Evangelical Heathenism Examining Contemporary Revivalism:

Evangelical Heathenism? E. Calvin Beisner, 1996-01-01 By starting with the definition of freedom as the power of contrary choice contemporary revivalism theology is forced ultimately to deny nearly the whole defining body of Christian faith original sin unregenerate man's moral inability the imputation of Christ's righteousness in justification the substitutionary atonement for sin and the moral and the intellectual infinity perfection and immutability of God

Chalcedon Report, 1998 Revival: A History of Modern Culture: Volume I (1930) Preserved Smith, 2019-07-16
The best excuse for writing the history of anything is the intrinsic interest of the subject Most men of past generations have thought and many men still think of politics as the warp and woof of social life History for a long time therefore treated chiefly politics Then came the economists to arouse the interest of scholars and of the public in the production and distribution of wealth Economic history rightly absorbs much attention for it illumines with its new searchlight many a dark corner of the past and explains many features of present day society But to many men today the most interesting thing about society is its culture just as the most interesting thing about an individual is his thought Indeed it has begun to be suspected that even politics and economics each sometimes worshipped as a First Cause are but secondary effects of something still deeper namely of the progress of man's intellectual life The present volume aims to exhibit as a unified whole the state and progress of modern culture Revivalism Jeremiah Bowen, 1859 Revival: A History of Modern Culture: Volume II (1934) Preserved Smith, 2018-01-16 The understanding of history can be advanced only by the combination or alternation of analysis and synthesis Detailed research and generalizing survey are not antiethical but complementary For a long time however the specialist has reigned supreme in our schools The need is now surely for a return to synoptic writing The present work was undertaken to supply the need of a synthesis It is a map of a large region not a geological chart of a square mile or the plan of a single city Its value if any lies in its view of the interrelations of large tracts of social and intellectual life not in the intensive investigation of narrow fields Jung's Wandering Archetype Carrie B. Dohe, 2016-07-01 Is the Germanic god Wotan Odin really an archaic archetype of the Spirit Was the Third Reich at first a collective individuation process After Friedrich Nietzsche heralded the death of God might the divine have been reborn as a collective form of self redemption on German soil and in the Germanic soul In Jung's Wandering Archetype Carrie Dohe presents a study of Jung's writings on Germanic psychology from 1912 onwards exploring the links between his views on religion and race and providing his perspective on the answers to these questions Dohe demonstrates how Jung's view of Wotan as an archetype of the collective Germanic psyche was created from a combination of an ancient discourse on the Germanic barbarian and modern theories of primitive religion and how he further employed völkisch ideology and various colonialist discourses to contrast hypothesized Germanic Jewish and primitive psychologies He saw Germanic psychology as dangerous yet vital promising rebirth and rejuvenation and compared Wotan to the Pentecostal Spirit suggesting that the Germanic psyche contained the necessary tension to birth a new collective psycho spiritual attitude In racializing his religiously inflected psychological theory Jung combined religious and scientific discourses in a particularly seductive way masterfully weaving together the objective language of science with the eternal language of myth Dohe concludes the book by examining the use of these ideas in modern Germanic religion in which members claim that religion is a matter of race This in depth study of Jung s views on psychology race and spirituality will be fascinating reading for all academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies religious studies and the history of religion
