Tongue-Tied Sara Wenger Shenk, 2021-04-06 Are you tongue tied about faith Many Christians easily and eagerly talk about movies sports politics jobs and emotions So why are we tongue tied when it comes to talking about our faith even with each other Even with our kids What renders us incapable embarrassed or hesitant to talk about God In Tongue tied theologian and former seminary president Sara Wenger Shenk investigates the reasons that people who claim the name of Christ are so reluctant to talk about him Recovering an authentic vocabulary of faith and learning to speak in trustworthy captivating ways is an urgent task for followers of Jesus today In an era of dying churches polarizing cultural arguments and environmental and humanitarian crises many people are longing for deep conversations about things that matter We are longing for genuine spiritual connection with a just and loving God By reflecting theologically on biblical wisdom and our shared humanness Wenger Shenk calls readers to recover the winsome language of Christian faith We don't need to re learn Christianese or brush up on churchy clichés We need a language of faith that is authentic candid and robust

Bringing the Gospel Home Randy Newman, 2011-04-07 Sharing the gospel with a family member can be an exciting experience and often a long painful and confrontational one Randy Newman recognizes it can be more difficult and frustrating to witness to a family member than to nearly anyone else In Bringing the Gospel Home he delivers practical holistic strategies to help average Christians engage family members and others on topics of faith A messianic Jew who has led several family members to Christ Newman urges Christians to look to the Bible before they evangelize He writes a richer understanding of biblical truth I have found can provide a firmer foundation for bold witness and clear communication After a brief introduction on the nature of family he delves into discussions of grace truth love humility and time He also addresses issues related to eternity and end of life conversations Bringing the Gospel Home will help any Christian as he seeks to guide loved ones into God's family

Nesson,1999 This book argues compellingly for the centrality of mission in understanding the church and provides a model for congregational leadership that will help move congregations beyond a maintenance mentality to vital engagement with the world God loves Nesson s model of congregational leadership is strongly centered on worship life of a congregation and the entirety of the church s ministry The chapters provide solid theological and practical direction on the themes of worship education fellowship stewardship evangelism global connections ecumenism and social ministry It is a book that will find a home in both the academy and the parish a textbook for seminarians and a guide and resource for pastors and lay congregational leaders     The Sacrament of Evangelism Jerry Root,Stan Guthrie,2011-04-01 A recent statistic suggests that 15% of the churches in America are growing but only 2 2% are growing evangelistically Much of the church in America has lost its evangelistic zeal and forgotten how to re ignite it this book is an attempt to light the fuse of the powder keg so that the church long distracted by so many things might return to its primary mission in the world We do not take Christ to anyone He is already there We go to make explicit what we see Him doing implicitly It is not a question of whether God is at work in His world Our hope is to see more of God s people at work with Him Learn about why we share our faith Christ s role in our evangelism the deep longings in all our hearts and how to effectively live a sacramentally evangelistic lifestyle We are offering a way of looking at life and the world that is open to God s presence everywhere This approach is called sacramental And where better to experience God s presence than in His workplace This is the Sacrament of Evangelism     Evangelism Without Additives Jim Henderson,2009-01-20 What if evangelism meant just being yourself If the gospel really is good news

why do most Christians avoid evangelism Why is witnessing often a negative experience for both the sender and receiver Wouldn't it be great if you could communicate the good news without having to become a spiritual salesperson What if you didn't have to make a speech in order to witness you could use everyday experiences to nudge others closer to Jesus the things you're already doing counted as evangelism Evangelism can be as normal as asking great questions and paying attention to the people Jesus misses most It involves doing things you already do but with a little more intentionality Just by being yourself and becoming unusually interested in others you can discover that people will ask you about Jesus This isn't another program or pitch It's a handbook on how to make real connections with the people formerly known as lost Think of it as evangelism for the rest of us      Personal Evangelism J C Macaulay, Robert H Belton, 2013-04-25 Here is a fresh approach to personal evangelism by two writers who speak out of their experience in witnessing and in teaching principles of evangelism in the classroom The approach is biblical Scriptures are constantly introduced in dealing with various types such as the anxious the unsatisfied the fearful the procrastinator and the self-righteous The study of the Word is emphasized as preparation for the soul winner Important principles are deduced from the Gospel of John The work of the Holy Spirit is emphasized because He must prepare the heart of the seeker guide the speech of the witness and cause new life to spring up in each individual heart Practicality and tact are two words which may be said to characterize this text It is not limited to theory developed in the seclusion of the study nor does it neglect criticism of such wrong approaches as the holier than thou or the wiser than thou      Lifestyle Evangelism Dr. Joe Aldrich, 2006-03-01 Finding common ground and earning the right to be heard is the secret to lifestyle evangelism In this classic bestseller now released as a mass market paperback Dr Joe Aldrich shows us how we can build genuine caring relationships with nonbelievers that will open their hearts to the gospel message The author's approach is biblical practical and natural Lifestyle Evangelism is the definitive work in introducing people to the Savior in a way that displays God's authentic love for the lost      Evangelism Harvie M. Conn, 1982

Cultivating an Evangelistic Character Christopher James Schoon, 2018-04-24 This project explores the relationship between worship discipleship and evangelism within the missional church movement Engaging contributions from liturgical theology Christian ethics and post Christendom evangelism the book proposes a missional approach to worship that when integrated with a praxis oriented discipleship cultivates Jesus character among God's people Along the way the project attends to the Holy Spirit's transformative presence the liturgical rhythms of remembering and anticipating and the practices of hospitality and compassion In the end Cultivating an Evangelistic Character contends that the Spirit works through the integration of worship and discipleship to form God's people In other words God's people become evangelistic or as Newbigin said the hermeneutic of the gospel      Guide for the Christian Perplexed Thomas P. Power, 2012-01-13 Thoughtful Christians are legitimately perplexed by a number of issues relating to the church's belief and practice They are perplexed partly because they recognize that the issues themselves are thorny and partly because they are not sure how to test the mutually inconsistent theories and explanations affirmed by diverse voices speaking with equal assurance Most Christians find relatively little occasion or encouragement to address their perplexities with intellectual candor and integrity If they dare to acknowledge their theological perplexities at all they are too often told that these perplexities are unimportant or that they can be answered very simply or that they should be left to the experts Guide for the Christian Perplexed written by members of the faculty of Wycliffe College Toronto aims to explore a diversity of issues and questions to do with our knowledge of Jesus the meaning of suffering the function of doctrine the understanding of Scripture the place of other religions the challenge of atheism the pleasures and complications of sexuality the nature of worship the way to evangelize our understanding who our neighbor is locally and globally our diversities of spirituality Here you will find thoughtful reflections and answers to the questions around these issues A study guide is included for individual and group use

Good News Church John P Bowen, Michael P Knowles, 2018-05-28 In more than forty years of ministry Harold Percy has sought to waken a slumbering church by reminding it of its true calling to imaginative evangelism faithful discipleship and innovative leadership As a priest in the Anglican Diocese of Toronto and as founding Director of the Wycliffe College Institute of Evangelism Harold has challenged and encouraged leaders in a range of denominations across Canada through articles and books conferences and workshops This book engages in lively dialogue with Harold's many contributions to the life of the church today with chapters on leadership discipleship spirituality congregational ministry and missional outreach from eighteen pastoral practitioners all of whom continue to expand on his unique legacy in the service of Christ
