Evaluation Of Financial Policy Cases Financial Management Pb 2006:

Financial Systems in Troubled Waters Alessandro Carretta, Gianluca Mattarocci, 2013-05-07 This collection considers the financial crisis from a managerial perspective focussing on the business implications for the financial industry Topics examined include governance information needs and strategy of financial intermediaries and investors The contributions build on the existing literature and present some unique insights on governance credit quality evaluation and performance measurement In a fast growing or steady market it is possible for even an inefficient financial system to satisfy investors and firms needs However the current financial crisis has brought into sharp relief the limits of the inefficient practices adopted by the market and made clear the importance of developing more effective governance mechanisms more detailed and complete information databases and new strategies The crisis has also brought to the fore issues about the governance of financial intermediaries that had not been previously addressed These include board diversity internal monitoring procedures and the existence of interlocking directorates More broadly the financial crisis has radically altered the international framework with an increasingly consolidated financial sector and the rise of new markets such as China that now play a predominant role in the worldwide market Studies on the competition and on the performance in this new scenario are essential in order to understand the implications of recent events

Consumer Knowledge and Financial Decisions

Douglas J. Lamdin, 2011-11-23 There has been an increasing recognition that financial knowledge i e literacy is lacking across the population Moreover there is recognition that this lack of knowledge poses real problems as credit mortgages health insurance retirement benefits and savings and investment decisions become increasingly complex Financial Decisions Across the Lifespan brings together the work of scholars from various disciplines family and consumer sciences economics law finance sociology and public policy to provide a broad range of perspectives on financial knowledge financial decisions and policies For consistency across the volume each chapter follows a similar format 1 what individuals know or need to know 2 how what they know or need to know affects financial decisions and outcomes 3 ways in which policies or programs or financial innovations can enhance their knowledge or decisions or outcomes Contributors will provide both new and existing research to create a valuable picture of the state of financial literacy and how it can be improved

The Routledge

Companion to Business in Africa Sonny Nwankwo, Kevin Ibeh, 2014-07-25 Although the world s poorest inhabited continent Africa has recently shown signs of being a source of economic growth in the coming decades with increased foreign investment notably from China and huge growth in GDP from a number of African states In contrast to the heaving weight of books focusing on business opportunities in Asia Eastern Europe and Latin America Africa has been poorly served by academic publishing This compendium of scholarship offers cutting edge knowledge relating to business in Africa The objectives of this collection include To shed new light on the socio cultural and historical underpinnings of business practice in Africa and their implications for promoting entrepreneurship and business behaviour in the region To consider the important constraints on business activities in Africa and the emerging best practice for redressing their real and potential impacts To facilitate a better understanding of contemporary business practice in Africa through the application of relevant theories and models including emergent ones The Routledge Companion to Business in Africa is a comprehensive reference resource that provides the perfect platform for embarking on research and study into Africa from the business perspective
