Economy Society And Lordship In Medieval Poland 1100 125:

Economy, Society, and Lordship in Medieval Poland, 1100-1250 Piotr Górecki, 1992 A valuable contribution to our knowledge of European institutional growth

The Bioarchaeology of Urbanization Tracy K. Betsinger, Sharon N. DeWitte, 2020-11-05 Urbanization has long been a focus of bioarchaeological research but what is missing from the literature is an exploration of the geographic and temporal range of human biological demographic and sociocultural responses to this major shift in settlement pattern Urbanization is characterized by increased population size and density and is frequently assumed to produce negative biological effects However the relationship between urbanization and human health requires careful examination given the heterogeneity that exists within and between urban contexts Studies of contemporary urbanization have found both positive and negative outcomes which likely have parallels in past human societies This volume is unique as there is no current bioarchaeological book addressing urbanization despite various studies of urbanization having been conducted Collectively this volume provides a more holistic understanding of the relationships between urbanization and various aspects of human population health The insight gained from this volume will provide not only a better understanding of urbanization in our past but it will also have potential implications for those studying urbanization in contemporary communities

Rulers and Rulership in the Arc of Medieval Europe, 1000-1200 Christian Raffensperger, 2023-08-24 Rulers and Rulership in the Arc of Medieval Europe challenges the dominant paradigm of what rulership is and who rulers are by decentering the narrative and providing a broad swath of examples from throughout medieval Europe Within that territory the prevalent idea of monarchy and kingship is overturned in favor of a broad definition of rulership This book will demonstrate to the reader that the way in which medieval Europe has been constructed in both the popular and scholarly imaginations is incorrect Instead of a king we have multiple rulers male and female ruling concurrently Instead of an independent church or a church striving for supremacy under the Gregorian Reform we have a pope and ecclesiastical leaders making deals with secular rulers and an in depth interconnection between the two Finally instead of a strong centralizing polity growing into statehood we see weak rulers working hand in glove with weak subordinates to make the polity as a whole function Medievalists Byzantinists and Slavists typically operate in isolation from one another They do not read each other's books or engage with each other's work This book requires engagement from all of them to point out that the medieval Europe that they work in is one and the same and demands collaboration to best understand it

Parishes, Tithes, and Society in Earlier Medieval Poland C. 1100-C. 1250 Piotr Gorecki, 2008 In 1226 Pope Honorius III resolved a conflict between the Duke of Silesia Henry I the Bearded Bishop Lawrence of Wroclaw the see of that duchy Henry alleged that the bishop had subjected the inhabitants of his duchy to unowed exactions levied as tithes Henry alleged a devastating impact of Lawrence's demands on settlement in his duchy on his authority over its inhabitants implicitly on the entire social economic political order over which he presided This is a study of the period in which parish churches tithe revenues are documented Identifies those features of local churches tithing that were routine innovative controversial Assesses directions of change during the period of documentation Illustrations Economy, Society and Lordship in Early Medieval Poland Piotr Górecki,1988 International Bibliography of Historical Sciences ,1992 Verzeichnis der exzerpierten Zeitschriften 1926 p XXXI XVII A History of Western Society John P.
