Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century David Pierce, 2000 Arranged chronologically by decade from the 1890s to the 1990s each decade is divided into two different types of writing critical documentary and imaginative writing and is accompanied by a headnote which situates it thematically and chronologically The Reader is also structured for thematic study by listing all the pieces included under a series of topic headings The wide range of material encompasses writings of well known figures in the Irish canon and neglected writers alike This will appeal to the general reader but also makes Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century ideal as a core text providing a unique focus for detailed study in a single volume BOOK JACKET

From the Sin-é Café to the Black Hills Eamonn Wall, 1999 Eamonn Wall arrived in the United States in the 1980s as part of a wave of young educated immigrants who became known as the New Irish In this book he comments on his own experiences and those of his generation who identify as much with contemporary ethnic and immigrant America as they do with the long settled Irish American community Wall s starting point is the now closed Sin Caf in New York s East Village which was a hangout in the early 1990s for expatriate Irish musicians actors and writers He comments on the poetry fiction essays and memoirs of both the New Irish and Americans of Irish heritage locating them within a literary and historical context But this is also a deeply personal book in which Wall wrestles with his own identity as an Irishman living in America raising his children as Americans and learning to love the American landscape from the streets of Manhattan to the western hills of Nebraska Mail-Orders Sunka Simon,2002-03-21 While the advent and structure of electronic mail has been discussed in web caucuses newspapers hypertext theory and communication theory it has not yet been considered in conjunction with epistolary scenarios in film art and literature To address this gap Mail Orders explores the status of the epistolary form at the end of the twentieth century and its connections to feminist criticism literary theory and postmodernism One of the first works to consider electronic mail in relation to the history of epistolary fiction Mail Orders concerns itself with individual letters as well as fiction written in letter form and widens the debate on the often postulated death of letters by considering the epistolary connections between the eighteenth and twentieth centuries systems of communication and representation The Cambridge Companion to Contemporary Irish Poetry Matthew Campbell,2003-08-28 In the last fifty years Irish poets have produced some of the most exciting poetry in contemporary literature writing about love and sexuality violence and history country and city This book provides a unique introduction to major figures such as Seamus Heaney but also introduces the reader to significant precursors like Louis MacNeice or Patrick Kavanagh and vital contemporaries and successors among others Thomas Kinsella Paul Muldoon and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Readers will find discussions of Irish poetry from the traditional to the modernist written in Irish as well as English from both North and South This Companion the only book of its kind on the market provides cultural and historical background to contemporary Irish poetry in the contexts of modern Ireland but also in the broad currents of modern world literature It includes a chronology and guide to further reading and will prove invaluable to students and teachers alike The Field Day Anthology of Irish Writing Seamus Deane,Andrew Carpenter,Angela Bourke,Jonathan Williams,1991 New-Found-Lands Alwin Fill,1993 The Cambridge Companion to Contemporary Irish Poetry Matthew Campbell,2003-08-28 In the last fifty years Irish poets have produced some of the most exciting poetry in contemporary literature writing about love and sexuality violence and history country and city This book first published in 2003 provides an introduction to major figures such as Seamus Heaney and also introduces the reader to significant precursors like Louis MacNeice or Patrick Kavanagh and vital contemporaries and successors among others Thomas Kinsella Nuala N Dhomhnaill and Paul Muldoon Readers will find discussions of Irish poetry from the traditional to the modernist written in Irish as well as English from both North and South This Companion provides cultural and historical background to contemporary Irish poetry in the contexts of modern Ireland but also in the broad currents of modern world literature It includes a chronology and guide to further reading and will prove invaluable to students and teachers alike Ireland's Women Katie Donovan,1995 The women who appear in these pages are both well known and unknown real and invented They include for instance the fiery Elizabeth Fitzgerald who defended her castle so successfully and Granuaile the pirate queen from Galway Stories of Bird Life Henry Berthoud, 1875

Hamburgers in Paradise Louise O. Fresco, 2015-10-27 A fascinating exploration of our past present and future relationship with food For the first time in human history there is food in abundance throughout the world More people than ever before are now freed of the struggle for daily survival yet few of us are aware of how food lands on our plates Behind every meal you eat there is a story Hamburgers in Paradise explains how In this wise and passionate book Louise Fresco takes readers on an enticing cultural journey to show how science has enabled us to overcome past scarcities and why we have every reason to be optimistic about the future Using hamburgers in the Garden of Eden as a metaphor for the confusion surrounding food today she looks at everything from the dominance of supermarkets and the decrease of biodiversity to organic foods and GMOs She casts doubt on many popular claims about sustainability and takes issue with na ve rejections of globalization and the idealization of true and honest food Fresco explores topics such as agriculture in human history poverty and development and surplus and obesity She provides insightful discussions of basic foods such as bread fish and meat and intertwines them with social topics like slow food and other gastronomy movements the fear of technology and risk food and climate change the agricultural landscape urban food systems and food in art The culmination of decades of research Hamburgers in Paradise provides valuable insights into how our food is produced how it is consumed and how we can use the lessons of the past to design food systems to feed all humankind in the future Writer's Guide to Nonfiction

Performing Farmscapes Susan C. Haedicke, 2021-12-06 This book argues that the performance based work in the featured case studies contributes to the construction of food democracy where the public takes back decision making in shaping the food system It explores how contemporary artists translate scientific research about local and global agricultural issues into life stories that inform and engage their audiences and in so doing transform passive food consumers into proactive food citizens The pairing of performing and farmscapes complex webs of farmlands and storylines enables artists to use embodied practices to encourage audiences to imagine a just and sustainable agri food system and to collaborate on making it a reality The book arranges the case studies on a trajectory that moves from projects that foreground knowledge acquisition to ones that emphasize social engagement by creating conversations and coalitions between farming and nonfarming communities to a final one that pairs protest art and political activism to achieve legally binding changes in the agricultural landscape
