Evaluation Of Events Scandinavian Experiences Tourism Dynamics:

Evaluation of Events Lena Larsson Mossberg, 2000 Festival and Event Management in Nordic Countries Tommy D. Andersson, Donald Getz, Reidar Johan Mykletun, 2014-06-11 This book on events related research marks a watershed in the development of a Nordic School of festival and event research Each of the chapters presents a new and interesting approach to the study of events in terms of methods perspectives or content It is mostly rooted in management theory but also incorporating other perspectives that enhance our understanding of the phenomena Implications for real world applications in tourism hospitality and community development are also at the fore The scholarship is comprehensive not focused on only tourism or economic aspects Management theory including stakeholder management social networks and institutionalization processes is being applied Attention is being given to the multiple roles festivals and events play in society and to evaluation of their worth and impacts Innovative methods are being developed to examine event experiences innovation processes and success factors There is now a critical mass of scholars in the Nordic countries that share a strong interest in event studies and they are engaged in collaborative research making it an appealing and innovative region for other event students and researchers to visit It can be expected that the Nordic school will take an increasingly important place in the development of event studies which is now truly global in terms of scholarship and university degree programs This book was originally published as a special issue of Scandinavian Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience Richard Sharpley, 2021-11-17 Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience offers a comprehensive synthesis of contemporary research on the tourist experience It draws together multidisciplinary perspectives from leading tourism scholars to explore emergent tourist behaviours and motivations This handbook provides up to date critical discussions of established and emergent themes and issues related to the tourist experience from a primarily socio cultural perspective It opens with a detailed introduction which lays down the framework used to examine the dynamic parameters of the tourist experience Organised into five thematic sections chapters seek to build and enhance knowledge and understanding of the significance and meaning of diverse elements of the tourist experience Section 1 conceptualises and understands the tourist experience through an exploration of conventional themes such as tourism as authentic and spiritual experience as well as emerging themes such as tourism as an embodied experience Section 2 investigates the new developing tourist demands and motivations and a growing interest in the travel career Section 3 considers the significance motives practices and experiences of different types of tourists and their roles such as the tourist as photographer Section 4 discusses the relevance of place to the tourist experience by exploring the relationship between tourism and place The last section Section 5 scrutinises the role of the tourist in creating their experiences through themes such as transformations in the tourist role from passive receiver of experiences to co creator of experiences and external mediators in creating tourist experiences This handbook is the first to fill a notable gap in the tourism literature and collate within a single volume critical insights into the diverse elements of the tourist experience today It will be of key interest to academics and students across the fields of tourism hospitality management geography marketing and consumer behaviour Event Communication Barbara Mazza,2024-02-02 Focuses attention on communication studies as applied to Event Management through the whole event management process It pays particular attention to the latest technological innovations with the event industry including virtual events and digital technologies Tourism Events in Asia Azizul Hassan,Anukrati Sharma,2018-12-07 The roles and impacts of planned events within tourism are of increasing importance for destination competitiveness Tourism Events in Asia is a unique contribution to the understanding of the impacts of events in the development planning promotion and marketing of destinations in the rapidly growing tourism market of Asia Balancing theory and practical examples the book analyses the tools and techniques of branding marketing and media involvement as well as visitor motivations for successful tourism events in Asia It reviews a range of different event types from dark tourism festivals film tourism festivals cultural heritage tourism festivals food tourism festivals business events sports events and meeting incentives conferences and exhibitions MICE and much more Written by an international team of authors this book is essential reading for anyone interested in the Asian tourism events market and will be a valuable resource for students and researchers of events tourism marketing and branding American Book Publishing Record ,2000 Tourism Development and Local Participation in Latin America Heidi Dahles,Lou Keune,2002 Spatial Dynamics in the Experience Economy Anne Lorentzen,Karin Topsø Larsen,Lise Schrøder,2015-05-22 This book explores the dynamics of place location and territories from the perspective of an experience based economy It offers a valuable contribution to this new approach and the planning and management challenges it faces This book emphasises three key avenues to understanding the experience economy First the book reconsiders innovation processes and the relationship between the consumption and production of experience value Second it considers emerging forms of governance related to experience based development in businesses and cities Third it examines the role of place as a value resource and outcome of experiential innovation and planning This book will be of interest to researchers concerned with urban and regional development European Journal of Tourism Research ,2020-10-01 The European Journal of Tourism Research is an open access academic journal in the field of tourism published by Varna University of Management Bulgaria Its aim is to provide a platform for discussion of theoretical and empirical problems in tourism Publications from all fields connected with tourism such as tourism management tourism marketing tourism sociology psychology in tourism tourism geography political sciences in tourism mathematics tourism statistics tourism anthropology culture and tourism heritage and tourism national identity and tourism information technologies in tourism and others are invited Empirical studies need to have either a European context or clearly stated implications for European tourism industry The journal is open to all researchers Young researchers and authors from Central and Eastern Europe are encouraged to submit their contributions The journal is indexed in Scopus and Clarivate Analytics Emerging

Valuation of Ecosystem Services from Nordic Watersheds David N. Barton, Nordic Council of Ministers, 2012-02-29 The emergence of the ecosystem services concept suggests that economic valuation studies are already fulfilling a role in raising awareness by demonstrating the loss of nature's goods and services using monetary indicators In order to have future relevance in capturing value and giving support to policy makers valuation methods must specifically address resource accounting priority setting and instrument design This report provides an overview of economic valuation methods of ecosystem services from watersheds in the Nordic countries The study was commissioned by the Nordic Council of Ministers and conducted by The Norwegian Institute for Nature Research The Norwegian Institute of Water Research and Sweco Norge during the period May November 2011 The study indicates that economic valuation methods can be applied to watershed management in multiple ways However policy makers should be wary of one size fits all valuation estimates that appear ready to use across different watershed types and stakeholder interests
