Ecstasy Understanding The Psychology Of Joy:

Ecstasy Robert A. Johnson, 2009-07-01 The renowned Jungian psychologist and author of Transformation and Owning Your Own Shadow brings the hidden gift of ecstasy back into our lives Robert A Johnson has taken tens of thousands of readers on spiritual and psychological journeys towards inner transformation In Ecstasy he reconnects with the powerful and life changing ecstatic element that lies dormant but long repressed within us Ecstasy was once considered a divine gift Johnson tells us one that could lift mortals out of ordinary reality and into higher world But because Western culture has systematically repressed this ecstatic human impulse we are unable to truly experience its transformative power Johnson penetrates the surface of modern life to reveal the ancient dynamics of our humanity pointing out practical means for achieving a healthy expression of our true inner selves Through dreams rituals and celebrations he shows us how to return to these original life giving principles and restore inner harmony

The Routledge Companion to Performance Practitioners Franc Chamberlain, Bernadette Sweeney, 2020-08-16 The Routledge Companion to Performance Practitioners collects the outstanding biographical and production overviews of key theatre practitioners first featured in the popular Routledge Performance Practitioners series of guidebooks Each of the chapters is written by an expert on a particular figure from Stanislavsky and Brecht to Laban and Decroux and places their work in its social and historical context Summaries and analyses of their key productions indicate how each practitioner's theoretical approaches to performance and the performer were manifested in practice All 22 practitioners from the original series are represented with this volume covering those born before the end of the First World War This is the definitive first step for students scholars and practitioners hoping to acquaint themselves with the leading names in performance or deepen their knowledge of these seminal figures

God and the Evolving Universe James Redfield, Michael Murphy, Sylvia Timbers, 2003-01-06 In a world racked by violence and conflict James Redfield and Michael Murphy leading cocreators of today's spiritual boom present a message of hope and a vision for the future It is no accident they argue that the twentieth and early twenty first centuries have witnessed a revolution in new human capacities Daily we hear and read about supernormal athletic feats clairvoyant perception lives transformed by meditative practices healing through prayer and we ourselves experience these things The authors contend that thousands of years of human striving have delivered us to this very moment in which each act of self development is creating a new stage in planetary evolution and the emergence of a human species possessed of vastly expanded potential

Stories of the Celtic

Soul Friends Edward Cletus Sellner, 2004 Edward C Sellner tells of the tradition of the Celtic anamchara or soul friend the loving mentor who promotes the spiritual growth of those he or she guides in his original and insightful Stories of the Celtic Soul Friends Here punctuated by the stimulating stories of the four leaders of the early Celtic church St Patrick St Brigit St Columcille and the relatively obscure St Colman of Land Ela the author traces celebrates and demonstrates the tradition s immediacy to our own faith lives and work holding Jesus as the perfect exemplar Mentors teachers of religion pastors counselors and anyone embarking upon a spiritual journey should find this a beneficial as well as invigorating read A new twist on Celtic spirituality Along with the always popular St Patrick this book introduces lesser known Celtic saints

Resolving Environmental Conflict Towards Sustainable Community Development Chris Maser, Carol A. Pollio, 1995-11-21 One of the most important challenges facing civilization is how its natural resources will be used and protected Too often polarization and litigation cause results with which no one is truly satisfied Enemies are made lines are drawn and both people and the environment are degraded Resolving Environmental Conflict explains the transformative approach toward facilitation It shows how to help parties empower themselves to define the issues and decide the settlement on their own terms and on their own time through better understanding of one another s perspectives The transformative approach allows a conflict s outcome to be decided solely by the participants even though resolution may not take place for some months after facilitation is complete Inherent in the solution is a shared vision for the community without which sustainability is not possible Beyond shared vision this book examines notions of development sustainability and community and the synergism of ecology culture and economic needs that promote a healthy environment enriching the lives of all its inhabitants A Re-Visioning of Love Ana Mozol, 2019-06-10 In A Re Visioning of Love Dark Feminine Rising Ana Mozol parts the illusory veils of persona as she explores the reality of feminine experiences relating to love trauma and sexuality in contemporary Western society Mozol takes us on a personal journey through the three levels of experience delving into the underworld and the trauma of rape the middle world and the illusions of romantic love and the upper world and the masculine spiritual ideals that fracture the feminine soul In this multidisciplinary examination of the feminine Mozol seeks to understand violence against women intrapsychically interpersonally and within the field of depth psychology The book begins with Mozol s own experiences with violence and her exploration of the demon lover complex and the stages of breaking this complex after trauma Combining personal testimony theoretical reflections historical analysis and 20 years of clinical experience Mozol uses a heuristic approach to explore personal stories clinical material dreams and depth analysis as they connect to the female individuation process We follow Mozol s journey through the middle world and the illusions of romantic love into the upper world and the complexity of Oscar Wilde s feminine character Salome who represents the rising dark feminine energy that must be reckoned with for the possibility of love to exist Accessible yet powerful Mozol uses her personal story to place the oppression of women within the Jungian context of individuation A Re Visioning of Love Dark Feminine Rising will be key reading for academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies psychotherapy trauma studies gender studies women's studies and criminology It will also be an indispensable resource for Jungian psychotherapists and analytical psychologists in practice and in training A Re Visioning of Love however is more than a psychological exploration it is a memoir of the personal and archetypal feminine and as such will appeal to anyone interested in the story of many women today

How to Tell God from the Devil A. Roy Eckardt, 2018-01-16 How to Tell God From the Devil is the first book to depict the relationship among comedy the Devil and God Drawing from Jewish and Christian theories Eckardt describes comedy as a means to distinguish the divine from the diabolic He presents a thorough critique of efforts throughout history to justify God in the presence of radical evil and suffering How to Tell God From the Devil is a sequel to Eckardt's fascinating earlier study Sitting in the Earth and Laughing Eckardt offers a theological vision of the comic and shows its practical use in differentiating God from the Devil The viewpoint presupposed is a special application of the incongruity theory of humor which sees humor as an attempt to deal with inexplicable occurrences Eckardt shows how humor can make faulty explanations tolerable for examining evil and suffering particularly the notion that God can somehow be excused for the terrible evils extant in the world Eckardt critiques dualistic views that make the Devil and God independent sovereign beings and monistic views that try to reduce evil to non being Eckardt holds God to be ultimately responsible for evil in such ways that the only final resolution of evil if there is such is a form of divine comedy Eckardt employs a variety of historical psychological sociological philosophical and theological sources He discusses and assesses such diverse figures as Martin Luther Reinhold Niebuhr Zen Buddhists Conrad Hyers Nancy A Walker Jon D Levenson and Harvey Cox How to Tell God From The Devil is an exceptional work and will be significant and enjoyable for sociologists
