Europees Recht En De Decentrale Overheid:

Europa op het grensvlak van recht en beleid, 2007 Onderlinge overheidsaansprakelijkheid voor schendingen van Europees recht, 2012 Democracy and Rule of Law in the European Union Flora A.N.J. Goudappel, Ernst M.H. Hirsch Ballin, 2015-12-30 The present collection of essays offers the reader a broad range of original perspectives on democracy and the rule of law in the European Union approaching the existing policy area from new points of view Leading experts from different countries and backgrounds focus on how democracy and the rule of law are related to topics like security pension rights judicial cooperation and human rights protection Their expert views are based on a combination of theory and knowledge acquired in their practice as academics or practitioners in the field of European integration The issue of the rule of law and democracy is close to the heart of Professor Jaap de Zwaan a true European building bridges between countries and peoples He has written extensively on the subject of European integration Therefore this collection of expert views is not only an original and valuable contribution to the literature and discussion on the development and enlargement of the European Union but at the same time it is a tribute to Jaap de Zwaan whose academic and diplomatic career can be characterized as always serving an ever closer Union Flora Goudappel is Jean Monnet Professor of EU Trade Law in the Overseas Territories at the Erasmus University Rotterdam and a consultant on European Union law Ernst Hirsch Ballin is Professor of Dutch and European Constitutional Law at Tilburg University and Professor of Human Rights Law at the University of Amsterdam The Many Faces of Differentiation in EU Law Bruno de Witte, Dominik Hanf, Ellen Vos, 2001 The introduction by the Amsterdam Treaty of the flexibility clauses authorising a majority of Member States to cooperate more closely in areas covered by the Treaties has been received with mixed feelings Flexibility is by no means a new phenomenon in the EU s development It has been on the Community s agenda already since the 1970s The Single European Act introduced several provisions allowing for flexible approaches to the single market whilst the Maastricht Treaty launched a differentiated approach to the EMU and social policy In addition to these forms of differentiation in primary Community law for many years there has also been a number of quite important though less visible forms of differentiation in secondary Community law This book aims to link both levels of differentiation and seeks to unveil the many faces of differentiation in EU law It analyses whether and to which extent there is a shift in European integration from a system of unity and uniformity to one of flexibility and differentiation A first series of contributions to the book analyse a number of exemplary policy fields EMU social policy environment free movement of persons justice and home affairs in order to identify their degree of differentiation A second set of contributions examine various horizontal institutional matters of cross sectoral importance These two main parts are framed by introductory articles on the development of flexibility and by contributions drawing on the constitutional limits to differentiation The contributions are made by Dominik Hanf Jos M de Areilza Jean Victor Louis Sean Van Raepenbusch Ludwig Kramer Georgia Papagianni Grainne de Burca Ellen Vos Linda Senden Sacha Prechal Wouter
