with Bernstein Jack Gottlieb, 2010-04 Early on critics often were distracted by the Maestro's dance-like style as a conductor. But he always protested that he was not aware of it during the performance. His podium manner had to be a burning need to communicate the composer's thought processes to both orchestra and audience whatever the physicality it took to make it manifest. At times it was as if he were in the title of one of his songs from On the Town. Carried Away. One is reminded of words from Psalm 35.      The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress, American Library Association. Committee on Resources of American Libraries.
