History in Literature Edward Quinn, 2014-05-14 Alphabetically arranged articles discuss the major events figures and movements of the twentieth century and how they have been depicted in literature Novels and Stories: Uncle Tom's cabin Harriet Beecher Stowe, 1910 Numerology in Action in Our World (Book 2) Pamela Lillian Valemont, 2012-09-27 The numbers 4 and 5 plus their higher elevations the Masters 22 4 and 77 5 as you have never seen or understood them before The Master 56 11 is also analysed Pamela makes the esoteric exoteric and brings to life numbers in a way you will understand As a poet the power of word vibrations is her forte and with 30 plus years of talk back radio behind her and compiling charts for everyone from the ordinary person in the street to the famous Pamela delivers a wealth of information previously not revealed perhaps much of it misunderstood overall the worth of which was definitely unappreciated The numerology charts of Princess Diana Beethoven Mozart Adolf Hitler Harvey Khler the acclaimed American author and Harvey Spencer Lewis the founder of the USA Rosicrucian movement are used to demonstrate the power of the Master Numbers 22 77 and 56 and the way they work when they appear either singly or in harness on a person s chart to produce a unique individual Multiple Modernities Michelle Sharp, Anja Louis, 2017-07-14 This collection of essays confirms Carmen de Burgos s pivotal place in Spanish feminist history by bringing together eminent international scholars who offer new readings of Burgos s work It includes the analyses of a number of lesser known texts both fictional and non fictional which give us a more comprehensive examination of Burgos's multipronged feminist approach. Burgos's works, especially her essays, are essential feminist reading and complement other European and North American traditions. Gaining familiarity with the breadth and depth of her work serves not only to provide an understanding of Spanish first-wave feminism but also enriches our appreciation of cultural studies, gender studies, subaltern studies, and travel literature. Looking at the entirety of her life and work and the wide-ranging contributions in this volume, it is evident that Burgos embodied the tensions between tradition and modernity, depicting multiple representations of womanhood. Encouraging women to take ownership of their personal fashion, the design of their homes, and the decorum of their families were steps towards recognizing a female population that was cognizant of its own desires.

How do the spaces of the past stay with us through representations, whether literary or photographic? How has the Holocaust registered in our increasingly globally connected consciousness? What does it mean that this European event is often used as an interpretive or representational touchstone for genocides and traumas globally? In this interdisciplinary study, Kaplan asks and attempts to answer these questions by looking at historically and geographically diverse spaces, photographs, and texts concerned with the physical and/or mental landscape of the Holocaust and its transformations from the postwar period to the early twenty-first century. Examining the intersections of landscape, postmemory, and trauma, Kaplan's text offers a significant contribution to our understanding of the spatial, visual, and literary reach of the Holocaust.

Pale Horse, Pale Rider: Three Short Novels Katherine Anne Porter, 2014-03-25

The classic 1939 collection of 3 novellas by the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award-winning author and journalist, including the famous title story set during the influenza epidemic of 1918. In Noon Wine, a family struggling to live on a farm in Texas is saved by the unexpected arrival of a mysterious stranger, only to have their world upended again by the arrival nine years later of a second stranger. The three parts of Old Mortality introduce the teenager Miranda and chronicle her journey of self-discovery as she gradually realizes her family's romantic nostalgia for her absent uncle, and late aunt bears little resemblance to the truth. Miranda returns in the title story Pale Horse, Pale Rider. She is now working as a drama critic for a newspaper in Denver, where she falls in love with a soldier, Adam, during the influenza epidemic of 1918. When Miranda falls ill, Adam cares for her until she is moved to a hospital. Throughout her ordeal, on everyone's mind is the war, the war, the WAR to end WAR, war for Democracy for humanity, a safe world forever, and ever. few She not only got out alive but made a new life for herself in England Sixty years on now a widow and grandmother the Bunker is almost forgotten But the past has not forgotten her Hans a soldier she knew from those dark days has written asking if he may visit Obsessed with the war he has spent the intervening decades tracking down all who were there and who survived In her reluctant raking over of old coals Edith finds embers that still burn and in the act of remembrance a very current threat Fingering the Jagged Grain Keith E. Byerman,2010-08-01 In Fingering the Jagged Grain Keith E Byerman discusses how black writers such as Toni Morrison Ishmael Reed and Ernest Gaines have moved away from the ideological rigidity of the black arts movement that arose in the 1960s to create a more expressive imaginative and artistic fiction inspired by the example of Ralph Ellison s Invisible Man Combining a strong concern for technique and craftsmanship with elements of African American heritage including jazz blues spirituals cautionary tales and voodoo these writers have created a vital fiction that celebrates the strength and resilience of the black American voice as it recounts the painful details and brutal episodes of black experience Library Journal ,2002 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Novels and Stories: We and our neighbors Harriet Beecher Stowe,1910 The frost king; Lilybell and Thistledown; Ripple; Eva's visit to fairyland.; Sunshine; The fairy spring; Queen Aster; The Brownie and the princess; Mermaids; Little Bud; The flower story Louisa May Alcott,1887 Mrs Adolf Hitler Blaine Taylor,2013-06-19 The year 2012 marks the centenary of Eva Braun s birth This is the strange but true saga of her life richly illustrated from her own personal photograph albums as well as from other captured German archives She married German dictator Adolf Hitler but 36 hours before their joint suicides in Berlin on April 30 1945 in the last week of the Second World War in Europe This exciting pictorial biography tells the full story of a Catholic convent bred young woman not only as the secret mistress as many historians have painted her since her voluntary death at age 33 but also as Hitler s lawfully wedded wife even though she is still largely referred to today by her maiden name They met at a Munich photography shop in 1929 when she was but 17 and he was already 40 The true nature of their long relationship is fully explained in detail for the very first time she was heterosexual and he bisexual but the author concludes Eva most likely remained a virgin until the day she died Although many reports after the war claimed that he shot himself and that she took poison the official Russian autopsy of their partially burnt bodies asserted that both died by cyanide capsules despite the postwar testimony of all Hitler s closest aides lending even their deaths an air of mystery Who was she really The answers are here This fascinating gripping and tragic story of a pretty well liked middle class shop girl is of a life mainly lived in the iron shadow of history In death Eva Braun Hitler became and remains today a hundred years after her birth one of the most famous women in all of world history alongside such female luminaries as Joan of Arc Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and Princess Diana Eva has been a figure shrouded in controversy misinformation myth and legend until now At long last the veil is lifted with over 300 photographs providing an

Harriet Beecher Stowe: Three Novels (LOA #4) Harriet Beecher Stowe, 1882-05-06 In this Library of America volume are the best and most enduring works of Harriet Beecher Stowe the little woman as Abraham Lincoln said when he met her in 1861 who wrote the book that made this great war He was referring with rueful exaggeration to Uncle Tom s Cabin 1852 which during its first year had sold over 300 000 copies Contemporary readers can still appreciate the powerful effects of its melodramatic characterizations and its unapologetic

sentimentality They can also recognize in its treatment of racial violence some of the brooding imagination and realism that anticipates Faulkner's rendering of the same theme Stowe was charged with exaggerating the evils of slavery but her stay in Cincinnati Ohio where her father the formidable Lyman Beecher head of the Lane Theological Seminary gave her a close look at the miseries of the slave communities across the Ohio River People in her circle of friends were continually harboring slaves who escaped across the river from Kentucky on the way they hoped to Canada Two other novels along with Uncle Tom's Cabin show the range and variety of her literary accomplishment The Minister's Wooing 1859 is set in Newport Rhode Island after the Revolution It is a romance based in part on the life of Stowe's sister and it traces to a happy ending the conflicts in a young woman between adherence to Calvinistic rigor and her expression of preference in the choice of a marital partner The third novel Oldtown Folks 1869 confirms Stowe's genius for the realistic rendering of ordinary experience her talent for social portraiture with a keen satiric edge and her subtlety in exploring a wide group of themes from child rearing practices and religious controversy to romantic seduction and betrayal But finally it is the old town and a way of life that no longer exists that is the true subject of this elegiac novel LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation's literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America's best and most significant writing The Library of America series includes more than 300 volumes to date authoritative editions that average 1 000 pages in length feature cloth covers sewn bindings and ribbon markers and are printed on premium acid free paper that will last for centuries
