Ever Expanding Horizons:

Ever-expanding Horizons Carl P. Swanson, 1983 The Return of Science Philip Pomper, David Gary Shaw, 2002 In this collection of essays historians discuss the applications of evolutionary theory to cultural social economic and political phenomena William H McNeill presents a magisterial statement about the convergence of the sciences toward an evolutionary worldview Several contributors offer support for this thesis Anthropologist Donald Brown and archaeologist Albert Naccache bring together the realms of biology and culture in examinations of evolved human features and modes of evolution Demographer Noel Bonneuil and neuroscientist Alonso Pena apply mathematics to historical evolutionary processes such as the decision making of human agents and cultural diffusion Expanding Horizons Cornelius Woelfkin, 1927

One, Two, Three-- Infinity George Gamow, 1988-01-01 full of intellectual treats and tricks of whimsy and deep scientific philosophy It is highbrow entertainment at its best a teasing challenge to all who aspire to think about the universe New York Herald Tribune One of the world's foremost nuclear physicists celebrated for his theory of radioactive decay among other accomplishments George Gamow possessed the unique ability of making the world of science accessible to the general reader He brings that ability to bear in this delightful expedition through the problems pleasures and puzzles of modern science Among the topics scrutinized with the author's celebrated good humor and pedagogical prowess are the macrocosm and the microcosm theory of numbers relativity of space and time entropy genes atomic structure nuclear fission and the origin of the solar system In the pages of this book readers grapple with such crucial matters as whether it is possible to bend space why a rocket shrinks the end of the world problem excursions into the fourth dimension and a host of other tantalizing topics for the scientifically curious Brimming with amusing anecdotes and provocative problems One Two Three Infinity also includes over 120 delightful pen and ink illustrations by the author adding another dimension of good natured charm to these wide ranging explorations Whatever your level of scientific expertise chances are you'll derive a great deal of pleasure stimulation and information from this unusual and imaginative book It belongs in the library of anyone curious about the wonders of the scientific universe In One Two Three Infinity as in his other books George Gamow succeeds where others fail because of his remarkable ability to combine technical accuracy choice of material dignity of expression and readability Saturday Review of Literature Broadening Horizons Borrell Tena, Ferran, Bouso García, Mònica, Gómez Bach, Anna, Tornero Dacasa, Carles, Vicente Campos, Oriol, 2012 Broadening Horizons is a series of international congresses dedicated to researchers including postgraduate students in the early stages of their careers who are involved in a number of different disciplinary areas in the study of the Ancient Near East and the Eastern Mediterranean The general aim of the conferences is to encourage discussion of new topics and to promote the exchange of ideas data and scientific information among students and scholars of many different specialties archaeology prehistory history anthropology archaeobiology and philology throughout the geographical area known as the Ancient Near East The 3rd of these congresses was held in

Barcelona Spain from the 19th to the 21st of July 2010 in the Universitat Aut noma de Barcelona following previous congresses which had taken place at Ghent University Belgium in 2006 and at Universit Lyon 2 France in 2007 This volume includes not only the very interesting and diverse set of papers presented in Barcelona but also the invited contributions of the key speakers These two sections are followed by a final paper by the editors about the trajectory of the BH conferences and about the particularities and difficulties confronting young scholars who are doing research in the Near East
