Essays in Ecumenical Theology I Ivana Noble, 2018-11-26 In the first volume of Essays in Ecumenical Theology Ivana Noble depicts differences between what she calls a sectarian outlook and one which engages in the search for common roots dialogical relationships and shared mission in a world that has largely become post Christian but often also post secular Drawing on both Western and Orthodox scholarship and expressing her own positions Noble sketches what ecumenical theology is how it is linked to spirituality the methods it uses how it developed during the twentieth century and the challenges it faces Specific studies deal with controversial interpretations of Jan Hus Catholic Modernism the problematic heritage of the totalitarian regimes and responses to the current humanitarian crisis Historical Dictionary of Ecumenical Christianity Ans Joachim van der Bent, 1994-12-01 This historical dictionary covers the major trends in the 20th century ecumenical movement until today It deals with developments in the realms of church unity mission and evangelism laity women in church and society and many other ecumenical subjects It also covers many programs and activities of the World Council of Churches since its inception in 1948 The longer articles survey important theological themes while short articles provide quick reference on a precise question The bibliography is not exhaustive some 50 000 titles have been published since the beginning of this century but very helpful for major bibliographical information The dictionary is particularly strong in American subjects and includes a great number of ecumenical personalities which cannot be found in other reference works This publication is not only an indispensable tool of research for university and seminary libraries but also for individual persons belonging to whatever Christian church who are interested in knowing more about reflections relations and activities in the several regions of the ecumenical world A helpful description of the most important ecumenical assemblies and conferences is provided To take stock of the past to interpret the present and to look forward into the third millennium of Christian existence are exciting and challenging enterprises Postcolonial Biblical Interpretation Jeremy Punt, 2015-01-08 In Postcolonial Biblical Interpretation Jeremy Punt reflects on the nature and value of the postcolonial hermeneutical approach as it relates to the interpretation of biblical and in particular Pauline texts Showing when a socio politically engaged reading becomes postcolonial but also what in the term postcolonial both attracts and also creates distance exegesis from a postcolonial perspective is profiled The book indicates possible avenues in how postcolonial work can be helpful theoretically to the guild of biblical scholars and to show also how it can be practiced in exegetical work done on biblical texts Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa Private Development Aid in Transition Fons van der Valden, 2002 Study with particular reference to Dutch economic assistance to India      Reframing the House Jennifer Marie Buck,2016-06-02 Reframing the House continues the conversation of global theology as the future of the church Jennifer Buck tells how women s voices from Africa Asia and Latin America serve as a critique of Evangelical theology of the church in the West Three voices are highlights here from the Majority world Mercy Oduyoye a Ghanaian feminist theologian as representative of Africa Kwok Pui lan a Chinese feminist theologian as representative of Asia and Maria Pilar Aquino a Mexican feminist theologian representative of the Americas Working with these women along with Quaker political and feminist voices this work presents a constructive global ecclesiology exploring areas such as salvation sin peacemaking and more      Weep Not for Your Children Lisa Isherwood,Rosemary Radford Ruether,2016-06-16 Violence remains endemic in today s society Religious morality and social prejudice can lead to many acts of violence going unnoticed Weep Not for Your Children presents a selection of essays that examine the ways in which religion and violence interconnect The presence of violence in the origins of cultural and religious norms is examined The essays cover a wide range of examples of violence from the Holocaust to domestic violence and from the violence created by economic systems to that created by the construction of gender itself Weep Not for Your Children challenges and provokes the reader to think beyond traditional associations of good and evil

Encountering Diversity in Indian Biblical Studies David J. Chalcraft,Zhodi Angami,2023-03-20 This book provides analysis of a variety of biblical narratives and texts which are the vehicle for the expression articulation and performance of diverse identities in the Indian context and is the first attempt to do so for a global audience of scholars and students From pan Indian social problems attributed to caste class and gender inequality to specific North Eastern tribal settings Dalit struggles in rural Andhra Pradesh and the experience of Christian autorickshaw drivers in urban Chennai the book explores the diverse geographical cultural social economic and linguistic settings in which the Bible is encountered The holistic and multidisciplinary approach to Biblical studies adopted broadens the field beyond textual exegesis Encounters with the Bible are revealed in diverse chapters impacted by contexts of caste realities the history of Indian Christianity colonial and post colonial frameworks and educational institutions Full use is made of vernacular texts and traditions including oral and written cultural folk tale literary and auto biographical narratives in Tribal Dalit and British colonial settings Diversity of method is championed through including sociological analysis of Indian social realities qualitative fieldwork techniques and a kaleidoscope of visual and sensory environments with over 30 photographs The book celebrates and promotes diversity in Indian biblical studies creativity and sometimes conflicting perspectives Encountering Diversity in Indian Biblical Studies will be of interest to students scholars and researchers working on post colonial biblical studies and diversity in Christianity particularly in the Indian context      The Ecumenical Review ,1994      Climate Change and Cultural Transition in Europe ,2018-02-12 Climate Change and Cultural Transition in Europe is an account of Europe s share in the making of global warming which considers the past and future of climate society interactions Contributors include Clara Brandi R diger Glaser

Iso Himmelsbach Claudia Kemfert Emmanuel Le Roy Ladurie Claus Leggewie Franz Mauelshagen Geoffrey Parker Christian Pfister Dirk Riemann Lea Schmitt Jörn Sieglerschmidt Markus Vogt and Steffen Vogt Dictionary of the Ecumenical Movement Nicolas Lossky, 2002 The 700 entries in this dictionary have been written by leading figures in the ecumenical movement from all parts of the world Entries are fully cross referenced and many of the articles are enhanced by short bibliographies Entries cover faith and order dialogue mission and evangelism communication church and society theological education institutional histories and relations of Orthodox Protestants and Roman Catholics within the ecumenical movement Biographical sketches outline the contributions of some of the individuals who have furthered the cause of ecumenism in the 20th century Cross references direct the reader to more detailed information or to matters of related interest Religion and Politics in America's Borderlands Sarah Azaransky, 2013-06-06 Religion and Politics in America's Borderlands brings together leading academic specialists on immigration and the borderlands as well as nationally recognized grassroots activists who reflect on their varied experiences of living working and teaching on the US Mexico border and in the borderlands These authors demonstrate the groundbreaking claim that the borderlands are not only a location to think about religiously but they are also a place that reshapes religious thinking In this pioneering book scholars and activists engage with Scripture theology history church practices and personal experiences to offer in depth analyses of how the borderlands confront conventional interpretations of Christianity The Ecumenical Movement Tomorrow Marc Reuver, 1993 In Search of Ecumenical Vision Aram K'ēshishean, 2000 Minutes of the ... Meeting World Council of Churches. Central Committee, 1999 GRADIVA JOURNAL OF CONTEMPORARY THEORY AND PRACTICE, 2000 Ecumenical Missiology Lalsangkima Pachuau, 2002 Contributed articles presented at the International Consultation on Mission and Ecumenics held at United Theological College Bangalore from Sept 10-13 1998 Challenges and Responses Gnana Robinson, 2000 Contributed articles The Challenge to be a Church in a Changing World Aram K'ēshishean, 1997 African and European Readers of the Bible in Dialogue Gerald West, Hans (J.H.) de Wit, 2008-07-31 Far too long the relationship between European and African biblical scholarship has been a non relationship Divergent insights into how biblical texts should be interpreted and made fruitful for the current context cultural differences colonial past and post colonial future radically different social situations this all made companionship and real interaction difficult This rich and multilayered volume result of a Stellenbosch conference 2006 attempts to disclose new modes of dialogue between readers of the Bible from those two worlds More than twenty theologians from Africa and Europe reflect together on how readers from radically different contexts professional and ordinary alike may become allies in an ethically accountable way of relating the biblical text to their current global situations and how a process of mutual learning may be established This book provides important insights in intercultural hermeneutics the relationship between classical historico literary approaches and new forms of interpretation It also gives examples of new forms of how to read the Bible in the secularised European context and the HIV

Aids stricken Africa Particularly enriching is that every contribution is followed by a personal letter of response of another contributor to the book giving impulses for further dialogue and debate The book is useful for all biblical scholars and students in particular for those interested in how to do contextual exegesis in a manner that also takes into account the context of the other
