More Rhyme and Reason Russ Leger,2013-02-05 Writing rhymes began in 1945 my senior year at Nebraska University The students were preparing a stage production to celebrate the end of World War II I was asked to write a song and sing it I did it and my joy in writing rhymes began I don't think I ever sat down just for the purpose of writing a rhyme There was always a motive like birthdays or special events The cover of my first book and this one really sums it up People Places Passion Purpose It wasn't very long that I learned my rhymes were best when inspired by God The readers and time tell the most about a book A priest that I know called to tell me that he read The Parish Shepherd the first thing each morning A second priest said he used the poem TWO PLANS when he spoke to a group of ladies In this book More Rhyme and Reason the poems came from the same kind of inspirations One of the best I have written is first in this book The Politician Some poems are happy rhymes for birthdays or anniversaries Some are of places traveled I like to write rhymes that teach and hopefully there will be fulfillment If a poet inspired me in my student days it was Longfellow I have always strived to achieve a message with perfect rhyme and meter If any reader of my writing is entertained and gratified I have achieved my goal Enjoy
