Harper's New Monthly Magazine ,1875 Spookiest Stories Ever Roberta Simpson Brown,Lonnie E. Brown,2010-10-01 A collection of haunting tales set among the landscapes and landmarks of the Bluegrass State Tree branches scratching at your window on a stormy April night The hot sticky oppression of a stifling summer s day November leaves rustling as a chill sneaks into your bones The darkened days of winter No matter what the season it s always a good time for a ghost story From masterful storytelling duo Roberta and Lonnie Brown comes Spookiest Stories Ever Four Seasons of Kentucky Ghosts a creepy collection of tales from their home state Featuring familiar Kentucky landmarks such as the Palace Theater and the Waverly Hills Sanatorium in Louisville and Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill these accounts from across the commonwealth are sure to put a tingle in the reader s spine These notable stories including tales of the chime child who can see and talk to ghosts graveside appearances and the Spurlington Witch of Taylor County occur in all four seasons and come from every corner of Kentucky An essential part of the American storytelling tradition these ghost stories will delight those who love getting goose bumps all year long Greatest Military Mission Stories Ever Told Tom McCarthy,2022-11-01 The orders to proceed were nothing more than an invitation to die and usually in unpleasant ways But the soldiers proceeded nonetheless because a higher cause was at stake This stunning collection of stories is a tribute to the courage steely resolve and discipline of men who accomplished daunting missions in the face of almost certain death Nonetheless they stepped into the breach and performed heroically That was their duty and they did not question They had a mission and they accepted Here are ten powerful stories of American soldiers and sailors that span more than 200 years of action with one common theme summed up succinctly a participant who took control of Omaha Beach on D Day 1944 We were doing the very thing that we had trained so long to do and we were fascinated and eagerly excited about it We realized that any number of things might happen to us and knew too that some things we d never dreamed of might very well be waiting for us on the beach From Marines taking Iwo Jima s Mount Suribachi or defending Khe Sanh Navy pilots taking to the air to defend Pearl Harbor or an outnumbered American regiment in Korea defeating the Chinese at the Battle of Chipyong ni courage was the common watchword death the common consequence Such is the lot of soldiers everywhere Here is a not so gentle reminder of the never will Everything is packaged All you do is go to the store and buy you a package and cook it Automatic washers and dryers I m glad they don t have to work like I did Very glad Edith Bradley Rendleman s story of her life in southern Illinois is remarkable in many ways Recalling the first half of the twentieth century in great detail she vividly cites vignettes from her childhood as her family moved from farm to farm until settling in 1909 in the Mississippi bottoms of Wolf Lake She recounts the lives and times of her family and neighbors during an era gone forever Remarkable for the vivid details that evoke the past Rendleman s account is rare in another respect memoirs of the time usually written by people from elite or urban families often reek of nostalgia But Rendleman s memoir differs from the norm Born poor in rural southern Illinois she tells an unvarnished tale of what it was really like growing up on a tenant farm early this century
