Mark is 17 years old and trapped in a time loop and that's just fine with him. It's summertime and he's spending this one infinitely repeating day reading his way through the town library. Then he discovers someone else in the loop with him, the brilliant, haunted Margaret. Together Mark and Margaret set out to find every wonderful, amazing, perfect thing that happens in that one day, a journey that will take them to the dark secret that waits at the very heart of their endless day. Thrilling, funny and deeply romantic, this novella is perfect for fans of John Green, Nicola Yoon and Jandy Nelson. First, it begins with the theoretical analysis and the social significance of AIDS, which is different from the simple conflict between different schools of thought. Second, it analyses the contest of various social powers in the process of AIDS construction and conclusion rather than making different explanations of policies. Last but not least, it elaborates on the central proposition, i.e. the AIDS issue is a symbol of China's social restructuring process. Only in an effort to advance such a process can we be more likely to find the best problem-solving mode rather than clamouring repeatedly or giving countermeasures alone.
