Evas Man:

Eva's Man Gayl Jones, 2020-10-20 The Best American Novelist Whose Name You May Not Know Calvin Baker The Atlantic A literary giant and one of my absolute favourite writers TAYARI JONES author of AN AMERICAN MARRIAGE An American writer with a powerful sense of vital inheritance of history in the blood John Updike The New Yorker Eva s Man is a gripping psychological portrait of a woman unable to love for fear of pain Imprisoned for the bizarre murder of her lover Eva Median Canada weaves together memory and fantasy to reveal a life tormented by the brutality of sexual abuse and emotional silence Brilliantly experimenting with language Jones infuses her graphic and powerful narrative of the triple yoke of race class and gender with a rich musical and oral idiom Marswalk One Shayler David, Andrew Salmon, Michael D. Shayler, 2007-07-05 MARSWALK ONE First Steps on a New Planet addresses the question of why we should embark on a journey to Mars documenting what the first human crew will do when they place their feet in the red dust of the planet The book also addresses why we need to carry out these tasks and more importantly what a human crew could achieve that an automated mission could not Understanding the clear benefits of sending a human crew to the surface of Mars and how these benefits can be seen back on Earth is the key to sustained long term public and political support for the programme in terms of cash and commitment The book accepts that the journey will be made but does not specify precisely when Flight time and how to get to and from the planet are discussed briefly to understand why the suggested duration spent at Mars is reasonable The main objective of the work is to look at what science will be done on the surface supported by orbital operations and what hardware and technology will be employed to achieve the mission objectives This analysis is drawn from previous experiences in manned and unmanned space programmes including Apollo Skylab Salyut Mir Shuttle and ISS Viking Luna Lunokhod and recent Mars missions such as Pathfinder and Global Surveyor In addition new interviews with key personalities involved in planning Martian exploration and discussions about current thoughts on what we need to accomplish on Mars when we get there will provide a lively and thought provoking account that could generate fresh debate When the decision is finally made to go to Mars it will be made in the knowledge that most of the world knows why we are going and what benefits mankind will see for the effort The authors primary objective is to begin this understanding

Genders 23 Thomas C. Foster, Carol Siegel, Ellen E. Berry, 1996-04 What do narratives by British suffragettes of being forcibly fed have in common with the representation of indigenous women in Canadian police archives How are literary representations of domestic violence related to the use of silence as a strategy of resistance in African American women's writing How are modernist fictions of gay male desire connected with ambiguous sexual performances in rock music or with images of Vietnam veterans in American horror movies What does a narrative of women's participation in Bengali national resistance movements share with an ethnographic study of prostitution in Papua New Guinea These are some of the specific questions raised by the essays in this volume which examines a wide variety of historical and cultural locations where differently sexed, gendered and racialized bodies have been constructed More generally this volume addresses theoretical debates over whether embodiment is best understood through representations or performances Are bodies written or enacted The different answers to these questions have important consequences for how we understand the inscription of bodies with systems of power and the possibilities that exist for resisting those systems go to the Genders website

Refusing to Be Made Whole

Anna LaQuawn Hinton, 2025-03-17 In Refusing to Be Made Whole Disability in Black Women's Writing author Anna LaQuawn Hinton examines how contemporary Black women writers present becoming disabled as a traumatic and violent experience of Black womanhood. Nevertheless, Black women embrace disabled Black womanhood by turning to Africanist spiritual understandings of wholeness which view debilitating injury and illness as not only physical but also spiritual, not just an individual problem but a symptom of discord in the community. Black women use these belief systems to reimagine healing in ways that make space for a variety of body/mind/spirits. Hinton maintains that this is not only a major theme in contemporary Black women's writing but that it also shapes the formal elements characteristic of the Black women's literary tradition. Refusing to Be Made Whole analyzes texts published after the civil rights movements of the 1950s and 1960s, focusing particularly on the late 1970s onward when Black women's writing flourished. Through the lens of writings by authors such as Toni Cade Bambara, Gayl Jones, Gloria Naylor, Ntozake Shange, Audre Lorde, Alice Walker, Toni Morrison, Octavia Butler, Sapphire, and Sarah E. Wright, Hinton addresses prominent critical discourses within Black feminist literary studies. Hinton approaches the intersections of Africanist spirituality, race, gender, class, and disability, conversations about representation, community, motherhood, and sexuality through a Black feminist disability studies framework. Refusing to Be Made Whole embraces the complex and multifaceted nature of Black women's writing, arguing that through this collision of race, gender, and spirituality, Black women writers speak healing and wellness into their readers' lives and their own. The Forgotten

Life of Eva Gordon Linda MacKillop, 2022-05-17 A touching debut, MacKillop takes the pain of aging and regret and infuses it with soul and a touch of humor. This auspicious first outing tugs at the heartstrings. Publishers Weekly: Eva wants to run away from her life; if only she could remember how. Failing memory has forced Eva Gordon to move in with her granddaughter Breezy. But Eva hates the bustle of Boston. All she wants to do is move back to her quiet, cozy Cape Cod home and be left alone. Then Breezy announces she's getting married and they'll be moving to her new husband's rundown family farm where he lives with an elderly uncle. They'll be one big family, but only Breezy and Brent think it'll be a happy one. It's all too much for Eva. Too much change, too much togetherness, too much of an over-crowded life she never wanted. But as her desire for privacy collides with her worsening memory, Eva may find herself in a pickle she can't get out of. A big-hearted family saga suffused with grace and kindness, featuring a cast of appealing characters who would be right at home in Jon Hassler's Staggerford or Richard Russo's Empire Falls. Adrienne Harun, author of A Man Came Out of a Door in the Mountain. On par with Olive Kitteridge. But where Olive woos, Eva Gordon captures. A poignant, utterly beautiful story of perspective and hope. Cheryl Grey Bostrom, author of Sugar Birds. A novel full of life and transformation as charming as a New England cottage by the sea. You can't help but fall in love with spunky, hard-edged Eva Gordon and the others connected to Try Again Farm. Christine Kindberg, author of The Means That Make Us Strangers. Apollo Shayler David, 2002 The structure of Apollo. The Lost and Forgotten Missions follows the development and in-flight testing of the Apollo lunar spacecraft prior to

Apollo 11 as well as missions planned following that first landing Drawing upon combinations of archival documentation from the first four manned Apollo missions and future mission plans evolved in the summer of 1969 Apollo The Lost and Forgotten Missions will fill this void The text explains how the machines and the men were prepared for the landing on the moon and what would have followed the initial landings
