 Pramod K. Nayar,2020-11-25 This book studies human rights discourse across a variety of graphic novels both fiction and non fiction originating in different parts of the world from India to South Africa Sarajevo to Vietnam with texts on the Holocaust the Partition of the Indian subcontinent the Rwandan and Sarajevan genocides the Vietnam War comfort women in World War II and the Civil Rights movement in the USA to mention a few The book demonstrates the emergence of the universal subject of human rights despite the variations in contexts It shows how war rape genocide abuse social iniquity caste and race erode personhood in multiple ways in the graphic novel which portrays the construction of vulnerable subjects the cultural trauma of collectives the crisis and necessity of witnessing and resilience resistance through specific representational and aesthetic strategies It covers a large number of authors and artists Joe Sacco Joe Kubert Matt Johnson Walter Pleece Guy Delisle Appupen Thi Bui Olivier Kugler and others Through a study of these vastly different authors and styles the book proposes that the graphic novel as a form is perfectly suited to the culture and the lingua franca of human rights due to its amenability to experimentation and the sheer range within the form The book will appeal to scholars in comics studies human rights studies visual culture studies and to the general reader with an interest in these fields The
