Conn, 1982 Evangelism John MacArthur, 2011-03-22 A clear biblical theology of evangelism presented with a historical foundation and practical instruction Expand your MacArthur Pastor s Library to include this much needed topic Evangelism begins by comparing the current state of outreach in American Christianity with evangelism throughout church history and also in the Bible Presenting a theology on the subject that addresses the theological principles that govern evangelism showing how they are played out in the church as well as the family and personal interaction It includes preaching one on one witnessing missions parenting evangelism and commissioning and supporting missionaries This book s substantive and doctrinally insightful guide to biblical outreach complements the previous volumes Preaching Biblical Counseling and Pastoral Ministry Models of Evangelism Priscilla Pope-Levison, 2020-10-27 Many sincere Christians dismiss evangelism due to enduring evangelistic caricatures This book helps readers move beyond those caricatures to consider thoughtfully and practically how they can engage in evangelism whether it s through one on one conversations social media social justice or the liturgy of worship services At once biblical theological historical and practical this book by a seasoned scholar offers an engaging well researched and well organized presentation and analysis of eight models of evangelism Covering a breadth of approaches from personal evangelism to media evangelism and everything in between Priscilla Pope Levison encourages readers to take a deeper look at evangelism and discover a model that captures their attention Each chapter introduces and assesses a model biblically theologically historically and practically allowing for easy comparison across the board The book also includes end of chapter study questions to further help readers interact with each model Word and Power Gareth W. D. Stewart, 2015-02-16 Historically the Reformed and Charismatic streams have seemed to be almost mutually exclusive In recent years this exclusivity has been being challenged by a new generation of Reformed thinkers This work aims at considering the contribution of John Wimber the late leader of the Vineyard Churches to contemporary theological reflection within the Reformed tradition Taking into account John Wimber s unique theology of the radical middle which is somewhere between Pentecostal and Evangelical this book asks whether Wimber may be a possible alternative source for the contemporary Reformed Churches as they approach ministry and mission in the twenty first century Written from a confessional Presbyterian context in Northern Ireland Word and Power places Wimber in his theological context and asks whether Wimber s view of power evangelism discipleship formation and ministry training might be a model that Reformed Churches and Presbyterians in particular could adopt for their ecclesiology today Evangelistic Preaching That Connects Craig A. Loscalzo, 1995-10-24 Craig A Loscalzo shows how to develop evangelistic sermons that will appeal to today s audiences He includes a rationale for evangelistic preaching sample sermons and lots of practical advice To Live in Peace Mark R. Gornik, 2002-09-17 Building on both the perspective of God s new creation and the view from the neighborhood To Live in Peace shows how the life of the church the strategies of community development and the practices of peacemaking can make a transformational difference

Created and Creating William Edgar, 2017-03-16 The gospel of Jesus Christ is always situated within a particular cultural context but how should Christians approach the complex relationship between their faith and the surrounding culture Should we simply retreat from culture Should we embrace our cultural practices and mindset How important is it for us to be engaged with our culture and mindset How might we do that with discernment and faithfulness William Edgar offers a biblical theology in the light of our contemporary culture that contends that Christians should and indeed must engage with the surrounding culture By exploring what Scripture has to say about the role of culture and glean insights from a variety of theologians including Abraham Kuyper T S Eliot H Richard Niebuhr and C S Lewis Edgar contends that cultural engagement is a fundamental aspect of human existence He does not shy away from those passages that emphasize the distinction between Christians and the world Yet he finds shining through the biblical witness evidence that supports a robust defence of the cultural mandate to be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it Genesis 1:28 With clarity and wisdom Edgar argues that we are most faithful to our calling as God's creatures when we participate in creating culture

The New Reformation Shai Linne, 2021-05-18
In the sixteenth century the church faced a doctrinal crisis Today the crisis is race We all know that racial unity is important But what's the right way to approach it How can Christians of different ethnicities pursue unity in an environment that is so highly charged and full of landmines on all sides In The New Reformation Christian hip hop artist Shai Linne shows how the gospel applies to the pursuit of ethnic unity When it comes to ethnicity Christians today have to fight against two tendencies idolatry and apathy Idolatry makes ethnicity ultimate while apathy tends to ignore it altogether But there is a third way the way of the Bible Shai explains how ethnicity the biblical word for what we mean by race exists for God's glory Drawing from his experience as an artist theologian church planter and pastor Shai will help you chart a new way forward in addressing the critical question of what it means for people of all ethnicities to be the one people of God
Russian Baptist Mission Theology in Historical and Contemporary Perspective Andrey Kravtsev, 2019-10-31
Since the disintegration of the USSR many Russian Baptists have actively engaged in evangelism church planting and acts of social service This book is a response to the need to critically evaluate the effectiveness of past mission efforts and their undergirding theology In this detailed study Dr Andrey Kravtsev combines historical and qualitative studies to outline the understanding of mission developed by Russian Baptists during the Soviet era when they were almost completely isolated from global missiological developments First Kravtsev identifies four key missiological concepts and uses them to analyze the history of mission theology in global evangelical mission movements and the Russian Baptists He then interviewed thirty leaders from the Russian Union of Evangelical Christian Baptists to find their view of these concepts and their convictions of the need to reconsider traditional missiological views From his findings Dr Kravtsev suggests five themes for facilitating the transition of Russian Baptist mission theology from the late Soviet model of eschatological escapism to a holistic missional evangelicalism This book places evangelical mission in contemporary Russian socio political and ideological contexts and provides an important contribution for leading churches to a renewed missionary encounter with culture
