Handbook of EU Africa Relations is part of the mini series Europe in the World Handbooks examining EU regional relations and established by Professor Wei Shen The Cambridge

History of the European Union: Volume 1, European Integration Outside-In Mathieu Segers, Steven Van Hecke, 2023-11-09 Volume I examines the history of the European Union from an outside in perspective asking the following questions how does the European Union look from the outside and which outside forces shaped and guided the process of European integration Split into three parts the first addresses the main external events that have steered the European integration process with emphasis placed on critical junctures following the Second World War such as the division and reunification of Germany and the Eastern enlargement Part II considers the various international trends that have shaped European integration with particular focus on globalisation and geopolitics While the first two parts pay special attention to institutions countries international organisations and the main actors Part III focuses on the role of ideas networks public opinion and memory that influenced the development of the European Union Inter-organizational Relations in International Security Stephen Aris, Aglaya Snetkov, Andreas Wenger, 2018-07-11 This book examines the politics of the relationships between multilateral organizations that have come to play a major role in contemporary efforts to manage international security Drawing on concepts developed in Organizational Studies the book starts from the assumption that inter organizational relationships are the product of contested politics Politics that may be either more cooperative or more competitive but which always contains elements of both This volume focuses on inter organizational relations emanating from through and towards the regional scale The proliferation in the number of regional multilateral organizations in recent decades and their growing claims to represent effective and legitimate frameworks to address security threats and issues has been widely noted The book is organized into four sections covering all aspects of the inter organizational relationships in which regional multilateral organizations are involved global regional intra regional inter regional and multi scalar Each chapter addresses a distinct case study of inter organizational relations bilateral trilateral or wider network and examines the politics shaping these relations This book will be of much interest to students of international security international organizations global governance and area studies more generally

Historical Dictionary of the European Union Finn Laursen, 2015-10-30 The current European Union EU has existed since 1 November 1993 It emerged from the Treaty of Maastricht largely negotiated during 1991 But the history of European integration goes further back The Schuman Declaration of 9 May 1950 led to the creation of the European Coal and Steel Community ECSC in 1951 and in 1957 the two Treaties of Rome created the European Economic Community EEC and the European Atomic Energy Community EAEC or EURATOM which started operating from 1 January 1958 For some years the EEC was often referred to as the Common Market The Merger Treaty of 1965 in force since 1967 created a single executive the European Commission and a single Council of Ministers The three Communities from the beginning in 1958 shared the Parliamentary Assembly and European Court of Justice ECJ Although these Communities still had separate treaties they were increasingly seen as the European Community EC This new edition of Historical Dictionary of the European Union has a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on important personalities member states internal policies external relations basic theories treaties and law This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the European Union

The ACP Group and the EU Development Partnership Annita Montoute, Kudrat Virk, 2017-01-01 This book constitutes a systematic and critical assessment of the nature evolution and prospects of the development partnership between the 79 member African Caribbean and Pacific ACP group of states and the 28 member European Union EU A core theme that runs through the work is that the ACP's partnership with the EU remains an important framework for addressing development challenges in the African Caribbean and Pacific regions but needs to adapt to changes in the global political economy as well as internal developments in both the ACP and the EU to sustain its relevance and effectiveness This is crucial for the ACP group in particular given its origins in and core focus on development cooperation with Europe The authors in this volume examine the history of the ACP EU partnership since 1975 the EU's relationship with the African Caribbean and Pacific regions individually ACP experiences with economic partnership agreements with the EU and new political issues in particular security migration and diasporas

Shedding light on the future prospects of this relationship this book will be of interest to both scholars and policymakers working on the ACP EU relationship and related development issues including trade aid security and migration

Perceptions of the EU in Eastern Europe and Sub-Saharan Africa V. Bachmann, M. Muller, 2016-01-12 This collection examines how the EU is seen in the two regions that are at the centre of its geopolitical interest Focusing on Eastern Europe and sub Saharan Africa it provides a critical assessment of how their external perceptions relate to EU policy towards them

Africa, the EU and the Samoa Agreement Sophia Price, Mark Langan, 2025-03-31 This edited volume provides a timely and critical analysis of Africa EU Relations in the new Samoa Agreement phase of the long standing Eurafrican relationship Drawing on a range of critical perspectives and contributions it moves beyond Eurocentric visions of policy co operation on development to highlight three core themes that frame the analysis within this volume the new scramble for Africa Europe s ontological security and the securitisation of development and African agency In doing so it assesses EU actors engagement with African institutions in relation to key areas of policy collaboration including trade development health migration and security In this context it examines whether the partnership offers African states and regional institutions a genuine pathway to development or whether historical power asymmetries remain entrenched and perhaps even exacerbated through the new Africa EU Agreement This book will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners involved in Development Studies EU studies Africa EU Relations African politics and International Relations and more broadly to International Political Economy and Comparative Regionalism

The Moral Economy of EU Association with Africa Mark Langan, 2015-08-27 Africa s association with the European Union has long been hailed as a progressive model of North South relations European officials in particular have represented the Africa EU partnership as a pro poor enterprise in which trade interests are married to development prerogatives Applying a moral economy perspective this book examines the tangible impact of Africa Europe trade and development co operation on citizens in developing countries In so doing it challenges liberal accounts of Europe s normative power to enable benevolent change in the Global South and illuminates how EU discourse acts to legitimise unequal trade ties that have regressive consequences for the poor Drawing upon the author s own fieldwork it assesses the difference between norms and the actual impact of EU concessions in relation to budget support aid for trade private sector development PSD decent work It concludes by considering the value of a moral economy approach in the assessment of free trade structures more widely This text will be of key interest to scholars and students of Africanist IPE European studies and more broadly international political economy international development and international relations

The Foreign Policy of the European Union Federiga Bindi, 2010-03-01 In a relatively short time the European Union has become one of the world s most powerful and important bodies Its critical role in international affairs extends to several different areas economics culture the environment and of course international security and foreign affairs This important volume explains and evaluates EU foreign policy in all its confusing dimensions Is there really any such thing as European Union Foreign Policy If so what is it What are its goals and priorities and how effective is it How do outsiders perceive EU foreign policy and what are the ramifications of those views Those are just some of the questions this book tries to answer In order to draw the most comprehensive picture possible of EU foreign policy Federiga Bindi and her contributors dissect both horizontal and vertical issues Vertical concerns focus on particular geographic regions such as the EU's foreign policy toward Africa and Asia and its relations with the United States Horizontal issues explore wider crosscutting themes that help explain the EU's foreign policy choices and operations such as decisionmaking processes and procedures European self identity and core priorities such as peace democracy and human rights Contents Foreword by Giuliano Amato former foreign minister and prime minister of Italy Part I The New Tools of EU Foreign Policy II US EU Relations after the Elections III EU Relations with the Rest of the Americas IV Africa and Asia V The EU and Its Neighbors VI The EU the Mediterranean and the Middle East VII Promoting Values and Models Abroad VIII Conclusions Assessing EU Foreign Policy

Africa in International Politics Ian Taylor, Paul Williams, 2004-02-24 Locating Africa on the global stage this book examines and compares external involvement in the continent exploring the foreign policies of major states and international organizations towards Africa The contributors work within a political economy framework in order to study how these powers have attempted to stimulate democracy peace and prosperity in the context of neo liberal hegemony and ask whom these attempts have benefited and failed

The Trade-Development Nexus in the European Union Maurizio Carbone, Jan Orbie, 2016-03-22 This volume offers new perspectives on the evolution of the trade development nexus in the European Union against dramatic changes in the international context Without disregarding them it seeks to go beyond the controversial and extensively researched Economic Partnership Agreements EPAs In particular it focuses on the reform of the Generalised System of Preferences the negotiation of various Preferential Trade Agreements the application of trade sanctions the allegedly ambitious agendas on decent work Aid for Trade and aid untying and the implications of the changing balance of power in global economic relations Taking diverse approaches and at times reaching different conclusions contributors directly or indirectly address one or more of the three general themes of the book differentiation coherence and norms This book was published as a special issue of Contemporary Politics

EU development cooperation Karin Arts, Anna Dickson, Anna K. Dickson, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license It is increasingly recognised that EU development cooperation policy has failed to meet its stated aims In this book Arts and Dickson ask the obvious and important question if the policy doesn't work why bother with it The authors assess why EU development policy has become largely ineffective citing among the external causal factors the liberalisation of trade and the growing influence of US and international actors such as the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund upon EU policy It also considers contributing factors within the EU such as the enlargement of its membership and the resulting shifts in priorities It is this analysis of internal and external factors affecting the decline of EU development policy that makes this study both innovative and unique It brings together an impressive range of contributors from different disciplines resulting in a thorough and intelligent assessment of the debate This study will appeal to advanced level undergraduates and academics of European politics in general EU integration development studies and International Relations

European Union Trade Politics and Development Gerrit Faber, Jan Orbie, 2007-05-07 The Everything But Arms EBA regulation of the European Union EU has been hailed as a groundbreaking initiative for developing countries Since 2001 EBA grants almost completely liberalized access to the European market for products from the least developed countries LDCs It quickly became the most symbolic European trade initiative towards the Third World since the first Lomé Convention in the 1970s Given its central position in EU discourse and its continuing relevance for the European and international trade agenda this book attempts to present a thorough analysis of EBA European Union Trade Politics and Development contains contributions from a diverse range of scholars who collectively present a comprehensive picture of EBA This volume also contains a broader analysis of EU trade politics towards the South focusing on agricultural policy reform Europe's evolving relationship with ACP countries ex colonies from Africa the Caribbean and the Pacific it links EBA with Europe's negotiating position within the World Trade Organization Contributions to this volume also consider the continuing negotiation leverage of EBA within the Doha Development Agenda make comparisons with United States trade policy vis vis the LDCs and focus on the economic effectiveness of EBA in terms of its stated objectives as well as on the institutional skirmishing within the EU and reliable information on the European Union Exporting Paradise? EU Development Policy towards Africa since the End of the Cold War Tiago Faia, 2012-11-30 The central aim of this book is to define the approach of EU development policy regarding Africa since the end of the Cold War It focuses on the impact of EU development policy on the domain of international development and the objective of the EU to become a prominent international actor The book relies on Martha Finnemore's Social Constructivist research It concentrates on the dynamics maintained by the EU with the normative basis that characterises the structure and agents of international development and assesses how it affected EU behaviour as expressed through its development policy concerning Africa By doing so it exposes both the marked effect of EU development policy in the domain of international development and the form of paradise model of development the EU promoted in Africa Therein the volume largely confirms the identified agents as the source of the norms that define the structure of international development and the EU as its derivative It argues that EU development policy is currently a general projection of the normative structure of international development specifically regarding the policy orientation of its identified agents As a result the book contends that the EU fell short of its efforts to export its form of paradise to Africa since the end of the Cold War as a corollary of its limitations to stand as a distinct and leading actor in the domain of international development

Handbook of Public Administration and Policy in the European Union M. Peter van der Hoek, 2005-06-13 The Handbook of Public Administration and Policy in the European Union focuses on the current state of the EU while also demonstrating how its current structure came into being and how it may change in the near future Although most existing literature is either policy oriented or institution oriented this textbook employs a different more comprehensive approach Not only does it analyze selected EU laws and most EU institutions it is also unique in that it brings together EU public administration EU institutions and most importantly EU policies into a comprehensive text Divided into five parts the book provides an overview of theory discourses on European integration followed by an analysis of the development of European organizations Part II explains the nature of the EU highlighting its institutions Part III addresses various dimensions of public administration followed by a review in Part IV of major EU policies including the Common Agricultural Policy The textbook concludes with a history of Economic and Monetary Union and a study of the European Central Bank and the euro

Interregionalism and the European Union Professor Mario Telò, Professor Louise Fawcett, Dr Frederik Ponjaert, 2015-11-28 Is the EU isolated within the emergent multipolar world Concentrating on interregional relations and focussing on the European Union's evolving international role with regards to regional cooperation this innovative book collects a set of fresh empirical analyses of interregional ties binding the EU with its Eastern and Southern neighbourhood as well as with Asia Africa and the Americas The 25 leading authors from 5 continents have contributed original and diverse chapters and the book advances a novel theoretical post revisionist approach beyond both the Eurocentrism of Europe First perspectives as well as the Euroscepticism of those advocating to simply move Beyond Europe A Tight Embrace Marco

Zoppi,2020-12-16 This book provides various examples showing how Europe and Africa can be conceptualized and researched as a single macro area connected by interrelated global and multilevel dynamics What types of relations characterize Europe and Africa today The nature of the connections is neither clear nor unilinear rather they appear dialectical multifaceted and pointing in different directions This edited book explores narratives contemporary dynamics and historical legacies demonstrating the long standing relations between the continents suggesting that the entangled Euro African relations in multiple fields should be intended as a permanent condition for any analyses The authors provide various evidence of the fact that the two continents are deeply part of shared but uneven structures of global wealth and power Within those structures certain dynamics are constantly produced and reproduced yet new opportunities to subvert existing relations have also emerged recently Hence instead of proposing conceptual premises holding Africa and Europe as separate regions that get in touch at specific moments in time be it colonialism the Cold War globalization migration this book critically considers that each of the matters explored is anything but an episode in a more complex intertwined story that ultimately represents the explanatory framework for present Euro African relations Negotiating Trade in Uncertain Worlds

Clara Weinhardt,2019-11-22 This book shows how a constructivist account of bargaining sheds new light on the emergence of impasse situations in international trade negotiations It uncovers the subtle ways in which misperceptions and the problems of overcoming them complicate negotiations It brings to the forefront misperceptions and sticky beliefs that complicate trade talks between the Global South and the Global North Empirically the book examines the recent negotiations of Economic Partnership Agreements between the European Union EU and West Africa 2002 2014 In doing so it enriches the study of negotiations of development oriented trade agreements in the context of a major North South partnership By exploring a constructivist perspective on game theory the author uncovers how the repeated impasse situations followed from the different games both sides expected to be playing The author shows that such misperceptions endured because they reflected deep seated normative disagreements not only over the effects of neo liberal trade reforms but also over how to structure EU Africa post colonial trade relations in the 21st century Comparing and contrasting both sides divergent perspectives helps us to see how trade negotiations are never just about economic interests but also about the re negotiation of the values and ideas that structure state interaction The book draws on a large set of qualitative primary data on EU West Africa trade negotiations Negotiating trade in uncertain worlds will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations international political economy international trade international negotiations EU external relations EU Africa cooperation economic diplomacy international relations of the developing world and North South cooperation
