

Pat's Letters From Heaven

by Leon Bates

Introduction: On November 18, 1996, after 3 years of cancer surgeries and treatments, PAT BATES, my best friend and wife for 43 years... at the age of 82... "GRADUATED" from earth into Heaven and presence of OUR Lord Jesus Christ.

Speaking at her funeral, I told our friends present her witness for Christ was to continue. First was in the lives of those who knew and loved her. Second was a project God laid on my heart. That project was these "Letters from Heaven" WHICH I WROTE... that I think she would like to have sent back to us.

People who know us were aware that for 43 years, we went everywhere together. We worked together, played and traveled together. We served on the mission field in Russia together. We knew each other as well as any two humans could. That's why I believe these letters would have come from her heart.

Pat is shown in this photo during one of our summers working in Russia as missionaries. She is giving an elderly Russian man a Bible and Russia Bible Map tract in a small rural village along the Volga River between Moscow and St. Petersburg, Russia. She loved people and wanted to do all she could so more people could spend eternity with her in heaven.

I hope these letters are a blessing and encouragement to you and to others you give them to. You're welcome to print copies and share them or forward them as an E-Mail PDF attachment with as many other people as you wish.

All of us will eventually love loved ones and face eternity ourselves. My prayer is that the information in these letters will help you and others KNOW that their eternal destiny is with the Lord. Not just "hope" but "know." Please study these letters carefully and think on what's being said. Look up the Scripture verses. May the Holy Spirit of God illuminate your mind and fill your heart with JOY... as you ponder and seriously think about these letters and the Biblical truths in them.

These three letters are "My First Week in Heaven," "My First Christmas in Heaven" and "My First Easter in Heaven." They are lovingly dedicated to the memory of PAT and the JOY she brought to me and to all who knew her.
