Conversations with Gus Van Sant Mario Falsetto, 2015-03-12 One of the most talented and imaginative artists of independent cinema Gus Van Sant established himself with a number of important movies of the late 1980s and early 1990s Beginning with Mala Noche the 1986 gay classic of personal film expression followed by two key works of the American indie movement Drugstore Cowboy and My Own Private Idaho Van Sant films often feature characters on the borders of mainstream society Subsequent films included hits misses and a notorious remake of Psycho Regardless of the critical or commercial response to his work Van Sant has maintained a vision that is unique among contemporary filmmakers Conversations with Gus Van Sant is the first critical study to include both extensive original interviews with the director as well as discussions of his entirebody of work The exchanges between film scholar Mario Falsetto and the indie filmmaker cover fifteen films directed by Van Sant over a period of thirty years Throughout these discussions Van Sant talks candidly about each film's production history visual style editing patterns and creative soundwork. The director also expounds on his work with actors the relationship of independent filmmakers to the wider film industry and many other subjects related to his filmmaking process The conversations examine the rich thematic explorations of Van Sant's films which often revolve around the search for love and community on the margins of society and feature a fascination with death From experimental films such as Gerry Last Days Elephant and Paranoid Park where Van Sant rebooted his understanding of cinema and his relationship to the Hollywood film industry to Milk and Promised Land this book explores the rich network of meanings in the director's work By melding the author's critical perspective with the filmmaker's own ideas Conversations with Gus Van Sant creates a wider perspective on one of the most iconoclastic and imaginative directors of the last thirty years

Audience-ology Kevin Goetz, 2022-11 Looks at the often secretive process of audience testing Hollywood movies and how it can help shape movies with first hand accounts from directors such as Ron Howard Cameron Crowe Drew Barrymore and SPIN, 1993-12 From the concert stage to the dressing room from the recording studio to the digital realm SPIN Ed Zwick surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting provocative interviews and a discerning critical ear With dynamic photography bold graphic design and informed irreverence the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today s most innovative sounds Whether covering what s new or what s next SPIN is your monthly VIP Contemporary North American Film Directors Yoram Allon, Del Cullen, Hannah Patterson, 2002 Encompassing the careers of up to 600 directors over 60 new to this edition working in the US and Canada today this volume is an invaluable reference for students researchers and enthusiasts of film and popular culture Each entry provides biographical information as well as insightful textual and thematic analysis of the director's work In comprehensively covering a wide range of film makers from more established mainstream luminaries such as Steven Spielberg Martin Scorsese Ridley Scott and Kathryn Bigelow through independent mavericks like Hal Hartley Atom Egoyan Jim Jarmusch and the Coen brothers to innovative emerging talents including Marc Forster Monster's Ball Todd Field In the Bedroom and David Gordon Green George Washington the shifting landscape of contemporary film making is brought into sharp focus Sur Cinema Studies Susan Hayward, 2022-09-30 Now in its sixth edition this essential guide for students la 4e de couv provides accessible definitions of a comprehensive range of genres movements world cinemas theories and production terms This fully revised and updated book includes new topical entries that explore areas such as film and the environmental crisis streaming and new audience consumption diversity and intersectionality questions related to race and representation the Black Lives Matter movement and New Wave Cinemas of Eastern European countries Further new entries include accented exilic cinema border cinema the oppositional gaze sonic sound and Black westerns Existing entries have been updated including discussion of MeToo and more contemporary film examples have been added throughout This is a must have guide for any student starting out on this fascinating area of study and arguably the greatest art form of modern times Directors, Gay Films? Emanuel Levy, 2015-08-25 Through intimate encounters with the life and work of five contemporary gay male directors this book develops a framework for interpreting what it means to make a gay film or adopt a gay point of view For most of the twentieth century gay characters and gay themes were both underrepresented and misrepresented in mainstream cinema Since the 1970s however a new generation of openly gay directors has turned the closet inside out bringing a poignant immediacy to modern cinema and popular culture Combining his experienced critique with in depth interviews Emanuel Levy draws a clear timeline of gay filmmaking over the past four decades and its particular influences and innovations While recognizing the queering of American culture that resulted from these films Levy also takes stock of the ensuing conservative backlash and its impact on cinematic art a trend that continues alongside a growing acceptance of homosexuality He compares the similarities and differences between the North American attitudes of Todd Haynes Gus Van Sant and John Waters and the European perspectives of Pedro Almod var and Terence Davies developing a truly expansive approach to gay filmmaking and auteur cinema The Road Movie Book Steven Cohan, Ina Rae Hark, 2002-01-04 The Road Movie Book is the first comprehensive study of an enduring but ever changing Hollywood genre its place in American culture and its legacy to world cinema The road and the cinema both flourished in the twentieth century as technological advances brought motion pictures to a mass audience and the mass produced automobile opened up the road to the ordinary American When Jean Baudrillard equated modern American culture with space speed cinema technology he could just as easily have added that the road movie is its supreme emblem The contributors explore how the road movie has confronted and represented issues of nationhood sexuality gender class and race They map the generic terrain of the road movie trace its evolution on American television as well as on the big screen from the 1930s through the 1980s and finally consider road movies that go off the road departing from the US landscape or travelling on the margins of contemporary American culture Movies discussed include Road classics such as It Happened One Night The Grapes of Wrath The Wizard of Oz and the Bob Hope Bing Crosby Road to films 1960 s reworkings of the road movie in Easy Rider and Bonnie and Clyde Russ Meyer s road movies from Motorpsycho to Faster Pussycat Kill Kill Contemporary hits such as Paris Texas Rain Man Natural Born Killers and Thelma and Louise The road movie Australian style from Mad Max to the Adventures of Priscilla Queen of the Desert
