European Political Co Operation:

The Future of European Political Cooperation Martin Holland, 2016-07-27 This collected volume of essays focuses on two complementary themes firstly the theoretical approaches to the study of European Political Cooperation and secondly the empirical analysis of EPC activity The volume does not argue one particular approach to the study of EPC but rather presents competing and often conflicting theoretical perspectives At the empirical level a future research agenda is suggested and it is argued that EPC research should become comparative in nature      European Political Co-operation ,1988      European

Political Cooperation David Allen, Reinhardt Rummel, Wolfgang Wessels, 2013-10-22 European Political Cooperation Towards a Foreign Policy for Western Europe presents the conclusions of a study group on European Political Cooperation EPC This book discusses the EPC and management of foreign policy Luxembourg and Copenhagen reports and coordination in the European council and council of ministers The national inputs into EPC EPC structures in the nine national capitals problems of East West relations and political cooperation and Euro Arab dialogue are also deliberated This text likewise covers the Portuguese revolution and its aftermath special relations with outside states possible adaptations of the EPC s structure and division of labor between the EEC and EPC This publication is suitable for students and researchers intending to acquire knowledge of the foreign policies for Western Europe      European Political Cooperation (EPC) Commission of the European Communities, 1980 Events in Iran and Afghanistan have highlighted the efforts of the Community to speak as one in the face of unexpected crisis On such occasions differences are pounced upon while measures of agreement are seldom appreciated Yet since 1970 when procedures to encourage political cooperation among members were first introduced there has been an increasing effort by Community governments to harmonize their diplomacy and to adopt common positions on foreign affairs Although it is within the spirit of the Treaty of Rome EPC lies outside the Treaty Institutions Ministers meet as a Conference of Foreign Ministers as and when required Once a year the Chairman of the Conference the current President of the Council of Foreign Ministers reports to the European Parliament on what has been achieved during the year Mr O Kennedy s report on 24 October 1979 shows the remarkably wide field where the Community acts as an entity in foreign affairs      European Political Cooperation in the 1980s Alfred Pijpers, Elfriede

Regelsberger, Geoffrey Edwards, Wolfgang Wessels, 2024-12-02      European Political Cooperation Panagiōtēs Hēphaistos, 1987      European Political Cooperation in the 1980s Alfred Pijpers, Elfriede Regelsberger, Wolfgang Wessels, 1988-10-03 Diplomacy by Gianni Bonvinci      European Political Cooperation Documentation Bulletin , 1988

European Political Cooperation Simon J. Nuttall, 1983 EU development cooperation Karin Arts, Anna Dickson, Anna K. Dickson, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license It is increasingly recognised that EU development cooperation policy has failed to meet its stated aims In this book Arts and Dickson ask the obvious and important question if the policy doesn't work why bother with it The authors assess why EU development policy has become largely ineffective citing among the external causal factors the liberalisation of trade and the growing influence of US and international actors such as the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund upon EU policy It also considers contributing factors within the EU such as the enlargement of its membership and the resulting shifts in priorities It is this analysis of internal and external factors affecting the decline of EU development policy that makes this study both innovative and unique It brings together an impressive range of contributors from different disciplines resulting in a thorough and intelligent assessment of the debate This study will appeal to advanced level undergraduates and academics of European politics in general EU integration development studies and International Relations

EU International Relations Law Panos Koutrakos, 2006-04-14 In the post 9 11 world the European Union has been trying to define its international presence in a way which corresponds to its economic power and enlarged membership In an effort to assert its identity on the international scene it has developed a very wide range of economic relations with third countries and international organisations It has also developed a Common Foreign and Security Policy in the context of which it is gradually shaping its Security and Defence Policy These policies are carried out on the basis of distinct albeit interrelated sets of legal rules This book provides a comprehensive and systematic analysis of these economic political and security aspects of the relations of the European Union with the rest of the world It examines their genesis development and interactions and places them in the specific context of the establishment of the internal market and the broader context of the increasingly interdependent international economic and geopolitical environment Issues covered include the coexistence of Community and national competence in external relations the approach of the Court of Justice to international law the negotiation conclusion and implementation of international agreements the relationship between EC and WTO law and the development of the political and security policies of the Union The book will be of interest to academics practitioners and students of EU law

Trade, Foreign Policy and Defence in EU Constitutional Law Panos Koutrakos, 2001-03 This book examines how the increasing interdependence between trade and foreign policy can be managed within the legal framework of the European Union In the context of the legally distinct characteristics of the European Community and the Common Foreign and Security Policy it analyses the problems

underpinning the regulation of three areas sanctions against third countries armaments and exports of dual use goods The focus is on whether the constitutional order of the European Union may address these problems while performing a variety of functions ensuring the consistency and coherence of its external relations preserving the acquis communautaire and respecting the right of the Member States to conduct their foreign policy as fully sovereign subjects of international law The book concludes that the interactions between trade and foreign policy may be regulated in a legally sensible and realistic way within the current structure of the European Union The recent developments regarding the defense and security identity of the European Union and the debate over the nature of an enlarged Union make this book all the more topical

The Social Construction of Europe Thomas Christiansen, Knud Erik Jørgensen, Antje Wiener, 2001-04-03 The Social Construction of Europe is a wonderful tool for scholars and advanced students concerned with European integration Nationalism and Ethical Politics This book is the first to systematically introduce and apply a social constructivist perspective to the study of European integration Social constructivism is carefully located in terms of its philosophical and methodological origins The wider debates and contribution of constructivist approaches to international relations are reviewed and the insights that might then be afforded to European studies fully explored Highlights include new theoretical contributions to the debate by Ernst B Haas Andrew Moravcsik and Steve Smith research on key aspects of European integration and EU governance applying a variety of constructivist approaches The Social Construction of Europe provides new and important insights to a key area of contemporary study and research

Theory and Reform in the European Union Dimitris N. Chrysoschoou, 1999-06-12 Completely updated and newly available in paperback this book examines the relationship between theory and reform in the European Union in the light of the Amsterdam Treaty

The Making of EU Foreign Policy K. Smith, 2004-01-13 The Making of EU Foreign Policy argues that there has been a common European Union EU foreign policy towards six countries of Eastern Europe Bulgaria Czech Republic Hungary Poland Romania Slovakia and analyzes why the EU has agreed to the policy The objective of the EU's policy is to support the transformation of Eastern Europe and thus ensure security and stability The most important instrument that the EU has used to reach this objective has been the prospect of enlargement
