Even Greater Sexual Disasters:

Even Greater Sexual Disasters Gyles Daubeney Brandreth, 1987 Even Greater Sexual Disasters Gyles Brandreth, 1987 Disasters Kathleen Tierney, 2025-04-24 Disasters kill maim and generate increasingly large economic losses But they do not wreak their damage equally across nations and populations Every disaster has social forces at its very core This important book sheds light on the social conditions and the global national and local processes that produce environmental degradation and disaster Topics covered include the social roots of disaster vulnerability exposure to natural hazards as a form of environmental injustice and emerging threats Written by a leading expert in the field the book provides the necessary frameworks for understanding hazards and disasters as it explores the contributions of various social science disciplines to disaster research and how these ideas have evolved over time Bringing the social aspects of disasters to the forefront Tierney discusses the challenge of conducting research in the aftermath of a disaster and critiques the concept of disaster resilience which has come to be seen as a key to disaster risk reduction This second edition places greater emphasis on climate related disasters and offers new reflections on the impacts of Covid 19 additional material on the legacies of colonialism and refreshed case studies Peppered with research findings and insights from a wide range of disciplines this rich introduction is an invaluable resource for students and scholars interested in both the social nature of disasters and their relation to broader social forces Sexuality in World History Peter N. Stearns, 2017-02-14 This book examines sexuality in the past and explores how it helps explain sexuality in the present The subject of sexuality is often a controversial one and exploring it through a world history perspective emphasizes the extent to which societies including our own are still reacting to historical change through contemporary sexual behaviors values and debates This new edition examines these issues on a global scale with attention to anthropological insights on sexuality and their relationship to history the dynamics between sexuality and imperialism sexuality in industrial society and trends and conflicts surrounding views of sex and sexuality in the contemporary world New Digital Feminist Interventions Giuliana Sorce, Tanja Thomas, 2024-12-31 This volume proposes speaking up and talking back as new theoretical access points for studying feminist activism in digital spaces Drawing on the influential work of bell hooks it highlights social justice interventions by feminist queer decolonial actors groups and collectives who recover the digital as a space for activist organizing and campaigning In presenting a variety of sociocultural issues such as gender violence queer discrimination or migrant hostility the book centers empowerment practices in their digital forms showcasing interventions in Asia Europe and the Americas thereby critically examining the conditions for marginalized voices to speak up talk back and be heard in digital publics In focusing on activist practices formats experiences and scholarship the contributions analyze many facets of digital feminist contention including resistance storytelling hashtag activism grassroots journalism or diaspora podcasting This international and interdisciplinary volume will interest students and scholars of Media and Communication Social Movements and Activism Cultural Studies Gender and

Queer Studies and Race and Ethnicity Climate Hazards, Disasters, and Gender Ramifications Catarina Kinnvall, Helle Rydstrom, 2019-06-11 This book focuses on the challenges of living with climate disasters in addition to the existing gender inequalities that prevail and define social economic and political conditions Social inequalities have consequences for the everyday lives of women and girls where power relations institutional and socio cultural practices make them disadvantaged in terms of disaster preparedness and experience Chapters in this book unravel how gender and masculinity intersect with age ethnicity sexuality and class in specific contexts around the globe It looks at the various kinds of difficulties for particular groups before during and after disastrous events such as typhoons flooding landslides and earthquakes It explores how issues of gender hierarchies patriarchal structures and masculinity are closely related to gender segregation institutional codes of behaviour and to a denial of environmental crisis This book stresses the need for a gender responsive framework that can provide a more holistic understanding of disasters and climate change A critical feminist perspective uncovers the gendered politics of disaster and climate change This book will be useful for practitioners and researchers working within the areas of Climate Change response Gender Studies Disaster Studies and International Relations Queering Disasters, Climate Change and Humanitarian Crises Dale Dominey-Howes, Ashleigh Rushton, William Leonard, Marcilyn Cianfarani, Lisa Overton, Haorui Wu, 2025-07-31 This book marks a significant contribution to the development of queer disaster studies exploring how disaster related experiences and needs of sexual and gender diverse LGBTIQ people manifest and differ across national cultural and regional boundaries from the Global North and South from culturally diverse communities drawing together researchers and professionals working in government non government agencies emergency management community and humanitarian organisations Uniquely it contains contributions from sexual and gender diverse people with lived experience of disasters climate change and humanitarian crises and people who have been subject to heterosexist discrimination in disaster relief and recovery related services as employees and volunteers A crucial overdue contribution to achieving the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals 5 Gender Equality this book identifies areas to further the development of just and equitable disaster climate change and humanitarian crises policy programs and services that include and address the needs of sexual and gender diverse people Courting Disaster Pat Robertson, 2008-11-02 In this book Pat Robertson examines the threat of no judicial limits to the Christian heritage of our country and how it has steadily eroded the power of both representative government and democracy itself Fantasia of the Unconscious D. H. Lawrence, 2021-05-07 After the release of D H Lawrence s compelling novel Sons and Lovers which details a complicated and borderline abusive relationship between a mother and son many critics sought issues with the content accusing Lawrence of writing a shameful and incestuous novel Amid this criticism Lawrence was inspired to write Fantasia of the Unconscious explaining the themes and topics that often find their way into his work while defending himself against the raging criticism of Sons and Lovers Though Lawrence admits his bias as well as acknowledging that he is not a scientist nor a scholar he supports his psychoanalytic claims and raises concerns that had previously been unvoiced First Lawrence debunks popular Freudian psychology and Oedipus theories mainly to defend his novel Sons and Lovers which was semi autobiographical from the claims that the mother and son depicted in the novel had a sexual relationship Lawrence continues to analyze social practices and expectations of marriage raising children education and political action He challenged the very idea of self which is a cornerstone of Western culture Furthermore Lawrence articulates the mental struggles that exists between emotional and intellectual identities discussing the polarity of each and the cases in which they intersect causing a turmoil of contradiction Though he is not trained in the science D H Lawrence spent a lifetime writing about human observations that others found too grotesque or taboo to acknowledge allowing Lawrence to have a certain expertise on such issues With psychoanalytic theory Lawrence supports his views theories and philosophies that often invited controversy in the literary and social realm With poem like prose and abstract ideas D H Lawrence proposes theories that surprises and compels readers Described as being ahead of its time Fantasia of the Unconscious introduces ideas that can be examined in practice in modern society With insight on topics of education marriage and social norms Fantasia of the Unconscious is an illuminating guide to D H Lawrence s other works This edition of Fantasia of the Unconscious is now presented in an easy to read font and features a new eye catching cover design to cater to contemporary readers

Creating a Comprehensive Trauma Center Mary Beth Williams,Lasse A. Nurmi,2013-03-09 Early Thoughts on Creating Comprehensive Trauma Centers This volume has been many years in writing When Dr Donald Meichenbaum first suggested it and I approached my coauthor Lasse Nurmi it did not seem to be as formidable a task as it has become Interviewing the centers in this book has taken years to get responses to summarize those responses and to return the summaries for further comment Many centers have been created in that time others have suspended operation This volume does not claim to present even a majority of those centers However the ones contained herein are representative of what is out there The idea to create a comprehensive trauma center is not new The initial section of this forward examines thoughts I proposed as part of my comprehensive examination for my doctorate Many of the ideas proposed then 1989 seem to fit now It is my dream to put them into practice someday in the future THE COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATION QUESTION In 1989 one question on the written comprehensive examination questions for my doctorate was If you were to create a comprehensive trauma center in your suburban area making use of what you have learned in your doctoral experience describe the organization of that center the mission structure personnel funding objectives and services it would offer Some of the conclusions reached then now seem applicable to the task at hand design ing comprehensive trauma centers CTCs for the 21st century

Natural Disaster and Development in a Globalizing World Mark Pelling,2003-08-29 The number of humanitarian disasters triggered by a natural hazard has doubled every decade since the 1960s At the same time the global economic growth rate per capita is twice its 1960s value Does this mean economic growth is independent of the impacts of natural disaster Natural Disaster and Development in a Globalizing World is the first book to acknowledge the full implications of globalization for disaster and development. The contributors to this book fully examine global processes and how they might affect disaster risk at the global scale, links between international issues such as diplomatic relations, the growth of non-governmental organizations and the health of the international insurance industry, and disaster risk, the interaction of these large-scale forces with local conditions through case study analysis of individual disaster events. In his revealing work, author Pelling makes clear the links between global-scale processes and local experiences of disaster and underlies the difficulty of attributing blame for individual disasters on specific global pressures. He argues that action to reduce disaster must be coordinated at the local, national and global scales and that there is a need for greater integration across the physical and social sciences. In this context, the human rights agenda is seen as a way of moving disaster reduction efforts forward.

The Routledge Companion to Humanitarian Action Roger Mac Ginty, Jenny H Peterson, 2015-03-24

The Companion on Humanitarian Action addresses the political, ethical, legal and practical issues which influence reactions to humanitarian crisis. It does so by exploring the daily dilemmas faced by a range of actors including policy makers, aid workers, the private sector and the beneficiaries of aid, and by challenging common perceptions regarding humanitarian crisis and the policies put in place to address these. Through such explorations, it provides practitioners and scholars with the knowledge needed to both understand and improve upon current forms of humanitarian action. The Companion will be of use to those interested in a range of humanitarian programmes ranging from emergency medical assistance, military interventions, managing refugee flows and the implementation of international humanitarian law. As opposed to addressing specific programmes, it will explore five themes seen as relevant to understanding and engaging in all modes of humanitarian action. The first section explores varying interpretations of humanitarianism, including critical historical and political economic explanations, as well as more practice-based explorations focused on notions, needs assessments and evaluation. Following this, readers will be exposed to the latest debates on a range of humanitarian principles, including neutrality and sovereignty, before exploring the key issues faced by the main actors involved in humanitarian crisis, from international NGOs to local community-based organizations. The final two sections address what are seen as key dilemmas in regards to humanitarian action and emerging trends in the humanitarian system, including the increasing role of social media in responding to crises. Whilst not a how-to guide, the Companion contains many practical insights for policy makers and aid workers, whilst also offering analytical insights for students of humanitarian action. Indeed, throughout the book, readers will come to the realization that understanding and improving humanitarian action simultaneously requires both active critical reflection and an acceptance of the urgency and timeliness of action that is required for humanitarian assistance to have an impact on vital human needs. Exploring a sector that is far from homogenous, both practitioners and scholars alike will find the contributions of this book offers them a deeper understanding of the motivations and mechanics of current interventions, but also insight into current changes and progress occurring in the field.
