Evaluationbased Leadership School Administration In Contemporary Perspective:

Evaluation-Based Leadership Naftaly S. Glasman,1986-01-01 An important contribution to the literature in administration Evaluation Based Leadership moves school leaders and decision makers toward a new model of operation rooted in evaluation Responding to the current increased national and local concern for effective schools Glasman s work suggests a move toward an innovative paradigm that will help both inservice professionals and future administrators view their responsibilities with heightened insight and renewed initiative Through his analysis Glasman integrates important theoretical research and practical considerations with a special emphasis on the role of the school principal as one whose work can enhance student achievements Jsl Vol 8-N1 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP,1998-01-01 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Jsl Vol 4-N6 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP,1994-11-01 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Evaluation in Foreign Language Education in the Middle East and North Africa Sahbi Hidri,Christine Coombe,2016-09-27 This book presents evaluation cases from the Middle East and North Africa MENA context investigating the various facets of evaluation in different parts of the MENA region and beyond In 19 chapters it explores cases from Tunisia Saudi Arabia Egypt Sudan Syria the UAE Turkey Iran and Morocco The book highlights the impact of evaluation on a range of stakeholders arguing that it has repercussions at the individual societal economic cultural and political levels that it also has an ethical dimension and that it is tailored to people s needs helping them to remain abreast of the effectiveness and efficiency of programs Further the book explores controversial issues concerning different evaluation themes such as teacher and staff evaluation assessment practices text genre analysis evaluation assessment of productive skills textbook and ICT evaluation evaluation of ELT certificates and programs quality assurance ESP needs analysis assessment literacy and dynamic assessment It addresses key challenges such as who the right people to implement evaluation are and the appropriate use of evaluation results to avoid any misuse or harm to any stakeholder In closing the book calls for further research venues on the relevance of evaluation testing and assessment in the MENA context and beyond Resources in Education ,2001

Principals of Dynamic Schools Sharon F. Rallis, Ellen B. Goldring, 2000-04-15 The second edition continues with Sharon Rallis and Ellen Goldring providing lively and inspiring views of school leadership that is both grounded in reality and compellingly hopeful that this reality can be redefined for the better This book packs more useful ideas about what leadership is and how it works in successfully restructuring schools than any other book now available The authors speak to this topic with a voice that is as passionate and sensitive as it is reasoned and authoritative Rallis and Goldring tell a story based on their extensive case studies and survey studies and on a thorough overview of the research of others They define anew what it means for principals to be in charge The principals they studied were much less concerned with controlling what people did and how they did it and much more concerned with controlling the conditions that enabled others to function in ways that increased the likelihood shared goals would be reached Rallis and Goldring describe and illustrate the behavior of these new principals and the forces that shape their activities Principal Succession Ann Weaver Hart, 1993-01-01 This book examines major issues in theory and research related to leader succession It looks at the persistent problems confronted by people assigned to lead established social and professional groups like those found in schools The author demonstrates how interaction between new leaders and established school organizations shape succession events with illustrations drawn from educational administration and provides a framework for understanding succession as a dynamic and interactive process The Journal of Professional Legal Education , 1993 Core List of Books and Journals in Education Nancy P. O'Brien, Emily Fabiano, 1991-01-09 This list assembles a selected group of approximately 1000 books and journals currently available in the field of education mostly published in the late 1980s All works are in English and almost all are American American government documents and monographs published by UNESCO have also been included Restructuring Schools W. Lowe Boyd, 2005-08-17 Education reform has become part of a political imperative in a number of developed countries around the world The simultaneous movement to reform schooling and the administrative structures which deliver educational services therefore needs to be studied in order to lay bare its fundamental assumptions This movement has been labelled restructuring and reform although the words carry different meanings in different countries The authors question why this reconstruction occurred at the same time in different places What common themes are emerging in the restructuring movement And in the 1990s where will the movement lead schooling and what essential changes will it effect They explore these questions by examining developments in the USA Canada the UK Australia New Zealand and Japan Preparing Leaders of Nonprofit Organizations William A Brown, Matthew Hale, 2022-07-14 There are more than 1 8 million nonprofits in the United States and at least 3 times that many internationally Workers in these nonprofits and civil society organizations increasingly look to academic programs to provide leadership and management training This edited volume is designed to provide new and experienced faculty and program administrators with a broader conception of how the nonprofit leaders of the future are and could be educated The chapters are written by experienced nonprofit program leaders who provide guidance on all aspects of building and more importantly maintaining a successful nonprofit program Many of the chapters are written by former leaders of the nonprofit Academic Centers Council NACC a recognized international leader in nonprofit management curricular development while others are written by successful founders and administrators of nonprofit programs both in the US and internationally All chapters are however grounded in the experience of the authors supplemented with research on best practices and focusing on future trends in the field Preparing Leaders of nonprofit Organizations examines key issues and challenges in the field from multiple perspectives some of which are curricular and intellectual while others are related to program administration and oversight The text explores core concepts distills distinctive features of new or emerging academic programs and identifies ways program leadership might ensure those features are reflected in their programs regardless of where these are housed within a university The book is an essential resource for faculty and administrators who work with or are seeking to develop a nonprofit education program It is also a useful guide for graduate students seeking a career in the nonprofit academy
