The Everingham Letterbook Matthew Everingham, Valerie Ross, 1985      Letters across Borders B. Elliot, D. Gerber, S. Sinke, 2006-09-02 This collection addresses the recent rebirth of interest in immigrant letters As these letters are increasingly seen as key rather than incidental documents in the interpretations of gender age social class and ethnicity nationality the scholars gathered here demonstrate a diversity of new approaches to their interpretation      Bushwalking Through History, the Blue Mountains Greg Powell, 1989      Oceans of Consolation David Fitzpatrick, 2019-06-30 An ocean of consolation was what one young Irish emigrant in rural Australia called a letter from his father in County Clare in 1855 Similar strength of feeling is often found in the intriguing letters that David Fitzpatrick has unearthed for this extraordinary collection Oceans of Consolation offers historians and family researchers novel and sophisticated ways of reading old letters It opens to us the daily preoccupations of ordinary women and men with little education and fewer material possessions as they try to overcome the separation from family and friends created by emigration Fitzpatrick includes the personal correspondence of fourteen families of Irish emigrants in the Australian colonies giving equal attention to letters to and from Australia He reproduces in full more than one hundred letters dating from 1843 to 1906 and includes a generous selection of contemporary engravings and photographs Fitzpatrick's detailed commentaries offer biographical narratives for all of these emigrants tracing their Irish backgrounds and Australian careers Parting company with editors of comparable collections he pays special attention to the words and idiom by which letterwriters expressed their everyday concerns and sought or offered reassurance and advice He believes that personal letters provide not only unique evidence of the hopes and fears of emigrants but also an important avenue for exploring popular Irish culture      Journal of the Royal Australian Historical Society Royal Australian Historical Society, 2005 Includes the Society's Annual report and statement of accounts      Australian Books in Print 1995 Thorpe, D. W., Staff, 1995-04 This unique reference provides detailed bibliographic information on over 60 000 in print books published in or about Australia or written by Australian authors There are also details on over 3 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on all trade associations literary awards more      Australasian Drama Studies , 2001      Farewell to Judges & Juries Hugh Anderson, 2000 This important work is the first detailed collection of the ballads of convict transportation to be made and includes approximately 140 broadside ballads and songs many with tunes The remainder of the book is made up of an extensive name Index Index of Titles and First Lines a Bibliography of works on both transportation and broadsides and notes on the Sources The work is an essential reference work for early Australian literature and complements Ferguson      The Pursuit of Wonder Julia Horne, 2005 More than 200 years after Joseph Banks global tour we can still appreciate the magic of wonder the motivation of thousands of tourists each year who seek out natural beauties This beautiful book will appeal to those who enjoy their history placed in the best possible surrounds      Australian National Bibliography , 1986

Bookbuyers' Reference Book, 1993      History, 1996      The Second Fleet Michael Flynn, 1993      Across Great Divides Susan E Boyer, 2013-11-30

Across Great Divides true stories of life at Sydney Cove will appeal to all readers young old and in between who love to be immersed in a good read while learning new things The stories will no doubt make you wonder what would I have done Across Great Divides true stories of life at Sydney Cove brings to life the diverse experiences of people living in the precarious circumstance of Australia's first penal colony The stories are relayed through a non fiction narrative which shows how convict men saw and seized the possibilities of their new position It portrays the situation of convict women and their relationships with military men The stories demonstrate the varied responses of participants to their unique situation some succeeded beyond their imagination some failed disastrously The stories also give voice to the dilemma of the Aboriginal people challenged by the unexpected arrival of a completely alien race of white people to their land Bennelong and his difficult to ignore wife Barangaroo dealt with their new circumstances in a way they felt would best benefit themselves and their people On the other hand the young warrior Pemulwuy had his own ideas about how the white invaders should be confronted Boorong and Nanberry two native children taken separately into the homes of white settlers in the aftermath of a devastating epidemic went on to have fickle yet enduring relationships with their white guardians The stories in Across Great Divides true stories of life at Sydney Cove give the different perspectives of military men who had volunteered for a tour of duty in the remote colony Marine officers Watkin Tench William Dawes George Johnston Philip Gidley King and Captain John Hunter left valuable links to past times through their diaries letters and journals Arthur Phillip the colony's first governor also wrote letters which give us insight into the dilemmas plaguing his mind      The Founders of Australia Mollie Gillen, 1989 On 13 May 1787 more than 1 500 people sailed with the eleven ships of the First Fleet to become the founders of the modern nation of Australia After 20 years of research Mollie Gillen has produced the most comprehensive study to date of the people of the First Fleet Based largely on original sources in Britain and Australia it functions both as a detailed historical reference work with much new information and also as a very readable social history Every person who sailed with the First Fleet or was born on board has been included whether a child convict sailor marine or officer The result is a fascinating series of pen pictures in a total of 1 442 biographical entries The background of each first Fleeter is examined including the circumstances of the crime and trial of each convict as well as their lives after 1788 as they spread through New South Wales Norfolk Island Van Diemen's land and in some cases returned to England The book includes extensive explanatory notes is fully indexed with a number of maps illustrations and the facsimile signatures and marks of hundreds of First Fleeters Twelve appendices include abstracts of biographical information descriptions of the First Fleet ships and their crews a chronology of the First Fleet miscellaneous facts of interest statistics and the Phantom Fleeters persons inaccurately claimed in earlier publications to be First Fleeters Inside front cover      Letter Book Great Britain. Admiralty, Philip Stephens, 1785 Letter book containing copies of letters from the Secretary of the Admiralty Philip Stephens to the Commandant of the Marines at Portsmouth The letters deal mostly with routine administrative matters such as leave discharges lodging money promotions supplies buildings at Portsmouth the infirmary and court martials At least 25 of the letters dating from October 1786 May 1787 relate to preparations for the departure of the First Fleet for Botany Bay Most of these letters deal with arms equipment clothing drums and wives and with the embarkation of the convict ships Two letters dated May 1789 relate to the Second Fleet      The Etchingham Letters Ella Fuller Maitland,1903
