Inquiring Minds: Portraits of a Learned Woman Pasquale De Marco, 2025-03-16 In Inquiring Minds: Portraits of a Learned Woman we embark on a captivating journey into the lives of extraordinary women whose insatiable thirst for knowledge illuminated the world. These learned women defied societal norms, challenged long-held beliefs, and left an indelible mark on history. From the bustling salons of Paris to the hallowed halls of academia, these women fearlessly pursued their intellectual passions. They were patrons of the arts, collectors of books, and ardent supporters of education for all. Their influence extended far beyond their own time, leaving a legacy that continues to shape our world today. We encounter women like Hypatia of Alexandria, a mathematician, astronomer, and philosopher who fearlessly challenged prevailing ideas and paid the ultimate price for her pursuit of truth. We meet Hildegard of Bingen, a visionary abbess, mystic, and writer whose works spanned medicine, theology, and natural history. And we discover the remarkable story of Ada Lovelace, the daughter of Lord Byron who is often regarded as the world's first computer programmer. Their stories are a testament to the indomitable spirit of human curiosity and the transformative power of knowledge. They remind us that the pursuit of knowledge is not just an academic endeavor but a journey of self-discovery and empowerment. Inquiring Minds is a celebration of these extraordinary women and their enduring legacy. It is a book that will inspire readers of all ages to embrace their own intellectual curiosity and strive for greatness. If you like this book, write a review.

Hanson, 2017-11-02 I'm 30 Now What is a discovery through the perception of women born between 1977-1987. At the time of writing this book, we are in our thirties. There is something about our generation that never quite fits in a traditional sense. Our authors are from or have lived in Canada USA Turkey Germany Barcelona and Europe yet there is a common feeling of displacement across the globe within our lost generation We were the first generation to have vast choices around education career and our role in the household We were able to stumble off the traditional path and survive We were raised in a very transitional phase from single to dual income households and grew up during the rise of broken homes We saw war for its true colors an industry and not an act of freedom the creation of the internet and watching it burst followed by an economic banking and housing crash We also saw positive change rapid gentrification spirituality equal rights gay rights and same sex marriage the everyday feminist and females running the workplace male nurses stay at home dads and moms to mompreneurs to childless women by choice finding commonalities outside of mommyhood As adults we view diversity and open mindedness as our way of life We didn't start all these trends but we are the outcome We were born to be a generation of change a generation of options Maybe instead of being the lost generation we were the born Choice Makers Yet we don't fully own this We CAN choose a life outside of a cookie cutter mold and we have the right to be unapologetic when doing so This book is a heavy controversial eye opener while being a tool for healing growth owning your power and embracing choice
