Evangelicals United Ecumenical Stirrings In Pre Victorian Britain 1795 183:

Anglican Evangelicals Grayson Carter, 2015-10-14 This study examines within a chronological framework the major themes and personalities which influenced the outbreak of a number of Evangelical clerical and lay secessions from the Church of England and Ireland during the first half of the nineteenth century Though the number of secessions was relatively small between a hundred and two hundred of the Gospel clergy abandoned the Church during this period their influence was considerable especially in highlighting in embarrassing fashion the tensions between the evangelical conversionist imperative and the principles of a national religious establishment Moreover through much of this period there remained just beneath the surface the potential threat of a large Evangelical disruption similar to that which occurred in Scotland in 1843 Consequently these secessions provoked great consternation within the Church and within Evangelicalism itself they contributed to the outbreak of millennial Speculation following the constitutional revolution of 1828 32 they led to the formation of several new denominations and they sparked off a major Church State crisis over the legal right of a clergyman to secede and begin a new ministry within Protestant Dissent

Protestant Millennialism, Evangelicalism and Irish Society, 1790-2005 C. Gribben, A. Holmes, 2006-07-10 This volume documents the evolution and impact of one of the most enduring sources and symbols of sectarian conflict in Ireland Protestant millennialism The volume explores new sources and offers new conclusions setting a new research agenda and emphasizing the vitality of religious discourse in Irish studies

The Evangelical Age of Ingenuity in Industrial Britain Joseph Stubenrauch, 2016-07-28 The Evangelical Age of Ingenuity in Industrial Britain argues that British evangelicals in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries invented new methods of spreading the gospel as well as new forms of personal religious practice by exploiting the era's growth of urbanization industrialization consumer goods technological discoveries and increasingly mobile populations While evangelical faith has often been portrayed standing in inherent tension with the transitions of modernity Joseph Stubenrauch demonstrates that developments in technology commerce and infrastructure were fruitfully linked with theological shifts and changing modes of religious life This volume analyzes a vibrant array of religious consumer and material culture produced during the first half of the nineteenth century Mass print and cheap mass produced goods from tracts and ballad sheets to teapots and needlework mottoes were harnessed to the evangelical project By examining ephemera and decorations alongside the strategies of evangelical publishers and benevolent societies Stubenrauch considers often overlooked sources in order to take the pulse of vital religion during an age of upheaval He explores why and how evangelicals turned to the radical alterations of their era to bolster their faith and why serious Christianity flowered in an industrial age that has usually been deemed inhospitable to it

High Calvinists in Action Ian J. Shaw, 2003-02-06 This valuable contribution to the debate about the relation of religion to the modern city fills an important gap in the historiography of early nineteenth century religious life Although there is some evidence that strict doctrine led to a more restricted response to urban problems extensive local and personal variations mean that simple generalizations should be avoided Ian J Shaw argues against earlier prejudiced views and shows that high Calvinists played a vigorous and successful part in the response of early nineteenth century churches to the process of urbanization The study includes six substantial case studies of ministers and their churches in Manchester and London Four high Calvinist ministers are considered with two studies of ministers holding to an evangelical Calvinist doctrine also included to provide instructive contrasts Detailed social analysis of the congregations is based upon extensive use of manuscript and printed sources sermons and local and denominational press A Rebel Saint Philip Hill, 2022-05-26 Baptist Noel 1798 1873 has been described by the American Evangelical Anglican historian Grayson Carter as a towering figure in nineteenth century Evangelicalism but he has been written out of its story because he was a saintly rebel who counted a good conscience more valuable than a good standing This ultimately led him to abandon his glittering Anglican career and aristocratic family to become a Baptist minister A Rebel Saint is a comprehensive study of Noel's life work and thought correcting the neglect of his remarkable Anglican and Baptist ministries and his many years of prominence in Evangelical life Philip Hill ably illustrates his influence on issues including the Irvingite controversy the opposition to the Tractarian movement and Evangelical ecumenism and explains his centrality in the establishment of the Evangelical Alliance and the London City Mission Scholars of Evangelical history will greatly value this account of a pivotal figure while all will be inspired by his story of sacrifice of fame and fortune for the sake of obeying religious conscience

The History of the Free Church of Scotland's Mission to the Jews in Budapest and Its Impact on the Reformed Church of Hungary, 1841-1914 Ábrahám Kovács, 2006 The Budapest Scottish Mission with its two fold aim mission to the Jews and initiating an Evangelical revival in the largest Protestant body had played a remarkable decisive and unique role in the long 19th century of the Hungarian Kingdom This study focuses on how the Scottish Mission implanted British Evangelicalism German Pietism voluntary organisations such as YMCA IFES WSCF Sunday School Women's Guild social outreach medical missions home mission personal piety concepts of mission and evangelisation through their Scottish Presbyterianism into Hungary The study presents the interaction of Scottish Presbyterians Orthodox Neolog Reform and Conservative and Status Quo Ante Jews of Hungary and the Hungarian Reformed Protestants It also discusses their attitudes to conversion mission proselytising education assimilation and nationalism While discussing the Mission's aims the book pays careful attention to church institutional and religious histories In addition to these local theologies ideologies and world views of the people are scrutinized Through these issues this study introduces the reader to the daily life of a multicultural community gathered around the Scottish community Who are the Evangelicals? Derek Tidball, 1994 Classical or pentecostal charismatic or reformed the spectrum of evangelical belief and practice today is infinitely varied Evangelicalism transcends national and denominational differences and enjoys considerable worldwide influence yet it is frequently taken less than seriously by religious commentators and is often known to the wider world only by caricature Evangelicals themselves sometimes have only a scanty knowledge of their historical and theological identity which frequently manifests itself in narrowness of vision and rigidity of judgement Only by understanding our past can we know ourselves today argues Derek Tidball and in this warm and enjoyable account he surveys the modern evangelical movement around the world tracing its historic and doctrinal roots in order to explain today s exciting diversity of expression Evangelicalism is portrayed as a dynamic faith not a static religion and this informed and wise guide is essential reading for all who are concerned to establish whether the many new trends appearing are authentic expressions of biblical Christianity From Back of Book From The Dairyman's Daughter to Worrals of the WAAF Dennis Butts, Pat Garrett, 2006 A collection of essays analysing and celebrating the development of children s literature from the 18th to 20th centuries with emphasis on the role played by the Religious Tract Society and the Lutterworth Press Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1983 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1988 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals List of Titles Added to the Catalogue University of London.
